- (1) Replace section LA 5(4B), other than the heading, with:
- (4B) A person’s research and development tax credit is used by—
- (a) first, the Commissioner refunding the tax credit up to the maximum limit of the person’s refundability cap, by treating it as a refundable tax credit and applying section LA 6(2). There is no maximum limit for refunding the tax credit, if and to the extent to which—
 - (i) the person is a levy body researcher:
 - (ii) the tax credit is for eligible research and development expenditure on approved research providers:
 - (b) secondly, applying section LY 8 (Carry forward for remaining research and development tax credits), to the extent to which paragraph (a) does not apply to the tax credit.
- (2) After section LA 5(5), insert:
- Meaning of refundability cap*
- (5B) For the purposes of this section, refundability cap is the amount calculated for the tax year using the following formula:
- $$\text{own tax} + \text{other wholly-owned tax} + \text{other controller tax} - \text{double-dip allocation.}$$
- Definition of items in formula*
- (5C) In the formula,—
- (a) own tax is the total amount of PAYE, ESCT, and FBT that the person (person A) pays for the tax year to the extent to which the total amount has not been allocated under paragraph (b) or (c) to another person for the purposes of calculating their refundability cap for the tax year:
 - (b) other wholly-owned tax is zero or, if person A is a company and is a member of a wholly-owned group of companies, is the amount of PAYE, ESCT, and FBT that the other members pay for the tax year and that is allocated to person A for the purposes of calculating person A’s refundability cap for the tax year:
 - (c) other controller tax is zero or, if person A is a company, is the total amount of PAYE, ESCT, and FBT that companies that directly or indirectly control person A pay for the tax year and that is allocated to person A for the purposes of calculating their refundability cap for the tax year:

- (d) double-dip allocation means the total amount allocated to person A under paragraphs (b) and (c) that has been allocated to a person other than person A for the purposes of calculating the other person's refundability cap for the tax year.

Amendments to other enactments

Amendments to Tax Administration Act 1994

31 Tax Administration Act 1994

Sections 32 to 34 amend the Tax Administration Act 1994.

32 Section 3 amended (Interpretation)

In section 3(1), replace the definition of government agency with:

government agency,—

- (a) in section 6, includes any department or Crown entity (as those terms are defined in the Public Finance Act 1989) and any public authority (as defined in the Income Tax Act 2007):
- (b) is defined in schedule 7, part C, subpart 1, clause 23B(6) for the purposes of that clause

33 New section 183ABAB inserted (Remission for taxpayers affected by COVID-19)

After section 183ABA, insert:

183ABAB Remission for taxpayers affected by COVID-19

- (1) This section applies for a taxpayer if—
 - (a) the taxpayer's ability to make a payment required by a tax law on or before the due date for the payment is significantly adversely affected by COVID-19; and
 - (b) the due date for the payment is no earlier than 14 February 2020; and
 - (c) the taxpayer is charged with interest under Part 7 for failing to make the payment by the due date.
- (2) The taxpayer may ask the Commissioner to remit interest accrued after 14 February 2020 (the interest) on the payment.
- (3) The Commissioner may remit the interest if—
 - (a) the Commissioner is satisfied that the taxpayer—
 - (i) asked for the relief as soon as practicable; and
 - (ii) made the payment as soon as practicable; and

- (b) no more than 24 months have passed since the date on which this section comes into force.
- (4) The time limit imposed by subsection (3)(b) may be extended by Order in Council made—
 - (a) on the recommendation of the Minister of Revenue; and
 - (b) within 24 months of the date on which this section comes into force.
- (5) An Order in Council (the order) made under subsection (4) or this subsection—
 - (a) expires, if not renewed under paragraph (b), after—
 - (i) the period given in the order, if such a period is given; or
 - (ii) if no such period is given, 6 months after the order comes into force;
 - (b) may be renewed or replaced from time to time by an Order in Council made—
 - (i) on the recommendation of the Minister of Revenue; and
 - (ii) before the date on which the order would otherwise expire.
- (6) The Minister of Revenue may recommend the making of an Order in Council under subsection (4) or (5) to extend the time limit only if satisfied that the ability of taxpayers to pay tax on time is likely to continue, beyond the expiry of the existing time limit, to be significantly adversely affected by COVID-19.
- (7) An Order in Council made under subsection (4) or (5) is a legislative instrument and a disallowable instrument for the purposes of the Legislation Act 2012, and must be presented to the House of Representatives under section 41 of that Act.

In schedule 7, part C, subpart 1, after clause 23, insert:

23B Government agencies: COVID-19 response purposes

- (1) Section 18 does not prevent the Commissioner disclosing to a government agency information about a person or entity for the purpose of enabling the government agency to provide or fulfil any duty, obligation, or other thing in relation to any person or entity in connection with COVID-19 (including, without limitation, for the purpose of enabling the government agency to carry out an audit, review, or other enforcement function in relation to COVID-19-related assistance provided to any person or entity).
- (2) Despite subclause (1), the Commissioner may disclose the information only if—
 - (a) the Commissioner considers that—
 - (i) the information is readily available; and

- (ii) it is reasonable and practicable to disclose the information; and
 - (iii) it is not undesirable to disclose the information; and
 - (iv) the information is reasonably necessary for the purpose referred to in subclause (1); and
- (b) no more than 24 months have passed since the date on which this clause comes into force.
- (3) The time limit imposed by subclause (2)(b) may be extended by Order in Council made—
 - (a) on the recommendation of the Minister of Revenue; and
 - (b) within 24 months of the date on which this clause comes into force.
- (4) An Order in Council (the order) made under subclause (3) or this subclause—
 - (a) expires, if not renewed under paragraph (b), after—
 - (i) the period given in the order, if such a period is given; or
 - (ii) if no such period is given, 6 months after the order comes into force:
 - (b) may be renewed or replaced from time to time by an Order in Council made—
 - (i) on the recommendation of the Minister of Revenue; and
 - (ii) before the date on which the order would otherwise expire.
- (5) An Order in Council made under subclause (3) or (4) is a legislative instrument and a disallowable instrument for the purposes of the Legislation Act 2012, and must be presented to the House of Representatives under section 41 of that Act.
- (6) In this clause, government agency means—
 - (a) a department named in schedule 1 of the State Sector Act 1988:
 - (b) the New Zealand Police:
 - (c) the Accident Compensation Corporation:
 - (d) Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities.
