	New Schedule 2 inserted into Family Court Act 1980

The Parliament of New Zealand enacts as follows:

1 Title

This Act is the Family Court (Family Court Associates) Legislation Act 2023.

2 Commencement

- (1) The following provisions come into force on the day after the date on which this Act receives the Royal assent:
 - (a) section 4, to the extent it relates to new sections 7A, 7B, 7E, 7F, 7G, 7I, and 7J of the Family Court Act 1980:
 - (b) subpart 12 of Part 2.
- (2) The rest of this Act comes into force 4 months after the date on which it receives the Royal assent.

Part 1

Amendments to Family Court Act 1980

3 Principal Act

This Part amends the Family Court Act 1980.

4 New sections 7A to 7K inserted

After section 7, insert:

7A Appointment of Family Court Associates

- (1) The Governor-General may, on the recommendation of the Attorney-General, appoint 1 or more Family Court Associates.
- (2) The Governor-General appoints a Family Court Associate by a signed warrant of appointment.
- (3) A Family Court Associate may be appointed on a part-time or full-time basis.
- (4) A person may be appointed a Family Court Associate if the person—
 - (a) has, for at least 7 years, held a New Zealand practising certificate as a barrister or as a barrister and solicitor; and
 - (b) is, by reason of their training, experience, and personality a suitable person to hold the office of Family Court Associate.

7B Term of appointment of Family Court Associates

A Family Court Associate is appointed for a term of not more than 7 years and may be reappointed for 1 or more further terms.

7C Jurisdiction and powers of Family Court Associates

A Family Court Associate has the jurisdiction and powers specified in Schedule 2.

7D Transfer of proceeding to Family Court Judge

- (1) A Family Court Associate may, on the application of a party to a proceeding before the Family Court Associate or on the Family Court Associate's own initiative, refer the proceeding or a matter in the proceeding to a Family Court Judge if the Family Court Associate is satisfied that because of the complexity of the proceeding or matter it is desirable to do so.
- (2) A Family Court Judge may, on the application of a party to a proceeding that is being, or is to be, dealt with by a Family Court Associate, order that the proceeding or a matter in the proceeding be transferred to and dealt with by a Family Court Judge if the Judge making the order is satisfied that it is desirable to do so.
- (3) A Family Court Judge to whom a proceeding or matter has been referred to under subsection (1) or (2) may—

- (a) dispose of the proceeding; or
- (b) refer the proceeding or matter back to the Family Court Associate with any directions the Family Court Judge thinks fit.

7E Remuneration of Family Court Associates

- (1) A Family Court Associate must be paid, out of public money and without further appropriation than this section,—
- (a) a salary, a fee, or an allowance at the rate determined by the Remuneration Authority; and
 - (b) any additional allowances, (including travelling allowances and expenses) in accordance with the Fees and Travelling Allowances Act 1951.
- (2) Expenses may be incurred, without further appropriation than this section, to meet the salaries, fees, or allowances determined under subsection (1)(a).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), the Fees and Travelling Allowances Act 1951 applies as if a Family Court Associate were a member of a statutory Board as defined in section 2 of that Act.

7F Remuneration of Family Court Associates must not be reduced

The remuneration payable to a Family Court Associate must not be reduced while the Family Court Associate holds office.

7G Restrictions on Family Court Associates

A Family Court Associate must not—

- (a) hold any office or engage in any employment or occupation that will, in the opinion of the Governor-General, impair the proper discharge of the functions of a Family Court Associate; or
- (b) practise as a lawyer; or
- (c) be employed by the Ministry of Justice or the Department of Corrections.

7H Immunity for Family Court Associates

A Family Court Associate has the same immunities as a Family Court Judge.

7I Resignation of Family Court Associates

A Family Court Associate may at any time resign by written notice to the Attorney-General.

7J Removal of Family Court Associates

- (1) The Governor-General may, on the advice of the Attorney-General, remove a Family Court Associate from office for inability or misbehaviour.

- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to sections 33(2) and 34 of the Judicial Conduct Commissioner and Judicial Conduct Panel Act 2004, which prevent removal unless—
- (a) a Judicial Conduct Panel has reported to the Attorney-General that it is of the opinion that consideration of the removal of the Family Court Associate is justified; or
 - (b) the Family Court Associate has been convicted of a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment for 2 or more years and the Attorney-General takes steps independently of that Act to initiate the removal of the Family Court Associate.

7K Report relating to Family Court Associates

- (1) The Ministry of Justice must—
- (a) review whether the appointment of Family Court Associates has reduced delays in the Family Court; and
 - (b) consider whether any amendments to this Act or any other enactments are necessary or desirable in relation to—
 - (i) the appointment of Family Court Associates; and
 - (ii) the functions, duties, and powers of Family Court Associates; and
 - (c) report to the Minister of Justice on the outcome of—
 - (i) the review under paragraph (a); and
 - (ii) the consideration under paragraph (b).
- (2) The review under subsection (1)(a) must commence no later than 5 years after the commencement of this section.

5 Section 15A amended (Application of Contempt of Court Act 2019)

After section 15A(2)(b), insert:

- (c) references to a judicial officer in sections 10, 11(2), and 25(2) include a Family Court Associate.

6 Section 17 amended (Certain enactments amended)

In section 17, replace “the Schedule” with “Schedule 1”.

7 New Schedule 2 inserted

After the Schedule, insert as Schedule 2 the schedule set out in the Schedule of this Act.

Part 2

Amendments to other legislation

Subpart 1—Amendments to Adoption Act 1955

8 Principal Act

This subpart amends the Adoption Act 1955.

9 Section 7 amended (Consents to adoption)

In section 7(8)(a), after “District Court Judge,”, insert “a Family Court Judge, a Family Court Associate,”.

10 Section 8 amended (Cases where consent may be dispensed with)

- (1) In section 8(5A), after “District Court”, insert “or Family Court”.
- (2) After section 8(8), insert:
- (9) In subsections (1) to (5), the jurisdiction of the Family Court may be exercised by a Family Court Judge or Family Court Associate.

11 Section 23 amended (Inspection of adoption records)

In section 23(3)(b), replace “the Family Court” with “a Family Court Associate, a Family Court Judge”.

12 Section 23A amended (Report on application for inspection)

After section 23A(2), insert:

- (3) In subsection (1), the jurisdiction of the Family Court may be exercised by a Family Court Judge or Family Court Associate.

Subpart 2—Amendments to Care of Children Act 2004

13 Principal Act

This subpart amends the Care of Children Act 2004.

14 Section 46E amended (Family dispute resolution mandatory before commencement of proceedings)

Replace section 46E(6) with:

- (6) A Registrar who is unsure, under subsection (5), whether to refuse to accept an application for filing may refer the application and accompanying affidavit to a Family Court Associate or Family Court Judge, and the Family Court Associate or Judge must determine whether the affidavit provides sufficient evidence of either of the matters set out in subsection (4)(f).

15 Section 46F amended (Family dispute resolution after proceedings commenced)

- (1) In section 46F(2), before “Family Court Judge”, insert “Family Court Associate or”.
- (2) In section 46F(3), before “Judge”, insert “Family Court Associate or” in each place.

16 Section 46G amended (Counselling after proceedings commenced)

Replace section 46G(2), (3), and (4) with:

- (2) A Family Court Judge may direct the Registrar of the court to refer the parties to the application to counselling services, or a Family Court Associate may refer the parties to the application to counselling services, for either or both of the following purposes:
 - (a) to improve the relationship between the parties:
 - (b) to encourage compliance with any direction or order made by the court.
- (3) A direction or referral under subsection (2) may only be made if the Family Court Judge or Family Court Associate considers that the provision of counselling services is the best means of assisting the parties with their relationship or the implementation of any decision of the court, or with both of those matters.
- (4) A direction or referral under subsection (2) may be made—
 - (a) at any stage of the proceedings, including by the Family Court Judge when making a final order; but
 - (b) once only.

17 Section 46O replaced (Judge may direct party to undertake parenting information programme)

Replace section 46O with:

46O Party may be directed to undertake parenting information programme

- (1) At any time after an application has been made to the court for a parenting order under section 48, a Family Court Associate or Family Court Judge may direct 1 or more parties to the application to attend a parenting information programme.
- (2) However, a direction may not be made under subsection (1) in respect of a party if that party has undertaken a parenting information programme within the preceding 2 years.

18 Section 46P amended (Purpose of settlement conferences)

In section 46P, before “Family Court Judge”, insert “Family Court Associate or”.

19 Section 46Q amended (Settlement conferences)

- (1) Replace section 46Q(1) with:
 - (1) At any time before the hearing of a proceeding,—
 - (a) a Family Court Associate may convene a settlement conference; or
 - (b) a Family Court Judge or Family Court Associate may direct the Registrar of the court to convene a settlement conference.
 - (2) In section 46Q(3) and (4), before “Family Court Judge”, insert “Family Court Associate or”.

20 Section 47 amended (Who may apply for parenting order)

In section 47(1)(d) and (e), replace “the court” with “a Family Court Associate or Family Court Judge”.

21 Section 49A amended (Interim parenting order where parent does not have day-to-day care for, or contact with, child)

- (1) In section 49A(3), replace “the court” with “a Family Court Associate or Family Court Judge”.
- (2) In section 49A(4), replace “the court” with “a Family Court Judge”.

22 Section 59 replaced (Court may order supervised contact)

Replace section 59 with:

59 Order for supervised contact

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if a Family Court Judge—
 - (a) is making or varying a parenting order (whether interim or final) determining the time or times when a person may have contact with a child; and
 - (b) is not satisfied that the child will be safe with that person.
- (2) The Family Court Judge may make an order for supervised contact between the child and that person, and, if the Judge does so, the Judge must specify in the order whether the supervised contact is to occur—
 - (a) under the supervision of an approved provider; or
 - (b) in the immediate presence of a person approved by the Judge (for example, a relative, a friend of the family of the child, or any other person whom the Judge considers suitable).
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—
 - (a) an interim parenting order has been made; and
 - (b) the parents of the child in respect of whom the interim order is made are parties to the order; and

- (c) under the interim parenting order one of the parents (A) has neither the role of providing day-to-day care for, nor contact with, the child; and
 - (d) the other parent (B) is not satisfied that the child will be safe with A.
- (4) A Family Court Associate may vary the interim parenting order to provide that A have contact with the child under the supervision of an approved provider—
- (a) on an application made by A and B jointly; or
 - (b) on an application made by the lawyer appointed to represent the child that is undefended.

23 Section 77 amended (Preventing removal of child from New Zealand)

Replace section 77(1) with:

- (1) In this section and sections 76 and 77A, authority means a High Court Judge, District Court Judge, or Family Court Judge or, if no High Court Judge, District Court Judge, or Family Court Judge is available, a Family Court Associate or any Registrar of the High Court or District Court (not being a constable).

24 Section 77A amended (Orders under section 77(3)(c) in respect of children of or over 16 years)

In section 77A(2), replace “court” with “authority”.

73 Sections 26 and 27 replaced

Replace sections 26 and 27 with:

26 Discharge of caveat

- (1) A caveat is to be treated as discharged 1 year after the date on which it was lodged unless within that time a notice of the marriage to which the caveat relates is given under section 23.
- (2) If the Registrar receives a notice under section 23 of an intended marriage against which the Registrar is aware a caveat has been lodged, the Registrar must submit the caveat to—
 - (a) a Family Court Judge; or
 - (b) a Family Court Associate; or
 - (c) a District Court Judge, if no Family Court Judge or Family Court Associate is immediately available.
- (3) On receiving the caveat, the Judge or Family Court Associate must immediately—
 - (a) inquire into the grounds of objection stated in the caveat; and
 - (b) discharge the caveat if they are of the opinion that those grounds should not prevent the solemnisation of the marriage.
- (4) If a Judge or Family Court Associate has refused to discharge a caveat, any person may apply to a Family Court Judge for the discharge of the caveat.

- (5) On receiving an application under subsection (4), the Judge must discharge the caveat if the Judge is of the opinion that there is no longer any reason why the intended marriage should not be solemnised.

27 Vexatious caveat

A person who lodged a caveat is liable for damages if the Judge or Family Court Associate considers the grounds on which the caveat was lodged vexatious and unreasonable.
