Note

The Parliamentary Counsel Office has made editorial and format changes to this version using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019.

Note 4 at the end of this version provides a list of the amendments included in it.

This Act is administered by the Public Service Commission.

An Act to make provision with respect to the payment of remuneration and travelling allowances and expenses to members of statutory Boards and of travelling allowances and expenses to members of local authorities

1 Short Title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Fees and Travelling Allowances Act 1951.
- (2) This Act shall come into force on 1 April 1952.

2 Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— local authority means a territorial authority or regional council within the meaning of the Local Government Act 2002; and includes any body that is declared by any enactment to be a local authority within the meaning of this Act

member includes a director of a corporation

Minister means the Minister of State Services

statutory Board means a body referred to in Schedule 1; and includes any body that is declared by any enactment to be a statutory Board within the meaning of this Act.

Section 2 local authority: replaced, on 1 July 2003, by section 262 of the Local Government Act 2002 (2002 No 84).

Section 2 Minister: replaced, on 10 July 1987, by section 2 of the Fees and Travelling Allowances Amendment Act 1987 (1987 No 139).

3 Remuneration of members of statutory Boards

Where, under any enactment, any member of a statutory Board is entitled to receive any remuneration by way of salary, fees, or otherwise for his services as a member of the Board, the remuneration shall, subject to any determination of the Remuneration Authority, be paid at such rate as the Minister from time to time approves in that behalf.

Section 3: amended, on 1 April 2003, by section 4(1) of the Remuneration Authority (Members of Parliament) Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 54).

Section 3: amended, on 14 February 1978, by section 33(1) of the Remuneration Authority Act 1977 (1977 No 110).

4 Travelling allowances payable to members of statutory Boards

- (1) This section applies to any member of a statutory Board who, under any enactment, is entitled to receive payment of travelling allowances or travelling expenses in respect of time spent in travelling in the service of the Board.
- (2) Where any such member, for the purpose of attending a meeting of the statutory Board or, pursuant to a resolution of the Board, of transacting any business of the Board, is required to be absent from his usual place of residence, there shall be paid to him, in accordance with regulations made under this Act, an allowance (in this Act referred to as a subsistence allowance) at such rate as the Minister from time to time approves in that behalf.

- (3) Where the member, for any such purpose, is required to make any journey and he travels by public conveyance there shall be paid to him, in accordance with regulations made under this Act, all fares and other expenses of locomotion incurred by him in making the journey.
- (4) Where a private means of conveyance is used for any such journey, there shall be paid to the member, in accordance with regulations made under this Act, an allowance (in this Act referred to as a mileage allowance) at such rate as the Minister from time to time approves in that behalf.

5 Members of subcommittees

The provisions of this Act, as far as they are applicable and with the necessary modifications, shall apply to any member of a committee or a subcommittee of a statutory Board in any case where that member is entitled, under any enactment, to receive payment of any remuneration in respect of his services to the Board or to receive payment of travelling allowances or travelling expenses in respect of time spent in travelling in the service of the Board.

6 Members of local authorities

Where, under any enactment, a member of a local authority is entitled to receive payment of travelling allowances or travelling expenses, the provisions of this Act, as far as they are applicable and with the necessary modifications, shall apply to that member as if the local authority were a statutory Board.

7 Approvals

Any approval given by the Minister under this Act may be general in its application or may relate to individual members or classes of members of statutory Boards or to any particular statutory Board or to any class or classes of statutory Boards.

8 Validation of payments of remuneration or travelling allowances

Every payment of remuneration, travelling allowances, or travelling expenses made before the commencement of this Act to any member of any Board, Council, Committee, or other body established under any enactment at a rate approved by the Minister in that behalf shall, if otherwise valid, be deemed to have been lawfully made notwithstanding that a different rate may have been prescribed by any regulations.

9 Regulations

- (1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make regulations for any purpose for which regulations are contemplated by this Act, and may make all such other regulations as may in his opinion be necessary or expedient for giving effect to the provisions of this Act and for the due administration thereof.

- (2) Without limiting the general power hereinbefore conferred, it is hereby declared that regulations may be made under this section for all or any of the following purposes:
- (a) prescribing conditions subject to which subsistence allowances or mileage allowances shall be payable:
  - (b) prescribing conditions in respect of disbursements repayable to members of statutory Boards:
  - (c) prescribing matters to be taken into account when assessing subsistence allowances or mileage allowances:
  - (d) prescribing conditions to be observed before payments of remuneration or travelling allowances or travelling expenses are made to members of statutory Boards.
- (3) Regulations under this section are secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements).
- (3) [Repealed]

Notes

1 General

This is a consolidation of the Fees and Travelling Allowances Act 1951 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
