11 Transitional provision in relation to actions taken before commencement of Act

- (1) Every action taken by the Authority before the commencement of this Act which would have been valid if Part 6 of the principal Act (as enacted by section 8 of this Act) had been in force when that action was taken is hereby declared to be and always to have been valid.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in the principal Act or in subsection (1) of this section, every action taken by any person before the commencement of this Act which would have been valid if, when that action was, taken,—
 - (a) Part 6 of the principal Act (as enacted by section 8 of this Act) had been in force; and
 - (b) The Minister had been authorised by Part 6 of the principal Act (as enacted by section 8 of this act)—
 - (i) To exercise the power conferred on the Authority by section 71 of the principal Act (as so enacted); and

(ii) To both receive replies given under section 71A of the principal Act (as so enacted) and to refer those replies to the Authorities,— is hereby declared to be and always to have been valid.
