10 Board may contribute towards building a sailors' home

The Otago Harbour Board may, out of its Harbour Fund, contribute a sum or sums not exceeding those contributed by persons or bodies other than the Harbour Board towards defraying the cost of building a sailors' home or other institution of a like character, and may contribute towards its maintenance: Provided that no money shall be so paid to any institution of a sectarian character, or which is not open to seafaring men of all descriptions, subject always to reasonable regulations as to subscriptions, and for the preservation of order and decency.

11 Goods, &c, may be charged by weight, &c

Goods, wares, or merchandise may be charged by weight, measurement, or package, and the rates charged on different classes of goods may be varied from time to time so as to discriminate between one class and another, as the Board may from time to time determine.

12 Goods may be exempted from export dues

Notwithstanding anything in the Harbours Act 1950, or in The Otago Harbour Board Empowering Act 1875, contained, it shall be lawful for the Board to exempt any class of goods, wares, and merchandise from the payment of export dues or rates.

A reference to the Harbours Act 1908 was substituted, as from 4 August 1908, for a reference to the Harbours Act 1878 pursuant to section 1(2) Harbours Act 1908 (1908 No 75). That reference was in turn substituted, as from 1 January 1924, by a reference to the Harbours Act 1923 pursuant to section 259(1) Harbours Act 1923 (1923 No 40). That reference was in turn substituted, as from 15 October 1950, by a reference to the Harbours Act 1950 pursuant to section 269(1) Harbours Act 1950 (1950 No 34).
