An Act to amend the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1 Short Title

This Act may be cited as the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Amendment Act 1998, and is part of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988 (“the principal Act”).

2 Appointment of barrister or solicitor by Court

This section substituted s 65(5)(b) of the principal Act.

3 Court may call for report on person

This section substituted s 76(5)(b) of the principal Act.

4 New sections substituted

This section substituted s 83, and inserted s 83A of the principal Act.

5 Transitional provision relating to appeals from Family Court to High Court

- (1) Despite the commencement of this Act, the principal Act applies as if this Act had not come into force, if—
 - (a) The hearing of any appeal has commenced before the date on which this Act comes into force; or
 - (b) The High Court has set down a date for the hearing of an appeal before the date on which this Act comes into force.
- (2) Despite the commencement of this Act, an appeal against an interim order lodged with the Court before the commencement of this Act does not require the leave of the Court.

6 Consequential amendment

This section amended Schedule 1 of the Department of Justice (Restructuring) Act 1995.
