 - (b) is a litigant in person who wishes to have, but does not have, a barrister or solicitor appointed under this section to perform the function stated in subsection (2).
- (2) The only function of a barrister or solicitor appointed under this section is to exercise rights of challenge under sections 23 to 26 for the litigant in person by requesting under section 14AB(1), and acting on the basis of, a copy of protected particulars excluded from a panel under section 13(1A).
- (3) Subsection (2) is subject to section 14AB(4) and (5).
- (4) Fees for professional services provided, and reasonable expenses incurred, by the barrister or solicitor in performing that function—

- (5) The chief executive may from time to time give written general directions as to how the Registrar must determine under subsection (4)(a) the fees and expenses.
- (6) The general directions are in force until revoked or revoked and replaced in writing, and may (without limitation) require the Registrar, unless satisfied in a particular case that a specified exception applies, to determine the fees and expenses using specified, or specified ranges of, rates or amounts.

- (7) The ranges, rates, or amounts may differ according to—

14B Deferral of jury service

- (1) The Registrar may permit a person summoned to attend as a juror on an occasion to defer that person’s attendance to serve as a juror to a time within a period that—
- (a) starts at least 8 weeks, and ends no later than 1 year, after the date on which the person is required to attend under the summons; and
 - (b) is specified by the Registrar but lasts for at least 1 month; and
 - (c) the person has indicated would be a more convenient period for the commencement of any jury service of that person that may result from the person having been summoned to attend as a juror.
- (2) However, the Registrar may exercise that power—
- (a) only in respect of a summons that is not a replacement summons under section 14C(1)(c); and
 - (b) only once for each summons of that kind; and
 - (c) only if satisfied, on a written application for the purpose made by or on behalf of that person, that, because of 1 or more matters specified in subsection (3), attendance on that occasion would cause or result in undue hardship or serious inconvenience to that person, any other person, or the general public.

- (3) The matters referred to in subsection (2)(c) (and in section 15(1A)(a) and (c)) are—
- (a) the nature of that person’s occupation or business, or of any special and pressing commitment arising in the course of that person’s occupation or business:
 - (aa) that the person has difficulties in understanding or communicating in the English language, so that they are not capable of acting effectively as a juror:
 - (b) that person’s disability:

14C Further provisions relating to deferral of jury service

- (1) After accepting an application under section 14B, the Registrar must—
- (a) promptly record in some way the exercise of the power of deferral in respect of the summons in relation to which the application under section 14B was made; and
 - (b) promptly delete the person’s details from the panel that was—
 - (i) compiled under section 13(1); and
 - (ii) the basis of the issue of that summons; and
 - (c) if a later panel is compiled under section 13(1) because jury trials are to be held in the court and that later panel is so compiled at a time that enables the person to be summoned for jury service at a time within the period specified for the person under section 14B(1)(b), ensure the person’s details are included, in accordance with the jury rules, in that later panel and promptly issue under section 13(1), and on the basis of that later panel, a replacement summons that states a time within that period; and
 - (d) if satisfied that no jury trials are to be held in the court during the period specified for the person under section 14B(1)(b) and therefore that it is unnecessary to compile under section 13(1) a later panel at a time that would enable the person to be summoned to attend for jury service at a time within that period, promptly serve on the person, in accordance with the jury rules, written notice that the person is no longer liable to serve as a juror as a result of the summons in relation to which the application under section 14B was made.

- (2) If the Registrar declines an application under section 14B, the applicant may, in accordance with the jury rules, appeal against that decision to the court before which the applicant is summoned to appear.
- (3) The acceptance of an application under section 14B in respect of a summons does not prevent an application under section 15, 15A, or 16 in respect of a replacement summons under subsection (1)(c) of this section.
- (4) The Registrar may, if the Registrar thinks fit, treat an application under section 14B as if it were an application for excusal under section 15(1) and, if the Registrar does so, the application must be determined accordingly.

 - (b) summoned to serve in a week during which the person will be subject to the sentence of home detention.

- (1) The Registrar may excuse a person summoned to attend as a juror on an occasion from attending on that occasion.
- (1A) However, the Registrar may exercise that power only if satisfied, on a written application for the purpose made by or on behalf of that person, that,—

- (a) because of 1 or more matters specified in section 14B(3), attendance on that occasion would cause or result in undue hardship or serious inconvenience to that person, any other person, or the general public; and
 - (b) in the circumstances, a deferral of jury service under section 14B is not reasonably practicable; and
 - (c) because of 1 or more matters specified in section 14B(3), that person would not, if required to attend as a juror on that occasion, be able to perform a juror's duties satisfactorily.
- (1B) The Registrar may, if the Registrar thinks fit, treat an application under this section as if it were an application for deferral under section 14B and, if the Registrar does so, the application must be determined accordingly.
- (2) The Registrar must excuse a person summoned to attend as a juror on an occasion from attending on that occasion if satisfied, on a written application for the purpose made by or on behalf of the person, that the person—
- (a) is a practising member of a religious sect or order that holds service as a juror to be incompatible with its tenets; or
 - (aa) is of or over the age of 65 years; or
 - (b) has served, or (having been summoned) has attended for service, as a juror at any time within the preceding period of 2 years; or
 - (c) has been excused from jury service for a period that has not yet expired.
- (3) The Registrar may ask a person to provide evidence in support of an application under this section if the Registrar reasonably thinks that evidence of that kind is necessary in order to determine the application.
- (4) If the Registrar declines an application under this section, the applicant may, in accordance with the jury rules, appeal against that decision to the court before which the applicant is summoned to appear.

22 Discharge of juror or jury

- (1) When this subsection applies, the court, having regard to the interests of justice, may either—
 - (a) discharge the jury without the jury giving a verdict (whether unanimous or majority); or
 - (b) discharge the juror or jurors concerned from the panel and jury and, subject to subsection (1A), proceed with the remaining jurors and take their verdict (whether unanimous or majority).
- (1A) The court may proceed with fewer than 10 jurors under subsection (1)(b) only if all parties consent to doing so and the court, having regard to the interests of justice, considers that it should do so.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies if, and only if, before or after the jury is constituted but before the jury's verdict is taken, the court considers that—
 - (a) a juror is incapable of performing, or continuing to perform, the juror's duty as a juror in the case; or
 - (b) a juror is disqualified; or
 - (c) a juror's spouse, civil union partner, or de facto partner, member of the juror's family, or member of the family of the juror's spouse, civil union partner, or de facto partner, is ill or has died; or

 - (e) a juror is closely connected with a party or witness or prospective witness.
- (3) The court may also discharge the jury without it giving a verdict (whether unanimous or majority) if—

- (a) a casualty or emergency makes it, in the court's opinion, highly expedient for the ends of justice to do so; or
 - (b) the jury has remained in deliberation for at least 4 hours and the jurors do not agree on the verdict (whether unanimous or majority) to be given, and the court thinks the period for which the jury has remained in deliberation is reasonable.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects any rules of court that—
- (a) permit a jury for a civil case to be discharged without giving a verdict if all parties consent; or
 - (b) apply when a Judge sitting with a jury on the trial of any civil case becomes incapable of acting.
- (5) In this section and sections 22A and 22B, court includes, without limitation, a Judge of the court.

 - (b) the court may, if the discharge occurs before the case is opened or the defendant is given in charge, require a further juror to be selected from the panel and sworn under sections 18 and 20;
 - (c) the choice of a foreperson is not affected (even if 1 or more replacement jurors are selected and sworn under paragraph (b)) if that choice has already been made and the juror who was chosen as foreperson is not the juror discharged;
 - (d) if the juror has, by the time he or she is discharged, been chosen as foreperson, another foreperson must be chosen under section 21 from among the other jurors (including any 1 or more replacement jurors selected and sworn under paragraph (b)).
- (2) [Repealed]
- (3) If the court proceeds with fewer than 12 jurors under section 22(1)(b), their verdict (whether unanimous or majority) has, despite section 17, the same effect as a verdict of 12 jurors.
- (4) On discharging the jury under section 22(1)(a) or (3), the court must either—
- (a) direct that a new jury be empanelled during the sitting of the court; or

(b) postpone the trial on any terms justice requires.

36 Transitional

For the purposes of the first compilation of jury lists after 1 January 1982,—

- (a) section 9(1) shall apply as if for the words “1 November in every year” there were substituted the words “1 March 1982”;
- (b) section 10(1) shall apply as if for the words “1 December” there were substituted the words “1 May”.

36A Purpose and application of 2012 amendments on jury service

- (1) The purpose of Part 1 of the Juries (Jury Service and Protection of Particulars of Jury List Information) Amendment Act 2012 is to amend this Act so that it—
 - (a) disqualifies from jury service a person who, at any time within the preceding 5 years, has been sentenced to home detention for a period that is, or is more than, 3 months; and
 - (b) requires a person on whom a court has imposed a sentence of home detention for a period of less than 3 months and who is summoned to serve as a juror on an occasion in a week during which he or she will be subject to the sentence to be permitted to defer that person’s attendance to serve as a juror to a date after the person has ceased to be subject to the sentence, or to be excused from serving as a juror on that occasion; and

- (c) ensures that the Registrar has a discretion or duty to excuse a person summoned to attend as a juror on any occasion from attending not only on that occasion, but also in any court on any occasion, and also that a person who the Registrar has excused from jury service permanently is no longer, unless that permanent excusal is cancelled, qualified and liable to serve as a juror.
- (2) The amendments made to this Act by a provision of that Part apply only to a person's attendance to serve as a juror on an occasion after that provision's commencement, but apply to any such attendance even if that person was summoned to attend, sentenced to home detention, or both, before that commencement.

Section 36A: inserted, on 29 April 2013, by section 13 of the Juries (Jury Service and Protection of Particulars of Jury List Information) Amendment Act 2012 (2012 No 75).

36B Purpose and application of 2012 amendments on protection of particulars of jury list information

- (1) The purpose of Part 2 of the Juries (Jury Service and Protection of Particulars of Jury List Information) Amendment Act 2012 is to amend this Act so that it—
 - (a) helps to maintain jurors' privacy, safety, and security by protecting particulars of jury list information; but also
 - (b) ensures that parties to proceedings have available to them processes, and enough information, to enable them to exercise effectually their rights under this Act to challenge persons selected as jurors.
- (2) This Act applies to panels compiled before the commencement of that Part as if that Part had not been enacted.
- (3) "Defendant" in section 14AB(5) (as inserted by that Part) must, until the commencement of section 7 and the Schedule of the Juries Amendment Act 2011, be read as "accused".

Section 36B: inserted, on 29 April 2013, by section 20 of the Juries (Jury Service and Protection of Particulars of Jury List Information) Amendment Act 2012 (2012 No 75).
