- 10 Court offices 35
- (1) The Governor-General may, by notice in the Gazette, declare that an office of the High Court is established at a place and on and after a date stated in the notice.

- (2) The Governor-General may, by notice in the Gazette, abolish an office of the High Court.
- (3) The following provisions apply on the abolition of an office of the High Court (the abolished office):
- (a) the Minister may direct that the documents and records in the abolished office must be transferred to another office of the court (the substituted office): 5
 - (b) when delivered to the Registrar of the substituted office, the documents and records become subject to the custody of that Registrar:
 - (c) the Registrar of the substituted office may do anything that could under an enactment or a rule have been done by the Registrar of the abolished office: 10
 - (d) a step in a proceeding that could under an enactment or a rule have been taken in the abolished office may be taken in the substituted office:
 - (e) an act or a thing required or authorised by an enactment or a rule to be done by a person at the abolished office in relation to a proceeding or transaction or document may be done by a person at the substituted office: 15
 - (f) an address for service given by a party in relation to a proceeding in the abolished office continues to be the address for service of the party, but if the address does not comply with any enactment or rule the party must give a new address for service on first filing a document in the proceeding in the substituted office: 20
 - (g) a High Court Judge may—
 - (i) decide a question as to the application of this section or the procedure to be followed; and 25
 - (ii) make any order the Judge thinks fit.

Compare: 1908 No 89 s 23A

Jurisdiction of High Court

- 11 Jurisdiction of High Court 30
- The High Court has—
- (a) the jurisdiction that it had on the commencement of this Act; and
 - (b) the judicial jurisdiction that may be necessary to administer the laws of New Zealand; and
 - (c) the jurisdiction conferred on it by any other Act. 35

Compare: 1908 No 89 s 16

- 12 Power to award damages as well as, or in substitution for, injunction or specific performance
- The High Court may award damages in addition to or in substitution for an injunction or specific performance.
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 16A 5
- 13 Jurisdiction in relation to persons who lack competence to manage their affairs
- (1) The High Court has jurisdiction and control in relation to—
- (a) mentally impaired persons who, in the opinion of the court, lack wholly or partly the competence to manage their own affairs; and 10
- (b) the property and managers of those persons.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to other enactments making provision in relation to those persons or their property or managers.
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 17
- 14 When civil proceeding to be tried before Judge alone 15
- (1) A civil proceeding must be tried before a High Court Judge sitting alone.
- (2) This section is subject to section 15.
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 19B
- 15 Certain civil proceedings may be tried by High Court Judge with jury
- (1) Any party to a proceeding for defamation, false imprisonment, or malicious prosecution may, on giving notice in accordance with the High Court Rules, require the proceeding to be tried by a High Court Judge with a jury. 20
- (2) Any party to a counterclaim in a proceeding for defamation, false imprisonment, or malicious prosecution may, on giving notice in accordance with the High Court Rules, require the counterclaim to be tried by a High Court Judge with a jury. 25
- (3) If a notice is given under subsection (1) or (2), the proceeding or counterclaim must be tried in accordance with the subsection that applies.
- (3A) A High Court Judge may, on the application of either party, order that a proceeding for defamation, false imprisonment, or malicious prosecution or any issue in the proceeding be tried before a Judge without a jury if it appears to the Judge before the trial that the trial of the proceeding or the issue will— 30
- (a) involve mainly the consideration of difficult questions of law; or
- (b) require any prolonged examination of documents or accounts, or any investigation in which difficult questions in relation to scientific, technical, business, or professional matters are likely to arise, being an examination or investigation ~~which~~ that cannot conveniently be made with a jury. 35

- (3B) A proceeding for defamation, false imprisonment, or malicious prosecution that also contains other causes of action may be tried only before a High Court Judge without a jury.
- (4) No civil proceeding other than for defamation, false imprisonment, or malicious prosecution may be tried by a High Court Judge with a jury. 5
Compare: 1908 No 89 s 19A(1)–(5)
- 16 Question of foreign law must be decided by High Court Judge
- (1) A question about the effect of evidence of a foreign law that arises in a civil or criminal proceeding that is tried by a High Court Judge with a jury must be decided by the Judge alone. 10
- (2) This section overrides section 15.
Compare: 1908 No 89 s 19C
- 17 Proceedings in place of writs
- (1) This section applies in any case where, before the commencement of the Judicature Amendment Act (No 2) 1985,— 15
- (a) the High Court had jurisdiction to grant relief or a remedy or do any other thing by way of a writ; or
- (b) the High Court could issue a writ for the commencement or conduct of a proceeding or in relation to a proceeding.
- (2) If this section applies,— 20
- (a) the court continues to have jurisdiction to grant the relief or remedy or to do the thing; but
- (b) the court may not issue the writ; and

- (2) The President of the Court of Appeal and the Chief High Court Judge may jointly appoint Judges of the High Court to be members of the Court of Appeal for the purposes of any proceedings.
- (3) Judges may be appointed under subsection (2) either—
- (a) in respect of a specified case or specified cases; or 5
 - (b) in respect of every case to be heard by the Court of Appeal during a specified period not exceeding 3 months.
- (4) An appointment under subsection (2) may be made for 1 or more 3-month periods, but no Judge may be a member of the Court of Appeal under that subsection for more than 4 months in any calendar year. 10
- (5) Section 173 applies to an appointment under subsection (2) despite anything in subsection (3) or (4).
- ~~(6) Each division may exercise all the powers of the Court of Appeal.~~
- ~~(7) A division may exercise the powers of the Court of Appeal even though 1 or more divisions of the court or a full court exercises those powers at the same time. 15~~
- ~~(8) A majority of the members of a division may, if they consider it desirable, refer a proceeding, or state a case, or reserve a question for consideration by a full court of the Court of Appeal. A full court has power to hear and determine the proceeding, case, or question. 20~~
- ~~Compare: 1908 No 89 ss 58A, 58B~~
- 48 Assignment of Judges to divisions
- ~~(1) Judges are assigned to act as members of a criminal or civil division of the Court of Appeal in accordance with a procedure adopted from time to time by the Judges of the Court of Appeal holding office under section 43(2). 25~~
- ~~(2) The President of the Court of Appeal must publish the procedure on an Internet site maintained by or on behalf of the court.~~
- ~~Compare: 1908 No 89 s 58C~~
- 49 Powers exercisable by Judges
- (1) This section applies to all proceedings before the Court of Appeal other than proceedings under the Criminal Procedure Act 2011. 30
- (2) Any 2 or more Judges of the Court of Appeal may act as the court to determine—
- (a) any contested application for leave to appeal:
 - (b) any contested application for an extension of time to appeal: 35
 - (c) any other contested application or matter (other than an appeal) that effectively determines or disposes of the substantive proceeding.

- (3) A single Judge of the Court of Appeal may act as the court to determine any uncontested application of the kind referred to in subsection (2) or other uncontested matter in the court (other than an appeal).
- (4) If a single Judge acting under ~~subsection (2)~~ (3) determines not to grant an application or not to resolve a matter in favour of a party, the party may apply to have the Judge's determination ~~confirmed~~ reviewed by 2 or more Judges of the Court of Appeal. 5
- (5) The Judges who determine an application under subsection (4) may confirm, modify, or reverse the single Judge's determination.
- ~~(6) Every application or matter dealt with under this section must be determined on the papers, unless the Judge or Judges order that it be determined at an oral hearing or in any other manner considered just by the Judge or Judges.~~ 10
- (6) A single Judge of the Court of Appeal may—
- (a) review a decision of the Registrar made within the civil jurisdiction of the court under— 15
- (i) a power conferred on the Registrar by a rule made under section 145; or
- (ii) in the exercise of the powers under section 64(1)(b); and

- (a) from a judgment, decree, or order of the High Court;
- (b) under the Criminal Procedure Act 2011;
- (c) from any court or tribunal under any other Act that confers on the Court of Appeal jurisdiction and power to hear and determine an appeal.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to subsections (2A) and (4) and to rules made under section 145. 25
- (2A) No appeal, except an appeal under subsection (3), lies from any order or decision of the High Court made on an interlocutory application in respect of any civil proceeding unless leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal is given by the High Court on application made within 20 working days after the date of that order or decision or within any further time that the High Court may allow. 30
- (3) Any party to any proceedings may appeal without leave to the Court of Appeal against any order or decision of the High Court—
- (a) striking out or dismissing the whole or part of a proceeding, claim, or defence; or 35
- (b) granting summary judgment.

- (4) If the High Court refuses leave to appeal under subsection (2A), the Court of Appeal may grant that leave on application made to the Court of Appeal within 20 working days after the date of the refusal of leave by the High Court.
- (5) If leave to appeal under subsection (2A) or (4) is refused in respect of an order or a decision of the High Court made on an interlocutory application, nothing in this section prevents any point raised in the application for leave to appeal from being raised in an appeal against the substantive High Court decision. 5
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 66
- 58 Court of Appeal may remit proceeding to High Court 10
- The Court of Appeal may—
- (a) remit a proceeding to the High Court; or
- (b) order a new trial in the High Court of a civil or criminal proceeding that is the subject of an appeal to the Court of Appeal.
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 62 15
- 59 Judgment of Court of Appeal may be enforced by High Court
- A judgment, an order, or a decree of the Court of Appeal may be enforced by the High Court as if it had been given or made by the High Court.
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 63
- 60 Transfer of civil proceeding from High Court to Court of Appeal 20
- (1) A party to a civil proceeding in the High Court may apply for an order transferring the proceeding to the Court of Appeal.
- (2) In determining whether to make an order transferring the proceeding, the Court of Appeal must be satisfied that the circumstances of the proceeding are exceptional. 25
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), the circumstances may be exceptional if—
- (a) the party to the proceeding intends to submit that a relevant decision of the Court of Appeal should be overruled:
- (b) the proceeding raises an issue of considerable public importance that— 30
- (i) needs to be determined urgently; and
- (ii) is unlikely to be determined urgently if the proceeding is heard and determined by both the High Court and the Court of Appeal:
- (c) the proceeding does not raise a question of fact or a significant question of fact, but raises a question of law that is the subject of conflicting decisions of the Court of Appeal. 35
- (4) In deciding whether to make an order transferring the proceeding, the Court of Appeal must have regard to the following matters:
- (a) the primary purpose of the Court of Appeal as an appellate court:

- (b) the desirability of obtaining a determination of the proceeding in the High Court and a review of that determination on appeal:
- (c) whether a full court of the High Court could effectively determine the question in issue:
- (d) whether the proceeding raises a question of fact or a significant question of fact: 5
- (e) whether the parties have agreed to the transfer of the proceeding:
- (f) any other matter to which regard should be had in the public interest.
- (5) It is not a sufficient ground that the parties agree to the transfer.
- (6) The Court of Appeal has the jurisdiction of the High Court to hear and determine a proceeding transferred under this section. 10
- (7) The Court of Appeal may transfer back to the High Court a proceeding that has been transferred to the Court of Appeal.
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 64
- 61 Appeals against decisions of High Court on appeal from District Court, Family Court, or Youth Court 15
- (1) The decision of the High Court on appeal from the District Court, the Family Court, or the Youth Court is final unless a party, on application, obtains leave to appeal against the decision to the Court of Appeal.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) for leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal must be made to the High Court or, if the High Court refuses leave, to the Court of Appeal. 20
- (3) If leave to appeal is obtained under subsection (1), the decision of the Court of Appeal is final unless a party obtains leave to appeal against that decision to the Supreme Court. 25
- (3A) If there is non-compliance with any procedural rules in relation to an application or appeal under this section before the Court of Appeal, the court may dismiss the application or appeal or deal with it in any other manner and on any terms that the court decides.
- (4) Subsections (1) to (3A) are subject to Part 4. 30
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 67
- 62 Reasons for granting or refusing leave to appeal
- (1) The Court of Appeal may, but does not have to, give reasons for granting leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal.
- (1A) The Court of Appeal must give reasons for refusing leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal. 35
- (2) Reasons given by the Court of Appeal may be stated—
- (a) briefly; and

(b) in general terms only.

Compare: 2003 No 53 s 16

62A Procedure if Judges absent

- (1) This section applies if, because of the death or unavailability of 1 or 2 of the Judges of the Court of Appeal who are about to begin or have begun hearing a proceeding, only 2 of those Judges (in the case of a division of the court) or 3 or 4 of those judges (in the case of a full court) remain available to hear and determine the proceeding. 5
- (2) The remaining Judges must decide whether the proceeding must be adjourned or reheard, or may continue. 10
- (3) If the remaining Judges decide that the proceeding may continue,—
- (a) they may—
- (i) act as the Court of Appeal in relation to the proceeding and hear and determine the proceeding; and
- (ii) make any order or decision on any interlocutory application; and 15
- (iii) make any order or decision as to costs; and
- (b) a reference in section 54(1) to a majority of the Judges hearing the proceeding must be read as a reference to the 2 remaining Judges (in the case of a division) or to a majority of those remaining Judges (in the case of a full court). 20
- (4) If the death or unavailability occurs while judgment is reserved in the proceeding, the remaining Judges must decide—
- (a) whether the judgment should be produced or completed, and (if so) who should produce or complete the judgment; or
- (b) whether the proceeding should be reheard. 25
- (5) If, at the time appointed for a session of the Court of Appeal, 1 or more Judges are absent, the Judge or Judges present may adjourn or further adjourn the session to some other time.
- (6) If none of the Judges of the Court of Appeal is present at the time appointed for a session of the court, the Registrar of the Court of Appeal must adjourn the session and may determine the time and place of the next session. 30

74 Criteria for leave to appeal

- (1) The Supreme Court must not give leave to appeal to it unless it is satisfied that it is necessary in the interests of justice for the court to hear and determine the appeal.
 (2) It is necessary in the interests of justice for the Supreme Court to hear and determine a proposed appeal if—
 (a) the appeal involves a matter of general or public importance; or
 (b) a substantial miscarriage of justice may have occurred, or may occur unless the appeal is heard; or
 (c) the appeal involves a matter of general commercial significance.
 (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a), a significant issue relating to the Treaty of Waitangi is a matter of general or public importance.
 (4) The Supreme Court must not give leave to appeal to it against an order made by the Court of Appeal on an interlocutory application unless satisfied that it is necessary in the interests of justice for the Supreme Court to hear and determine the proposed appeal before the proceeding concerned is concluded.
 (5) Subsection (2) does not limit the generality of subsection (1) and subsection (3) does not limit the generality of subsection (2)(a).

Compare: 2003 No 53 s 13

75 No direct appeal from court other than Court of Appeal unless exceptional circumstances established 30

The Supreme Court must not give leave to appeal directly to it against a decision made, a conviction entered, or a sentence imposed in a proceeding in a New Zealand court other than the Court of Appeal unless the court is satisfied,—

35

- (a) in accordance with section 74, that it is necessary in the interests of justice for the court to hear and determine the appeal; and

- (b) that there are exceptional circumstances that justify taking the proposed appeal directly to the court.

Compare: 2003 No 53 s 14

76 Applications for leave

- (1) The parties to an application for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court may make written submissions to the court, and may include in the submissions— 5
- (a) additional relevant written material; and
- (b) responses to submissions made by another party.
- (2) Neither the parties nor their representatives have a right to appear before the court on the application; but the court may, if it thinks fit,— 10
- (a) authorise the parties, their representatives, or both to appear:
- (b) exclude from any authority to appear a party who is an appellant in custody.
- (3) In determining the application, the court must consider— 15
- (a) the written submissions before it; and
- (b) if an oral hearing was held, the matters raised at the hearing.
- (4) The court may consider the written submissions in any manner it thinks fit.

Compare: 2003 No 53 s 15

77 Court to state reasons for refusal to give leave

- (1) The Supreme Court must state its reasons for refusing to give leave to appeal to it. 20
- (2) The reasons may be stated—
- (a) briefly; and
- (b) in general terms only.

Appeals to the Supreme Court proceed by way of rehearing.

Compare: 2003 No 53 s 24

79 General powers

30

- (1) On an appeal in a proceeding that has been heard in a New Zealand court, the Supreme Court—
- (a) may make any order or grant any relief that could have been made or granted by that court; and

- (b) even if the proceeding has not been heard in the Court of Appeal, has the powers the Court of Appeal would have if hearing the appeal.
- (2) In a proceeding, the Supreme Court may, as it thinks fit, make—
- (a) any ancillary order; and
 - (b) any order or decision on an interlocutory application; and 5
 - (c) any order as to costs.
- Compare: 2003 No 53 s 25
- 80 Power to remit proceeding
- The Supreme Court may remit a proceeding that began in any New Zealand court to a New Zealand court that has jurisdiction to deal with it. 10
- Compare: 2003 No 53 s 26
- 81 Exercise of powers of court
- (1) For the purposes of the hearing and determination of a proceeding, the Supreme Court comprises 5 Judges of the court.
- (2) Two or more permanent Judges of the Supreme Court may act as the court— 15
- (a) to decide whether an oral hearing of an application for leave to appeal to the court should be held, or the application should be determined just on the basis of written submissions;
 - (b) to determine an application for leave to appeal to the court.
- (3) A judgment of the Supreme Court may be delivered in the manner and by the number of Judges provided by rules made under section 145. 20
- (4) This section is subject to sections 82(1) and 84(1).
- Compare: 2003 No 53 s 27
- 82 Orders and directions on interlocutory applications may be made or given by 1 Judge 25
- (1) In a proceeding before the Supreme Court, a permanent Judge of the court may, on an interlocutory application, make any order and give any direction that the Judge thinks fit (other than an order or a direction excluded by subsection (2)).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an order or a direction that determines the proceeding or disposes of a question or an issue that is before the court in the proceeding. 30
- (3) A permanent Judge of the Supreme Court may—
- (a) review a decision of the Registrar made within the civil jurisdiction of the court under a power conferred on the Registrar by a rule made under section 145; and 35
 - (b) confirm, modify, or revoke that decision as the Judge thinks fit.

- (4) The Judges of the Supreme Court who together have jurisdiction to hear and determine a proceeding may—
- (a) discharge or vary an order or a direction made or given under subsection (1); or
 - (b) confirm, modify, or revoke a decision confirmed or modified under subsection (3). 5

Compare: 2003 No 53 s 28

83 Presiding Judge

- (1) The Chief Justice presides over the Supreme Court.
- (2) If the Chief Justice is absent, or the office of Chief Justice is vacant, the most senior available Judge of the Supreme Court presides over the court. 10
- (3) The fact that a Judge of the Supreme Court other than the Chief Justice presides over the court is conclusive proof of the Judge's authority to do so. No action of the Judge, and no judgment or decision of the court, may be questioned on the ground that the occasion for the Judge to preside over the court had not arisen or had ceased. 15

84 Procedure if Judges absent

- (1) This section applies if, because of the death or unavailability of 1 or 2 of the Judges of the Supreme Court who are about to begin or have begun hearing a proceeding, only 3 or 4 of those Judges remain available to hear and determine the proceeding. 20
- (2) The remaining Judges must decide whether the proceeding must be adjourned or reheard, or may continue.
- (3) If the remaining Judges decide that the proceeding may continue,— 25
 - (a) they may—
 - (i) act as the Supreme Court in relation to the proceeding and hear and determine the proceeding; and
 - (ii) make any order or decision on any interlocutory application; and
 - (iii) make any order or decision as to costs; and 30
 - (b) a reference in section 85(1) to a majority of the Judges hearing the proceeding must be read as a reference to a majority of those remaining Judges.
- (3A) If the death or unavailability occurs while judgment is reserved in the proceeding, the remaining Judges must decide— 35
 - (a) whether the judgment should be produced or completed, and (if so) who should produce or complete the judgment; or
 - (b) whether the proceeding should be reheard.

- (4) If, at the time appointed for a session of the Supreme Court, 1 or more Judges are absent, the Judge or Judges present may adjourn or further adjourn the session to some other time.
- (5) If none of the Judges of the Supreme Court is present at the time appointed for a session of the court, the Registrar of the Supreme Court must adjourn the session and may determine the time and place of the next session. 5
Compare: 2003 No 53 s 30
- 85 Judgment of Supreme Court
- (1) The judgment of the Supreme Court must be in accordance with the opinion of a majority of the Judges hearing the proceeding concerned. 10

- 143 Purpose of rules of practice and procedure 5
- The purpose of rules of practice and procedure is to facilitate—
- (a) the just, speedy, and inexpensive dispatch of the business of the High Court, the Court of Appeal, and the Supreme Court; and
 - (b) the administration of justice.
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 51C(1)
- 144 High Court Rules 10
- (1) The practice and procedure of the High Court in all civil proceedings is regulated by the High Court Rules.
 - (2) The High Court Rules are subject to any other rules that are made under section 145 that regulate the practice and procedure of any senior court in any class of civil proceedings. 15
 - (3) If any provision of the High Court Rules or of any rules made under section 145 restricts or excludes the application of any provisions of the High Court Rules, the provision giving effect to the restriction or exclusion has effect according to its terms.
 - (4) If in any civil proceedings any question arises as to the application of any provision of the High Court Rules or of any rules made under section 145, the court may, either on the application of any party or ~~of its own motion~~ on its own initiative, determine the question and give any directions that it thinks fit. 20
 - (5) Subsection (1) is subject to— 25
 - (a) subsections (2) to (4); and
 - (b) sections 9, 38 to 41, 145 to 152, 158, 161, 170, 172, ~~177~~, and 178.
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 51
- 144A High Court Rules part of Act 30
- (1) The High Court Rules set out in Schedule 2 of the Judicature Act 1908 as at the date that this Act receives the Royal assent continue in force and those rules, as altered, amended, added to, or revoked under section 145, are deemed to be part of this Act. 30
 - (2) Despite subsection (1), the High Court Rules do not need to be published as part of this Act. 35
 - (3) See section 151, which provides for how the High Court Rules must be published.

145 Rules of practice and procedure generally

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council, make rules of practice and procedure for each of the senior courts relating to the purpose stated in section 143.
- (2) Rules may be made only with the concurrence of the Chief Justice and 2 or more members of the Rules Committee of whom at least 1 is a Judge of the High Court. 5
- (3) The power to make rules includes the power to—
- (a) alter, amend, add to, or revoke existing High Court Rules, other rules of the High Court, rules of the Court of Appeal, or rules of the Supreme Court; and 10
- (b) revoke existing High Court Rules, other rules of the High Court, rules of the Court of Appeal, or rules of the Supreme Court and replace them with new rules; and
- (c) fix scales of costs. 15

146 Rules of practice and procedure of High Court

- Without limiting the matters on which rules may be made under section 145, rules may be made under that section in relation to the practice and procedure of the High Court— 20
- (a) providing for the enforcement of judgments or orders, including by any of the following:
- (i) an attachment order:
- (ii) a charging order:
- (iii) a sale order: 25
- (iv) a possession order:
- (v) a freezing order:
- (vi) an arrest order:
- (vii) a search order:
- (viii) a contempt order: 30
- (ix) a sequestration order:
- (b) providing that the purchaser of personal property sold by order of the court by way of enforcement of a judgment obtains good title to the property free of all ownership interests and other proprietary interests held in the property before that sale. 35

147 Rules of practice and procedure of Court of Appeal and Supreme Court

Without limiting the matters on which rules may be made under section 145, rules may be made under that section in relation to the practice and procedure of the Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court—

- (a) providing for the appointment of technical advisers, including— 5
 - (i) the information to be given to a party to an appeal, before a technical adviser is appointed for the appeal,—
 - (A) about the persons who are considered suitable for appointment; and
 - (B) about the matters on which the assistance of the proposed technical adviser is to be sought: 10
 - (ii) the submissions that those parties may make to the court about the proposed appointment of a technical adviser and the assistance to be given by the technical adviser:
- (b) providing for the conduct of proceedings involving technical advisers. 15

148 Rules conferring specified jurisdiction and powers of High Court Judge on Registrars and Deputy Registrars

- (1) Rules may be made under section 145—
 - (a) conferring on a Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the High Court or the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court the jurisdiction and powers of a Judge in chambers conferred by this Act or any other Act or by rules made under that section: 20
 - (b) containing any provisions that may be necessary to enable a Registrar or Deputy Registrar to exercise the jurisdiction and powers of a Judge in chambers. 25
- (2) The jurisdiction and powers may be conferred on any of those specified offices or classes of those offices.
- (3) A Registrar or Deputy Registrar on whom jurisdiction and powers are conferred may refer a matter to a Judge of the same court if the Registrar or Deputy Registrar considers the matter to be of special difficulty. The Judge may— 30
 - (a) dispose of the matter; or
 - (b) refer the matter back to the Registrar or Deputy Registrar with any directions the Judge thinks fit.
- (4) A party to a proceeding or an intended proceeding who is dissatisfied with an order or a decision made by a Registrar or Deputy Registrar under rules made under section 145 may apply to the same court to review the order or decision. The court may then make any order or decision the court thinks just. 35

- (5) The fact that a Registrar or Deputy Registrar has jurisdiction and powers under the rules does not prevent a Judge of the same court from exercising the jurisdiction and powers.
Compare: 1908 No 89 s 51F
- 149 Rules of practice and procedure under other Acts 5
- The power to make rules of practice and procedure in relation to civil proceedings in the High Court, the Court of Appeal, or the Supreme Court under an Act other than this Act must be exercised in the manner prescribed by section 145.
Compare: 1908 No 89 s 51D 10
- 150 Power to prescribe procedure on applications to High Court, Court of Appeal, or Supreme Court
- (1) Despite anything to the contrary in any Act, rules may be made under section 145 prescribing the form and manner in which any class or classes of applications to the High Court or a High Court Judge or to the Court of Appeal or to the Supreme Court are to be made. 15
- (2) To the extent that the provisions of any Act prescribing the form or manner in which any of those applications are to be made (whether by petition, motion, summons, or otherwise) are inconsistent with or repugnant to rules made or having effect under this Act, the Act prescribing that form or manner is deemed to be subject to the rules made or having effect under this Act. 20

- ~~151 Publication of High Court Rules under Legislation Act 2012~~
- (1) ~~The High Court Rules, and any reprint of the High Court Rules, may be published under the Legislation Act 2012 as if the rules were a legislative instrument within the meaning of that Act.~~ 25
- (2) ~~The Legislation Act 2012 applies accordingly to rules published in that way.~~
Compare: 1908 No 89 s 51A
- 151 Publication of High Court Rules under Legislation Act 2012
- (1) The High Court Rules and reprints of those rules must be published under the Legislation Act 2012, as the High Court Rules 2016, as if they were a legislative instrument within the meaning of the Legislation Act 2012. 30
- (2) The Legislation Act 2012 applies accordingly to the rules published in that way.
- (3) However, the Chief Parliamentary Counsel may add to the instrument, as published,— 35
- (a) the information specified in section 12(2)(a) to (d) of the Legislation Act 2012; and

- (b) any other information that the Chief Parliamentary Counsel considers to be necessary or appropriate for the purposes of arranging publication of the instrument and making it accessible for users.

152 Rules Committee

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, Part 2 of the Judicature Modernisation Act 2013, the Criminal Procedure Act 2011, and any other relevant Act, there continues to be a Rules Committee consisting of—
- (a) the Chief Justice:
 - (b) the Chief High Court Judge:
 - (c) 2 other Judges of the High Court appointed by the Chief Justice: 10
 - (d) the Chief District Court Judge:
 - (e) 1 other District Court Judge appointed by the Chief Justice on the recommendation of the Chief District Court Judge:
 - (f) the Attorney-General:
 - (g) the Solicitor-General: 15
 - (h) the chief executive of the ministry responsible for the administration of this Act:
 - (i) 2 persons, who are barristers and solicitors of the High Court, nominated by the Council of the New Zealand Law Society and approved by the Chief Justice. 20
- (2) The Chief Justice may appoint any other person to be a member of the Rules Committee for a special purpose. That person holds office during the pleasure of the Chief Justice.
- (3) The members appointed under subsection (1)(c), (e), and (i)—
- (a) must be appointed for terms not exceeding 3 years: 25
 - (b) may be reappointed:
 - (c) may resign office by notice in writing to the Chief Justice.
- (4) The Rules Committee is a statutory board within the meaning of the Fees and Travelling Allowances Act 1951.
- (5) The members of the Rules Committee referred to in subsections (1)(i) and (2) may be paid fees, salary, and allowances in accordance with the Fees and Travelling Allowances Act 1951. 30

Regulations

- ## 153 Regulations 35
- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council, make regulations for all or any of the following purposes:

- (a) prescribing the applications, matters, and proceedings for which fees are payable under this Act:
 - (b) prescribing scales of fees for the purposes of this Act and for the purposes of any applications, matters, and proceedings before a senior court under this Act or any other enactment: 5
 - (c) prescribing the fees, travelling allowances, and expenses payable to interpreters and to persons giving evidence in proceedings to which this Act applies:
 - (d) in relation to a service performed by a Registrar or Deputy Registrar under this Act and specified in regulations made under paragraph (e), authorising a Registrar or Deputy Registrar to charge a reasonable fee calculated on the actual expense incurred in performing the service: 10
 - (e) specifying the services (other than services for which a fee is already prescribed under this Act) performed by a Registrar or Deputy Registrar under this Act for which that person may charge a fee: 15
 - (f) making provision in relation to the postponement, under the regulations, of the payment of any fee, which provision may (without limitation) include provision—
 - (i) for the recovery of the fee after the expiry of the period of postponement; and 20
 - (ii) for restrictions to apply (after the expiry of the period of postponement and so long as the fee remains unpaid) on the steps that may be taken in the proceedings in respect of which the fee is payable:
 - (g) altering or revoking any rules relating to fees contained in the High Court Rules, any rules made under section 145, or any other rules of court: 25
 - (h) providing for such matters as are contemplated by or necessary for giving full effect to the provisions of this Act and for its due administration.
- (2) Regulations made under this section may prescribe different fees in respect of proceedings in different courts. 30

Compare: 1908 No 89 s 100A

154 Regulations providing for waiver, etc, of fees

- (1) In order to promote access to justice, the Governor-General may, by Order in Council, make regulations authorising a Registrar or Deputy Registrar of a senior court to waive, reduce, or postpone the payment of a fee required in connection with a proceeding or an intended proceeding, or to refund in whole or in part a fee that has already been paid. 35

- (2) Regulations made under subsection (1) must provide that a Registrar or Deputy Registrar may only exercise a power under the regulations if he or she is satisfied on the basis of prescribed criteria that—
- (a) the person responsible for payment of the fee is unable to pay or absorb the fee in whole or in part; or 5
 - (b) unless 1 or more of those powers are exercised in respect of a proceeding that concerns a matter of genuine public interest, the proceeding is unlikely to be commenced or continued.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), regulations may prescribe criteria—
- (a) for assessing a person’s ability to pay a fee; and 10
 - (b) for identifying proceedings that concern matters of genuine public interest.
- (4) No fee is payable for an application for the exercise of a power specified in subsection (1). 15
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 100A(1)(d), (da)

155 Postponement of fees

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council, make regulations authorising a Registrar or Deputy Registrar to postpone the payment of a fee pending the determination of—
- (a) an application for the exercise of a power specified in section 154(1); 20 or
 - (b) an application for review under section 157.
- (2) No fee is payable for an application for the exercise of a power specified in subsection (1). 25
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 100A(1)(db)

156 Manner in which section 154 or 155 applications to be made

Regulations made under section 153 may provide for the manner in which an application for the exercise of a power specified in section 154(1) or 155(1) is to be made, including, without limitation, requiring an application to be in a form approved for the purpose by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice. 30

Compare: 1908 No 89 s 100A(1)(dd)

157 Review of Registrar’s decision concerning fees

- (1) A person who disagrees with a decision of a Registrar or Deputy Registrar under regulations made under section 154(1) may apply to a Judge or an Associate Judge of the relevant court to review the decision. 35
- (2) The application must be made within—
- (a) 20 working days after the date on which the applicant is notified of the decision; or

- (b) any further time that the Judge or Associate Judge allows on application, which may be made either before or after the expiry of that period.
- (3) The application may be made informally.
- (4) A review is—
- (a) conducted by way of rehearing of the matter in respect of which the Registrar or Deputy Registrar made the decision; and 5
- (b) dealt with on the papers, unless the Judge or Associate Judge directs otherwise.
- (5) The Judge or Associate Judge may confirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the Registrar or Deputy Registrar. 10
- (6) No fee is payable on the application.
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 100B

157A Judge or Registrar may waive certain fees

A Judge or Registrar of a senior court may, subject to any terms or conditions that the Judge or Registrar thinks fit, waive the payment of a fee prescribed under section 153 for accessing documents (in whole or in part) if the Judge or Registrar is satisfied that the person is unable, or should not be required, to pay the fee. 15

Costs

- 158 Jurisdiction of court to award costs in all cases 20
- (1) If any Act confers jurisdiction on the High Court or a Judge of the High Court for the purpose of any civil proceedings or any criminal proceedings or any appeal, without expressly conferring jurisdiction to award or otherwise deal with the costs of the proceedings or appeal, jurisdiction to award and deal with those costs and to make and enforce orders relating to costs must be treated as also having been conferred on the court or Judge. 25
- (2) Costs may be awarded or otherwise dealt with under subsection (1) at the discretion of the court or Judge, and may, if the court or Judge thinks fit, be ordered to be charged on or paid out of any fund or estate before the court. 30
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 51G

Appointment of technical advisers

- 159 Court of Appeal and Supreme Court may appoint technical advisers
- (1) The Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court may appoint a suitably qualified person (a technical adviser) to assist it by giving advice in an appeal in a proceeding involving a question arising from evidence relating to scientific, technical, or economic matters, or from other expert evidence, if the court is of the opinion that it is desirable to have expert assistance. 35

- (2) The technical adviser must give the advice in the manner directed by the court during the course of the proceeding on any question referred to the technical adviser.
- (3) Advice given by a technical adviser—
- (a) is information provided to the court; and 5
- (b) may be given the weight the court thinks fit.
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 99B

160 Appointment and other matters

- (1) A technical adviser may be appointed by the court under section 159 on— 10
- (a) its own initiative; or
- (b) the application of a party to the proceeding.
- (2) A technical adviser may be removed from office by the court for disability affecting the performance of duty, neglect of duty, bankruptcy, or misconduct proved to the satisfaction of the court.
- (3) A technical adviser may resign office by notice in writing to the court. 15
- (4) The remuneration of a technical adviser must—
- (a) be fixed by the court; and
- (b) include a daily fee for each day on which the technical adviser is required to assist the court.
- (5) Civil or criminal proceedings may not be commenced against a technical adviser in relation to advice given to the court in good faith. 20
- Compare: 1908 No 89 s 99C

Contempt

161 Contempt of court

- (1) This section applies if any person— 25
- (a) wilfully insults a judicial officer, ~~or any Registrar, or any officer of the court, or any juror, or any witness,~~ during his or her sitting or attendance in court, or in going to or returning from the court; or
- (b) wilfully interrupts the proceedings of a court or otherwise misbehaves in court; or 30
- (c) wilfully and without lawful excuse disobeys any order or direction of the court in the course of the hearing of any proceedings.
- (2) If this section applies,—
- (a) any constable or officer of the court, with or without the assistance of any other person, may, by order of a ~~judicial officer~~ Judge or an Associate Judge, take the person into custody and detain him or her until the rising of the court; and 35

- (b) the ~~judicial officer~~ Judge or an Associate Judge may, if he or she thinks fit, sentence the person to—
- (i) imprisonment for a period not exceeding 3 months; or
 - (ii) a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each offence.
- (3) Nothing in this section limits or affects any power or authority of a court to punish any person for contempt of court in any case to which this section does not apply. 5

Compare: 2011 No 81 s 365

Restriction on commencing or continuing proceeding

162 Judge may make order restricting commencement or continuation of proceeding 10

- (1) A Judge of the High Court may make an order (~~a section 162 order~~) restricting a person from commencing or continuing a civil proceeding.
- (2) The order may have—
 - (a) a limited effect (a limited order); or 15
 - (b) an extended effect (an extended order); or
 - (c) a general effect (a general order).
- (3) A limited order restrains a party from ~~continuing or~~ commencing or continuing civil proceedings on a particular matter in a senior court, another court, or a tribunal. 20
- (4) An extended order restrains a party from ~~continuing or~~ commencing or continuing civil proceedings on a particular or related matter in a senior court, another court, or a tribunal.
- (5) A general order restrains a party from ~~continuing or~~ commencing or continuing civil proceedings in a senior court, another court, or a tribunal. 25
- (6) Nothing in this section limits the court's inherent power to control its own proceedings.

163 Grounds for making section 162 order

- (1) A Judge may make a limited order under section 162 if, in ~~at least 2~~ civil proceedings about the same matter in any court or tribunal, the Judge considers that at least 2 or more of the proceedings are or were totally without merit. 30
- (2) A Judge may make an extended order under section 162 if, in at least 2 proceedings about any matter in any court or tribunal, the Judge considers that the proceedings are or were totally without merit.
- (3) A Judge may make a general order if, in at least 2 proceedings about any matter in any court or tribunal, the Judge considers that the proceedings are or were totally without merit. 35

- (4) In determining whether proceedings are or were totally without merit, the Judge may take into account the nature of any interlocutory applications, appeals, or criminal prosecutions involving the party to be restrained, but is not limited to those considerations.
- (5) The proceedings concerned must be ~~proceedings instituted or conducted~~ commenced or continued by the party to be restrained, whether against the same person or different persons. 5
- (6) For the purpose of this section and sections 164 and 165, an appeal in a civil proceeding must be treated as part of that proceeding and not as a distinct proceeding. 10

164 Terms of section 162 order

- (1) ~~A~~ An order made under section 162 ~~order~~ may restrain a party from commencing or continuing any proceeding (whether generally or against any particular person or persons) of any type specified in the order without first obtaining the leave of the High Court. 15
- (2) ~~A~~ An order made under section 162 ~~order~~, whether limited, extended, or general, has effect for a period of up to 3 years as specified by the Judge, but the Judge making it may specify a longer period (which must not exceed 5 years) if he or she is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances justifying the longer period. 20

165 Procedure and appeals relating to section 162 orders

- (1) A party to any proceeding may apply for a limited order or an extended order.
- (2) Only the Attorney-General may apply for a general order.
- (2A) A Judge of the High Court may make a limited order, an extended order, or a general order either on application (under subsection (1) or (2), as applicable) or on his or her own initiative. 25
- (3) An application for leave to ~~continue or issue~~ commence a civil proceeding by a party subject to a section 162 order may be made without notice, but the court may direct that the application for leave be served on any specified person. 30
- (3A) An application for leave must be determined on the papers, unless the Judge considers that an oral hearing should be conducted because there are exceptional circumstances and it is appropriate to do so in the interests of justice. ~~The Judge's determination of the application for leave is final.~~
- (3B) The Judge's determination of an application for leave is final. 35
- (4) A section 162 order does not prevent or affect the commencement of a private criminal prosecution in any case.
- (5) The party against whom a section 162 order is made may appeal against the order to—

- (a) the Court of Appeal;
- (b) the Supreme Court, with the leave of that court, in any case.
- (6) The appellant in an appeal to the Court of Appeal under subsection (5) or the applicant for the section 162 order concerned may, with the leave of the Supreme Court, appeal to the Supreme Court against the determination of that appeal by the Court of Appeal. 5
- (7) A court determining an appeal under this section has the same powers as the court appealed from has to determine an application or appeal, as the case may be.
- (8) In this section, a section 162 order means an order made under section 162. 10

Reserved judgments and publication of final judgments

166 Reserved judgments

- (1) The Chief High Court Judge must, in consultation with the Chief Justice,— 15
- (a) publish information about the process by which parties to proceedings before the High Court may obtain information about the status of any reserved judgment in those proceedings; and
- (b) periodically publish information about the number of judgments of the court that he or she considers ~~is~~ are outstanding beyond a reasonable time for delivery; and 20
- (c) publish any other information about reserved judgments that he or she considers is useful.
- (2) The President of the Court of Appeal must, in consultation with the Chief Justice,— 25
- (a) publish information about the process by which parties to proceedings before the Court of Appeal may obtain information about the status of any reserved judgment in those proceedings; and
- (b) periodically publish information about the number of judgments of the court that he or she considers is outstanding beyond a reasonable time for delivery; and 30
- (c) publish any other information about reserved judgments that he or she considers is useful.
- (3) The Chief Justice must—
- (a) publish information about the process by which parties to proceedings before the Supreme Court may obtain information about the status of any reserved judgment in those proceedings; and 35

- (b) periodically publish information about the number of judgments of the court that he or she considers ~~is~~are outstanding beyond a reasonable time for delivery; and
- (c) publish any other information about reserved judgments that he or she considers is useful. 5

167 ~~Final written judgments to be published on Internet~~

- (1) ~~Every final written judgment of a senior court must be published on the Internet as soon as practicable unless there is good reason not to publish the complete judgment.~~
- (2) ~~A final written judgment may be published on the Internet in part if there are good reasons for not publishing the other parts of the judgment.~~ 10
- (3) ~~Good reason not to publish a judgment or part of it includes the following:~~
 - (a) ~~non-publication is necessary because of a suppression order or statutory requirement that affects publication or continued publication;~~
 - (b) ~~the judgment falls into a category of judgments that are of limited public value;~~ 15
 - (c) ~~taking into account the presumption in subsection (1) in favour of publication, a Judge nevertheless determines that the judgment or any part of it should not be published because publication or the effect of publication would be contrary to the interests of justice.~~ 20
- (4) ~~In this section, final written judgment means a written decision that determines or substantially determines the outcome of any proceedings and that is either—~~
 - (a) ~~a written reserved judgment; or~~
 - (b) ~~an oral judgment transcribed by an official transcription service.~~ 25

Recusal

168 Recusal guidelines

- (1) The Chief High Court Judge and the President of the Court of Appeal must, in consultation with the Chief Justice, develop and publish guidelines for their respective courts to assist Judges to decide if they should recuse themselves from a proceeding. 30
- (2) The Chief Justice must develop and publish guidelines to assist Supreme Court Judges to decide if they should recuse themselves from a proceeding.

*Foreign creditors170 Memorials of judgments obtained out of New Zealand may be registered

- (1) This section applies to any judgment, decree, rule, or order (the judgment) obtained in any court of any Commonwealth country (the overseas court) for the payment of money. 5
- (2) A person in whose favour the judgment was obtained may file in the High Court a memorial containing the specified particulars that is authenticated by the seal of that court. Once filed, the memorial becomes a record of the judgment and execution may issue upon it in accordance with this section.
- (3) The memorial must be signed by a party in whose favour the judgment was obtained or by the party's lawyer, and must contain— 10
- (a) the names and additions of the parties; and
 - (b) the form or nature of the action or other proceeding; and
 - (c) when commenced, the date of the signing or entering-up of the judgment, the passing of the decree, or the making of the rule or order; and 15
 - (d) the amount recovered, or the decree pronounced, or rule or order made; and
 - (e) if there was a trial, the date of the trial and amount of verdict given.
- (4) A seal purporting to be the seal of an overseas court is deemed and taken to be the seal of the court until the contrary is proved, and the onus of proving that the seal is not the seal of the court lies on the party denying or objecting to the seal. 20
- (5) A party in whose favour the judgment was obtained, or the party's lawyer, may apply to the High Court or any Judge of the court for the making of a rule or the issue of a summons calling on the person against whom the judgment was obtained to show cause, within the time after personal or other service of the rule or summons as the court or Judge directs, why execution should not issue upon the judgment. 25
- (6) The rule or summons must give notice that, in default of appearance, execution may issue accordingly, and if the person served with the rule or summons does not appear, or does not show sufficient cause against such rule or summons, the court or Judge, on due proof of service under subsection (5), may make the rule absolute or make an order for issuing execution, subject to any terms and conditions (if any) that the court or Judge thinks fit. 30
- (7) The judgment may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment of the High Court. 35
- (8) This section is subject to section 13 of the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments Act 1934.

Access to information

- 171 Access to ~~court records~~ information, judicial information, or ~~ministry~~ Ministry of Justice information
- (1) Any person may have access to ~~court records~~ information of a senior court to the extent provided by, and in accordance with, rules of court. 5
- (2) Access to judicial information is not subject to any enactment that applies to the provision of, or access to, any other information.
- (3) Any person may have access to any ~~ministry~~ Ministry of Justice information to the extent provided by, and in accordance with, the Official Information Act 1982, the Privacy Act 1993, the Public Records Act 2005, or any other enactment providing for or regulating access to the information. 10
- (4) In this section, court records information, judicial information, and ministry Ministry of Justice information ~~respectively~~ mean the documents and information described as such in Schedule 2.
- 171A Sharing of permitted information with other departments 15
- (1) This section applies to permitted information specified in Part B of the items ~~about the court record~~ relating to court information in Schedule 2, regardless of whether ~~it the~~ information is controlled by the judiciary.
- (2) In response to a request from an agency for information to which this section applies, the Ministry of Justice may, by way of an approved information sharing agreement under the Privacy Act 1993, share any permitted information with the agency. 20
- (3) The Ministry of Justice holds permitted information solely for the purpose of entering into approved information sharing agreements under the Privacy Act 1993, and that information is not otherwise subject to the Privacy Act 1993 and is not subject to the Official Information Act 1982 or the Public Records Act 2005. 25
- (4) Nothing in this section or an approved information sharing agreement under the Privacy Act 1993 requires the Ministry of Justice to disclose any matter suppressed by or under a court order or any enactment. 30
- (5) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Minister of Justice, amend or replace Part B of the items ~~about the court record~~ relating to court information in Schedule 2.
- (6) The Minister of Justice may make a recommendation under subsection (5) only after consultation with the Attorney-General and with the consent of the Chief Justice. 35

171B Requirements that Registrars disclose information

- (1) If any enactment requires a Registrar to notify a registration authority of certain information about any court proceedings, that requirement is not affected by any suppression order imposed by the court or by operation of law.
- (2) Even if the enactment provides that the court may order otherwise in any case, the requirement is not affected by any suppression order imposed by the court unless the court specifically orders otherwise in that case. 5

- (1) An application under section 273 of the Judicature Modernisation Act 2013 must be by interlocutory application. 5
- (2) It must,—
- (a) if made by the counterclaimant, be made within 5 working days after the counterclaim or set-off and counterclaim is filed in the District Court:
- (b) if made by the party against whom the counterclaim or set-off and counterclaim is made, be made within 5 working days after service on that party. 10
- (3) At any time after an application under subclause (1) has been filed, the court may order the proceedings in the District Court to be stayed pending its disposal. 15
- (4) The order in subclause (3) may be made without notice and subject to any conditions or undertakings that the court thinks just.
- (5) If the court orders that the counterclaim or set-off and counterclaim alone be transferred, references in these rules to the plaintiff must be read as references to the counterclaimant and references to the defendant must be read as references to the party against whom the counterclaim or set-off and counterclaim is made. 20

Compare: 1908 No 89 Schedule 2 r 5.69 (as substituted by 2008 No 90 s 8)

After rule 5.73A, insert:

Subpart 15—Registration of users for e-filing purposes 255.74 Interpretation

In this subpart and in subpart 16, unless the context otherwise requires,— e-file means to file a document electronically (as those concepts are defined in rule 1.3) formal undertaking is an undertaking by a party or a party’s solicitor on the record to do or abstain from doing some specified thing 30 registered user means a lawyer or a firm of lawyers registered to e-file documents under these rules working hours means hours, whether on the same day as the day on which a document was received in a registry or on that day and the next day during which the registry of the court is open. 35

High Court Rules 2016—continued5.75 Registration procedure

- (1) A lawyer or a firm of lawyers may apply in writing to a Registrar for registration under this subpart.
- (2) The Registrar must register the applicant as a registered user if—
- (a) the applicant has, in the Registrar’s opinion, instituted sufficient measures to prevent unauthorised persons filing documents in the applicant’s name; and 5
- (b) the applicant has nominated an acceptable electronic address for service; and
- (c) the applicant’s name is sufficiently distinctive to avoid confusion between the applicant and another firm or lawyer (including that part of a partnership that has an office in a different place). 10
- (3) The Registrar may require an applicant to supply the names of those persons who are, from time to time, authorised to e-file on behalf of the applicant.
- (4) No fee is chargeable for registration. 15
- (5) When granting the application, the Registrar must—
- (a) assign the registered user an electronic identity for use whenever a document is e-filed; and
- (b) open an account in the name of the registered user.
- (6) The Registrar must keep a register recording the name, electronic address for service, and electronic identity of each registered user and the date of that user’s registration under this subpart. 20
- (7) The register kept under subclause (6) may be searched by or on behalf of a registered user.

5.76 Effect of registration

- (1) A registered user may e-file any document that complies with subpart 16. 25
- (2) A registered user may file any document in hard copy by physical lodgement (whether or not that document has already been e-filed).
- (3) If there is any difference between the content of an e-filed document and the filed hard-copy version of the same document, the hard-copy version prevails, and the document is treated as filed when it is physically lodged. 30

5.77 Renewal of registration

Registration lasts 36 months and is then renewable.

High Court Rules 2016—continuedSubpart 16—E-filing documents*5.78 Requirements for e-filing

- (1) A document may be e-filed if it complies with this rule.
- (2) An electronic communication sent with a document for e-filing must be authenticated by a current electronic identity assigned by the Registrar. 5
- (3) A document that is e-filed, and any electronic communication by which the document is e-filed, must comply with the requirements set out in a practice note issued by the Chief Judge or by a list Judge for a particular registry of the court with the approval of the Chief Judge.
- (4) The practice note may also limit the number of documents that may be filed on a single occasion or in a stated period, and impose other requirements to ensure that electronic filing is convenient to registered users and is efficient and reliable and causes no injustice to other parties. 10
- (5) A document that is e-filed other than in imaged form need not comply with the rules as to shape, size, and format in subpart 2 (formal requirements for documents). 15
- (6) A document that is e-filed in imaged form must comply with subpart 2.
- (7) An e-filed document must be adequately labelled so that it is obvious what it is (for example, “Interlocutory application without notice for interim injunction”).
- (8) If, under these rules, a document can be filed only if it is signed or otherwise authenticated, use of the registered user’s electronic identity to authenticate the electronic communication sent with the document must be treated for all purposes as equivalent to that user’s signature or other authentication of that document. 20
- (9) This rule is subject to rule 5.81. 25

5.79 Provisional filing

- (1) An e-filed document must be treated as provisionally filed on the date and at the time it enters the information system designated for this purpose in the applicable practice note issued under rule 5.78(3), and that date and time must be recorded on the court file. 30
- (2) The Registrar or a Deputy Registrar must ensure that every provisionally filed document is checked to ensure it meets the requirements imposed by this subpart and by that practice note.
- (3) Checking must—
 - (a) be completed within 2 working hours of the provisional filing of an e-filed document; and 35
 - (b) comply with operational standards not conflicting with this subpart issued by the Ministry of Justice and available on request to registered users and any person considering registration under subpart 15 or the practice note issued under rule 5.78(3).

5.80 Acceptance of provisionally filed documents

- (1) Acceptance of a document by the Registrar or a Deputy Registrar must be recorded by dating and timing that acceptance and endorsing the document “Accepted for filing” and verifying that date, time, and endorsement. 5
- (2) The Registrar must immediately notify the registered user if an e-filed document is not accepted.
- (3) If an e-filed document is accepted it must be treated for all purposes as having been filed on the date and at the time when it is recorded as having been provisionally filed. 10
- (4) Upon acceptance of an e-filed document, the Registrar must direct debit the registered user with the appropriate fee for filing that document.

5.81 Affidavits and formal undertakings

- (1) An affidavit or a formal undertaking may be e-filed if the e-filing complies with this rule. 15
- (2) If an affidavit or a formal undertaking is being e-filed, it must be transmitted to the court in imaged form.
- (3) Rule 5.78(2), (3), and (7) applies to the e-filing of an affidavit or a formal undertaking. 20
- (4) The original hard-copy form of the affidavit or formal undertaking, sworn or signed or authenticated as required by these rules, must be retained by the registered user,—
- (a) if the affidavit or formal undertaking is filed in connection with an application under Part 18 or 19, or in a proceeding that does not go to trial, for 12 months from the date of e-filing; 25
- (b) if it is filed in connection with a proceeding, and that proceeding goes to trial, until no appeal or further appeal from a judgment given in that proceeding is possible.
- (5) If uncertainty as to the content of an affidavit or formal undertaking arises, or a Judge considers that justice requires its production, the Judge, on application or on the Judge’s own initiative, may order that it be filed in court and served on the other party or parties in hard copy form, and may make such order as to a further hearing as the Judge thinks just. 30

Revoke rule 6.19(2). 35

Revoke rule 7.1AA(4).

Schedule 4

Transitional provisions relating to Senior Courts

s 183

Part 1

Continuation of certain provisions of Supreme Court Act 2003 5

1 Application

Clauses 2 to 6 continue the application of certain provisions of the Supreme Court Act 2003 so far as they are applicable.

2 Imperial enactments ceasing to have effect in New Zealand

On 1 January 2004, the following Imperial enactments ceased to have effect as part of the law of New Zealand: 10

- (a) the Imperial enactments listed in Part 1 of Schedule 4 of the Supreme Court Act 2003:
- (b) the Imperial subordinate legislation listed in Part 2 of Schedule 4 of that Act. 15

Compare: 2003 No 53 s 49

3 Privy Council may still determine appeals in certain existing proceedings

- (1) The Privy Council may hear and determine, or continue to hear and determine,—
 - (a) an appeal against a final judgment of the Court of Appeal made before 1 January 2004, or made after 31 December 2003 in a proceeding whose hearing was completed before 1 January 2004, where— 20
 - (i) the matter in dispute on the appeal amounts to or is of the value of $5,000 or upwards; or
 - (ii) the appeal involves, directly or indirectly, some claim or question to or respecting property or some civil right amounting to or of the value of $5,000 or upwards; or 25
 - (b) an appeal arising out of a successful application to a New Zealand court (whether made before, on, or after 1 January 2004) for leave to appeal to the Privy Council against a decision of the Court of Appeal— 30
 - (i) made before 1 January 2004; or
 - (ii) made after 31 December 2003 in a proceeding whose hearing was completed before 1 January 2004; or
 - (c) an appeal arising out of a successful application to the Privy Council (whether made before, on, or after 1 January 2004) for special leave to appeal to it against a decision of the Court of Appeal— 35

- (i) made before 1 January 2004; or
 - (ii) made after 31 December 2003 in a proceeding whose hearing was completed before 1 January 2004.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not apply to an appeal if—
 - (a) the Privy Council has not begun hearing the appeal; and 5
 - (b) all parties agree in writing that an application should be made to the Supreme Court for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision concerned.

Compare: 2003 No 53 s 50
- 4 Limitation on right to appeal to Supreme Court in certain existing proceedings 10
- (1) This subclause applies to a decision if—
 - (a) it was made by any New Zealand court before 1 January 2004; or
 - (b) it was made by the Court of Appeal after 31 December 2003 in a proceeding whose hearing was completed before 1 January 2004. 15
- (2) There is no right to appeal to the Supreme Court against a decision to which subclause (1) applies if—
 - (a) the Privy Council has already heard or begun hearing an appeal against it; or
 - (b) a New Zealand court has declined to give leave to appeal to the Privy Council against it and the Privy Council has not later given special leave to appeal against it; or 20
 - (c) the Privy Council has declined to give special leave to appeal against it; or
 - (d) all the parties to the proceeding in which it was made have not agreed in writing that an application should be made to the Supreme Court for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court against it. 25
- (3) Subclause (2) overrides sections 68 to 71.
Compare: 2003 No 53 s 51
- 5 Transitional effect of sections 42 and 49 of Supreme Court Act 2003 30
- (1) The following applications must be determined as if sections 42 and 49 of the Supreme Court Act 2003 had not been enacted:
 - (a) all applications to a New Zealand court (whether made before, on, or after 1 January 2004) for leave to appeal to the Privy Council against—
 - (i) a decision of a New Zealand court made before 1 January 2004; or 35
 - (ii) a decision of the Court of Appeal delivered after 31 December 2003 in a proceeding whose hearing was completed before 1 January 2004:

- (b) all applications to the Privy Council (whether made before, on, or after 1 January 2004) for special leave to appeal to it against—
- (i) a decision of a New Zealand court made before 1 January 2004; or
 - (ii) a decision of the Court of Appeal delivered after 31 December 2003 in a proceeding whose hearing was completed before 1 January 2004. 5
- (2) All appeals that, by virtue of clause 3(1), the Privy Council may hear and determine, or continue to hear and determine, must be heard and determined as if—
- (a) sections 42 and 49 of the Supreme Court Act 2003 had not been enacted; and 10
 - (b) the reference in section 112(1) of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 to the Supreme Court included a reference to the Privy Council.
- Compare: 2003 No 53 s 52 15

6 No new rights of appeal against decisions made before 1 January 2004

- (1) A person does not have a right to appeal to a particular New Zealand court or the Privy Council on any grounds against a decision made before 1 January 2004 unless, when the decision was made, the person had the right to appeal against the decision to that court on those grounds. 20
- (2) Subclause (1) does not limit or affect the right of any person to appeal to a New Zealand court on any grounds against a decision made—
- (a) on or after 1 January 2004; but
 - (b) on appeal against a decision—
 - (i) made before 1 January 2004; or 25
 - (ii) made at any time on appeal against a decision made before 1 January 2004.

*Judicial officers of senior courts8 Judicial officers to continue in office

- (1) This clause applies to every person who is a judicial officer under the relevant Act immediately before the commencement of this clause.
- (2) A judicial officer to whom this clause applies continues to hold his or her judicial office under the conditions of his or her appointment. 5

*Other officers of senior courts9 Other officers of court to continue in office

- (1) This clause applies to every person who is an officer of a court (other than a judicial officer as defined in clause 7) under the relevant Act immediately before the commencement of this clause. 10
- (2) An officer to whom this clause applies continues to hold his or her office subject to this Act.

*Proceedings and other matters10 Proceedings, etc, continue under relevant Act 15

- (1) All proceedings pending or in progress in a court operating under the relevant Act immediately before the commencement of this clause may be continued, completed, and enforced only under the relevant Act (including the relevant rules of court) as if that Act had not been repealed by this Act.
- (2) All jurisdictions, offices, appointments, Orders in Council, orders, warrants, rules, regulations, seals, forms, books, records, instruments, and generally all acts of authority that originated under the relevant Act or another enactment continued or repealed by this Act, and that are subsisting or in force on the commencement of this clause, have full effect as if they had originated under the corresponding provisions of this Act and, where necessary, must be treated as having originated under this Act. 20
- (3) This clause is subject to clause 11. 25

11 Proceedings subject to former High Court Rules

- (1) In this clause, former High Court Rules 2016 means the High Court Rules 2016 as in force immediately before ~~the commencement of this clause~~ 1 March 2017. 30
- (2) A proceeding that is pending on ~~the commencement of this clause~~ 1 March 2017 must be continued, completed, and enforced under the High Court Rules 2016 ~~set out in Schedule 1~~ as in force immediately after that date, except as provided in subclause (3). 35
- (3) A proceeding that is pending on ~~the commencement of this clause~~ 1 March 2017 must be dealt with as if—

- (a) Part 29 of the former High Court Rules 2016 (if applicable) were in force;
- (b) ~~the provisions of the former High Court Rules relating to interest on money claims (if applicable) were in force in place of the corresponding provisions of the High Court Rules set out in Schedule 1:~~ 5
- (c) the provisions of the former High Court Rules 2016 referring to section 26P of the Judicature Act 1908 were in force.

12 Continued effect of transitional provisions in former High Court Rules

- (1) The repeal of the Judicature Act 1908 does not affect the operation of the transitional provisions in— 10
- (a) rule 9 of the High Court Amendment Rules 2009; or
- (b) rule 7 of the High Court (Access to Court Documents) Amendment Rules 2009; or
- (c) rule 5 of the High Court Amendment Rules 2010.
- (2) So far as the enactments referred to in subclause (1)(a) to (c) may be applicable, they continue to have effect as if the Judicature Act 1908 had not been repealed. 15
