43 New heading and sections 91A to 91H inserted

The following heading and sections are inserted after section 91: 5

“Driver licence stop orders

“91A Interpretation

In this section and in sections 91B to 91H, unless the context otherwise requires,— 10

“defendant means the person who is required to pay a traffic fine, and includes a young person within the meaning of the Children, Young Persons, and Their Families Act 1989

“resolved, in relation to a defendant’s obligation to pay a traffic fine, has the same meaning as in section 79(1) section 79 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 15

“served personally, in relation to a warning notice or a driver licence stop order, means served in the way described in section 91AB(1)(a)

“traffic fine— 20

“(a) means any amount of money that a person is for the time being obliged to pay under a sentence imposed or an order made, or deemed to be made, by a court in respect of a traffic offence, whether the amount payable under that sentence or order is described as a fine or as costs, levies, expenses, fees, reparation, or otherwise; and 25

“(b) includes an offender levy imposed under section 105B of the Sentencing Act 2002 for a traffic offence and any prescribed costs, expenses, or fees payable in respect of the enforcement of any amount of money described in paragraph (a); but 30

“(c) does not include any amount of money adjudged or ordered to be paid in a civil proceeding

“traffic offence means—

“(a) any offence against this Act, the Transport Act 1962, 35 the Transport (Vehicle and Driver Registration and Licensing) Act 1986, the Road User Charges Act 1977, or

“(b) by an employee or agent of the Ministry of Justice or an enforcement officer leaving it for the defendant, at his or her place of residence, with another person who appears to be of or over the age of 14 years:

“(c) by an employee or agent of the Ministry of Justice or an enforcement officer leaving it for the defendant, at the defendant’s place of business or place of work, with another person: 20

“(d) by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice sending it to the defendant by prepaid post addressed to the defendant at the defendant’s last known place of residence or business or place of work: 25

“(e) if the defendant has a known electronic address, by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice sending it to the defendant at that address in electronic form. 30

“(3) If a warning notice or driver licence stop order is served in the way described in subsection (1)(d), then, unless the contrary is shown, the notice or order is served when it would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post, and in proving service it is sufficient to prove that the letter concerned was properly addressed and posted. 5

“91B Liability to driver licence stop order

A defendant who is obliged to pay a traffic fine is liable to the imposition of a driver licence stop order if—

- “(a) the defendant has breached the provisions of an enactment or the terms of a sentence, an order, or a direction by failing to pay the traffic fine within the time provided or fixed by the enactment, sentence, order, or direction; and 10
- “(b) the defendant’s obligation to pay the fine is neither discharged, by payment in full or remission in full, nor resolved. 15

“91C Warning notice to be served on defendant

“(1) If a defendant is liable to the imposition of a driver licence stop order, the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice must arrange for a warning notice to be served on the defendant. 20

“(2) The notice must—

- “(a) explain why the defendant is liable to the imposition of a driver licence stop order and provide details of the unpaid traffic fine to which the liability relates; and 25
- “(b) if the defendant’s liability is related to the cancellation or revocation of a payment arrangement, deduction notice, or an attachment order, give the reason for the cancellation or revocation; and
- “(c) state that a driver licence stop order will not be imposed if, before the close of the 14th day after service of the notice, the unpaid traffic fine is paid in full, or remitted in full, or the defendant’s obligation to pay the fine is resolved. 30

“(3) No driver licence stop order imposed on a person is invalid merely because a notice under subsection (1) was not re- 35 ceived by that person or was received by that person after the driver licence stop order was imposed on the person.

“91D Imposition of driver licence stop order

- “(1) If, following the expiry of the period of 14 days after service of the notice sent to a defendant under section 91C, the defendant continues to be liable to a driver licence stop order because of the traffic fine described in that notice, the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice may impose a driver licence stop order on the defendant and issue it for service. 5
- “(1A) The chief executive of the Ministry of Justice may, on 1 or more occasions, reissue a driver licence stop order that has previously been issued or reissued for service but that is not yet in effect. 10
- “(2) An order imposed under subsection (1) must be in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice and must state— 15
- “(a) the name of the defendant; and
- “(b) the traffic fine in respect of which the order is imposed and the amount owing on that fine; and
- “(c) that the order will stay in effect until the defendant’s obligation to pay the traffic fine is discharged by payment in full or remission in full, or until it is resolved; and 20
- “(d) that, immediately after the order takes effect, any driver licence held by the defendant, including any limited licence issued under section 105, is suspended until the driver licence stop order is cancelled in accordance with section 91G or terminated in accordance with section 91H; and 25
- “(e) that if the order is served personally by an employee or agent of the Ministry of Justice or by an enforcement officer, the defendant must surrender any driver licence held by the defendant to that employee or agent or to that enforcement officer; and 30
- “(ea) that if the order is served, but is not served personally, the defendant must post or deliver any driver licence held by the defendant to an employee or agent of the 35

- Ministry of Justice at an office of that Ministry or at a District Court; and
- “(f) if the defendant does not hold a current driver licence when the order takes effect, that—
- “(i) the defendant is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver licence (including any limited licence) until the driver licence stop order is cancelled in accordance with section 91G or terminated in accordance with section 91H; and
- “(ii) if the defendant is authorised to obtain a limited licence, the limited licence may not be issued by the Agency until the driver licence stop order is so cancelled or terminated.
- “(3) When the order is issued for service, the defendant becomes liable to pay a single fee for the order, and that single fee—
- “(a) is deemed to be imposed when the order is first issued, regardless of the number of times that the same order may subsequently be reissued; and
- “(b) is not affected by the number of fines in respect of which the order is issued, so that if, for example, the order is issued for 2 fines, the fee is 1 fee and not 2 fees; and
- “(c) is, for enforcement purposes, deemed to be a fine.
- “(4) The amount of the fee deemed to be imposed by subsection (3) is the same as that prescribed by regulations, made under the Summary Proceedings Act 1957, in respect of enforcement action taken under that Act to enforce a fine.
- “91F Effect of driver licence stop order

- “(1A) A driver licence stop order that is in effect continues in effect until it is cancelled under section 91G or terminated under section 91H.
- “(2) Throughout the time that a driver licence stop order is in effect,— 5
- “(a) any driver licence held by the defendant on whom the order is imposed, including any limited licence held under section 105, is suspended; and
- “(b) if the defendant on whom the order is imposed does not hold a current driver licence when the order takes effect, the defendant is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver licence, including any limited licence under section 105; and 10
- “(c) if the defendant’s driver licence is suspended under paragraph (a), the defendant may not hold or obtain another driver licence, including any limited licence under section 105. 15

“91G Cancellation of driver licence stop order

- “(1) The chief executive of the Ministry of Justice may, if there is good reason for doing so, cancel a driver licence stop order.
- “(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), a good reason exists, for the purposes of that subsection, if the driver licence stop order— 25
- “(a) was imposed or served in error; or
- “(b) is inconsistent with a judicial determination.
- “(3) The chief executive of the Ministry of Justice must give notice of the cancellation to the person on whom the order was imposed and to the Agency. 30
- “(4) The cancellation takes effect when it is shown on the national register maintained under section 199.
- “(5) When the Agency receives notice of the cancellation, the Agency must, if the defendant’s driver licence was surrendered and forwarded to the Agency and the defendant is otherwise eligible to hold a current driver licence, replace the 35

“(2) The chief executive of the Ministry of Justice must give notice of the termination to the defendant and to the Agency.

“(3) The termination takes effect when it is shown on the national register maintained under section 199. 15
