An Act to consolidate certain enactments of the General Assembly relating to the constitution of River Boards and the construction of river works

1 Short Title, etc

- (1) The Short Title of this Act is the River Boards Act 1908.
- (2) This Act is a consolidation of the enactments mentioned in Schedule 1 hereto, and with respect to those enactments the following provisions shall apply:
 - (a) all river districts and River Boards subsisting under those enactments on the coming into operation of this Act shall be deemed to be constituted under this Act as the same river districts and Boards under this Act:
 - (b) all members and Chairmen of Boards in office on the coming into operation of this Act shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, continue in office until the coming into office of their successors under this Act:
 - (c) all Corporations, Proclamations, Orders in Council, orders, warrants, petitions, special orders, regulations, resolutions, rolls, lists, ratebooks, rates, records, instruments, offices, appointments, and generally all acts of authority which originated under any of the said enactments or any enactment thereby repealed, and are subsisting or in force on the coming into operation of this Act, shall enure for the purposes of this Act as fully and effectually as if they had originated under the corresponding provisions of this Act, and accordingly shall, where necessary, be deemed to have so originated:
 - (d) all matters and proceedings commenced under any such enactment, and pending or in progress on the coming into operation of this Act, may be continued, completed, and enforced under this Act.

2 Interpretation

Petitions

4 Provisions as to petitions

The following provisions shall apply to all petitions under this Act:

- (a) The signatures to any such petition shall be verified by the solemn declaration in the form following, signed by some person or persons residing in the district to which such petition refers:

“I, A. B., do solemnly declare that the signatures affixed to the above petition initialled by me [or which I have marked (Describing the mark)] are the genuine signatures of the persons whose they purport to be, and that such persons are district electors of the [Naming the river or other district] to which the petition relates [or are ratepayers of the river district to which the petition relates].”:
- (b) Every person who forges any such petition or any signature thereto, or utters the same knowing it to be forged, or makes any such declaration knowing the same to be false, is liable to a fine not exceeding $100:
- (c) If it is represented to the Governor-General that any of the signatures to any such petition or declaration are false, or that any of the persons signing were not entitled so to sign, or that the statements in such petition are untrue, or that the provisions of this Act in respect to such petition have not been complied with, the Governor-General may cause an inquiry to be made, and may adjourn the consideration of such petition till the result of such inquiry is known:
- (d) The Governor-General may appoint one or more persons to make such inquiry, who shall have all the powers in respect to the summoning of witnesses and their examination upon oath, and to calling for the production of books and papers touching such inquiry, as may be exercised by or under any law for the time being in force by Justices; and any person interested shall be at liberty, by himself or his counsel, to appear before such persons and make such statements and produce such evidence as he thinks material:

- (e) The Governor-General shall not grant the prayer of any petition if the result of any such inquiry as aforesaid proves that there are not sufficient true signatures to such petition to make up the number required by this Act, or that the statements in such petitions are untrue, or that the provisions of this Act in respect to such petition have not been complied with.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 4

River boards

Number of members of the Board—elections

15 Constitution of Board

- (1) In every river district there shall be a River Board, consisting in districts not divided into subdivisions, of not less than 5 nor more than 9 members, and in districts divided into subdivisions, of the members for each subdivision, but so that there shall be not less than 5 nor more than 9 members of the Board, nor less than one nor more than 4 members for each subdivision.
- (2) Every such Board shall be a Corporation under the name of “The [Stating the name] River Board”, having perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to make, alter, and renew the same, to purchase, take, hold, and transfer property, real and personal, and to sue and be sued in any Court, and to do and suffer all other acts and things which a body corporate may lawfully do and suffer.

Compare: 1884 No 49 ss 15, 16

In subsection (1) the figure “4” was substituted, as from 4 December 1913, for the figure “3” by section 5 River Boards Amendment Act 1913 (1913 No 35).

16 Boards prior to 10 November 1884

- (1) Notwithstanding anything in the last preceding section, it is hereby declared that in the case of Boards constituted prior to the 10 November 1884 (being the date of the coming into operation of the River Boards Act 1884), the number of their members and the mode of electing, appointing, or selecting the members shall continue under the respective enactments regulating the same and in force immediately prior to the coming into operation of this Act; for which purpose those enactments shall, notwithstanding the repeal thereof, be deemed to remain in operation.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) of this section, every person who votes at an election of a member or members of a Board held in accordance with any such enactment shall be entitled to exercise only one vote.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 17

Subsection (2) was inserted, as from 1 April 1974, by section 9(2) Counties Amendment Act 1974 (1974 No 8).

17 By whom members elected

In the case of every river district constituted on or after the date last aforesaid the members of the Board shall be elected by the ratepayers of the district, and if the district is subdivided, then the ratepayers of each subdivision shall elect the member or members for such subdivision.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 18

18 Provision where a local authority forms or elects Board

The provisions of this Act respecting election of members shall have no application in any case where the members of a local authority—

- (a) form the Board; in which case the Board so constituted shall be a River Board within the meaning of this Act, and continue to perform the functions of such Board from time to time without complying with the provisions of this Act relating to elections:
- (b) elect any member of the Board; in which case the local authority shall conduct the election in manner as it determines; but in case of failure in making such election an extraordinary vacancy shall be created, and the Governor-General shall nominate a person to be member of the Board to supply such vacancy.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 19

19 Governor-General in Council may declare what bodies shall return members in certain cases

- (1) If at any time it appears to the Governor-General that a local authority or association electing or appointing a member or members of the Board has ceased to exist, or has been incorporated with or united to some other local authority or association, the Governor-General may by Order in Council declare what other local authority or association shall return a member in lieu of the authority or association so ceasing to exist or being incorporated or united as aforesaid.
- (2) If any such authority or association becomes divided into 2 or more like bodies, the Governor-General in Council may order that the original bodies or associations and the new bodies or associations shall unite in electing or appointing a member or members of the Board, as the case may be.
- (3) If the name of any such local authority or association is changed, but such body or association in other respects remains unaltered, such change of name shall not affect the right of such body or association to elect a member.
- (4) An order under this section is secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements).

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 20

Dissolution and reconstitution of boards

21 Governor-General, on request, may dissolve and reconstitute a Board

- (1) Any Board may, by resolution passed by an absolute majority of its members, request the Governor-General in Council to dissolve the Board and the Governor-General may dissolve such Board accordingly.
- (2) In voting on any resolution under this section the Chairman shall have only a deliberative and not a casting vote.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 22

22 Corporation to continue, and property of Board dissolved to belong to new Board

Where a Board is dissolved under the last preceding section, then, on a day to be fixed by the Governor-General in Council, an election of a new Board shall be held, and the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) the new Board when elected shall be deemed to be the same Corporation as that of the Board which was dissolved (herein referred to as the former Board):
- (b) all property, real or personal, belonging to the former Board shall become vested in the new Board, and shall be deemed to have been so vested on the day of the dissolution of the former Board:
- (c) all rates or other money payable to the former Board shall become payable to the new Board:
- (d) all the liabilities and engagements of the former Board shall become liabilities and engagements of the new Board:
- (e) all actions and proceedings pending by or against the former Board may be carried on and prosecuted by or against the new Board.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 23

23 Governor-General may appoint a person to make inquiries into property of Board

In the exercise of the powers given to him by section 21 hereof, the Governor-General may appoint a fit person to make all such inquiries, and examine and inspect all books, papers, and accounts, as may be necessary to ascertain the debts and liabilities of the Board at the time of its dissolution or immediately prior to such time, and what property was or is vested in it; and all expenses incident to the making of such inquiries shall be defrayed by the Board out of its funds.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 24

24 Refusing information, etc

If any Board about to be dissolved, or the Chairman or any member or officer of any such Board, or any person who at the time of the dissolution of the Board was its Chairman or a member or officer thereof, refuses to give information to any person so appointed, or to produce any books, papers, or accounts in its or their custody or possession, every person so offending shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $100.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 24

The expression “$100” was substituted, as from 10 July 1967, for the expression “fifty pounds” pursuant to section 7(1) Decimal Currency Act 1964 (1964 No 27).

Section 29(2): amended, on 10 September 2008, by section 16(3) of the Disability (United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities) Act 2008 (2008 No 64).

30 Who are ratepayers

Every person of or over the age of 18 years whose name appears on the valuation roll of a river district, or of any subdivision thereof,—

- (a) as the occupier of any property in a district where rates are levied on all property therein:
- (b) as the owner of any lands in a district where rates are levied on lands only—shall be a ratepayer so long as such roll is in force and his name so appears thereon.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 30; 1891 No 20 s 7

Section 30 was amended, as from 8 October 1970, by section 2 Local Elections and Polls Amendment Act 1970 (1970 No 30) by substituting the words “of or over the age of 20 years” for the words “of the full age of twenty-one years”.

Section 30 was further amended, as from 1 April 1974, by section 2(1) Local Elections and Polls Amendment Act 1974 (1974 No 10) by substituting the words “of or over the age of 18 years” for the words “of or over the age of 20 years”.

30A Ratepayers list

The Secretary shall cause to be compiled, not later than 21 days before the day on which each triennial general election, by-election, or poll is to be held, a list to be called the “ratepayers list” containing the name of every person entitled to vote at the election, by-election, or poll.

Sections 30A to 30C were inserted, as from 17 June 1986, by section 12 Local Government Amendment Act 1986 (1986 No 21).

30B Public notice of ratepayers list and objection rights

- (1) The Secretary shall ensure that the ratepayers list is accessible in a public place within the district not later than 21 days before the day on which the election, by-election, or poll is to be held.
- (2) The Secretary shall give public notice of the place where the ratepayers list is available and the rights of persons under section 30C of this Act to object to the list.

Sections 30A to 30C were inserted, as from 17 June 1986, by section 12 Local Government Amendment Act 1986 (1986 No 21).

30C Objections to ratepayers list

- (1) Any person may object to the inclusion in or the removal from the ratepayers list of the names or other details relating to that person or any other person, by notice in writing to the Returning Officer not later than 7 days before the day on which the election, by-election, or poll is to be held.
- (2) Where the Returning Officer does not allow any objection, it shall be referred to a District Court Judge for determination, and the Returning Officer shall make such alterations to the list as may be necessary to give effect to the decision of the District Court Judge.

- (3) The ratepayers list shall come into force—
- (a) immediately after all objections have been determined and any necessary alterations made; or
 - (b) where there are no objections, on the day after the last day for objections—and shall remain in force until another rate-payers list comes into force.

Sections 30A to 30C were inserted, as from 17 June 1986, by section 12 Local Government Amendment Act 1986 (1986 No 21).

31 As to number of votes for each ratepayer

- (1) Every ratepayer shall be entitled to vote at every election of a member of the Board, but if the district is subdivided, then only at elections of members of the Board for each subdivision in which he is a ratepayer.
- (2) In any case where there is more than one person appearing on the valuation roll as the occupier of any one property, then for the purpose of voting the person only whose name appears first on such roll shall be deemed to be entitled to vote in respect of such property.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 31; 1899 No 13 s 3

Subsection (1) was substituted, as from 1 April 1974, by section 9(2) Counties Amendment Act 1974 (1974 No 8).

32 When members come into office or cease to hold office

[Repealed]

Section 32 was repealed, as from 27 August 1953, by section 103(1) Local Elections and Polls Act 1953 (1953 No 16).

33 Person elected for 2 or more subdivisions

If any person is elected a member of the Board for 2 or more subdivisions, he shall, at the first meeting of the Board thereafter, elect, or in default thereof the Board shall elect, for which of such subdivisions he shall serve; and there shall be deemed to be an extraordinary vacancy in the office of member for any other subdivision for which he was elected.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 33

34 How office of member becomes vacant

- (1) Any member of the Board may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Chairman or the Secretary; and in such case, or in case of his death, incapacity, or ouster from office, or if he absents himself without leave of the Board from 4 consecutive ordinary meetings thereof, his office shall be vacant, and such vacancy shall be deemed to be an extraordinary vacancy.
- (2) [Repealed]

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 35

70 Contracts of Board to bind

All contracts duly made according to the provisions herein contained shall be effectual in law, and shall be binding on the Board and all other parties thereto, their successors, executors, or administrators, as the case may be.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 71

71 Actions or suits may be maintained on contracts

In case of default in compliance with any such contract, either by the Board or by any other party thereto, such actions may be maintained thereon, and damages and costs recovered by or against the Board or the other parties failing in compliance therewith, as might have been maintained and recovered if such contract were between private persons only.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 72

72 Board may compound for breach of contract

The Board may compound with any person for such sum of money or other recompense as it thinks fit in respect of the breach of any contract or of any penalty incurred thereunder, or of any debt due to the Board, whether before or after any action is brought for or in respect of the same.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 73

River works

73 Rivers under control of Board

- (1) All rivers, streams, and watercourses within any river district constituted under this Act, whether or not the same are navigable or are altered by the ebb and flow of the tide, shall be to all intents and purposes within and subject to the jurisdiction of the Board, so far as may be requisite for the construction or maintenance of any works necessary to prevent or lessen any damage which may be occasioned by the overflow or the breaking of the banks of the same.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorise a River Board to exercise jurisdiction within any district within the jurisdiction of any Harbour Board.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 74

74 Power to take lands

- (1) Parts 2, 5 and 7 of the Public Works Act 1981 shall be read with this Act as if the words “River Board” and “river works” had respectively been inserted in the aforesaid Parts in place of the words “local authority” and “local works” respectively.
- (2) The Board may, in the manner provided by the Public Works Act 1981, take or otherwise acquire land required for any river works which such Board is by this or any special Act authorised to undertake; and all such works shall be deemed to be local works within the meaning of the Public Works Act 1981.

Compare: 1884 No 49 ss 75, 76

References to the Public Works Act 1908 were substituted, as from 6 October 1928, by references to the Public Works Act 1928 by section 346 Public Works Act 1928 (1928 No 21).

The Public Works Act 1981 and Parts 2, 5 and 7 of that Act were substituted for the repealed Public Works Act 1908, and Parts 2 to 5 of that Act.

75 Power to remove soil, etc

The Board may, in the manner provided by the Public Works Act 1981 take any earth, stone, boulders, gravel, sand, or other material off, from, or out of any land for the purpose of using the same in or about any river works.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 77

References to the Public Works Act 1908 were substituted, as from 6 October 1928, by references to the Public Works Act 1928 by section 346 Public Works Act 1928 (1928 No 21).

That Act was in turn repealed, as from 1 February 1982, by section 248(1) Public Works Act 1981 (1981 No 35).

76 Power to enter on lands, etc

The Board shall, in addition to any other powers given to it by this Act, have and possess the following powers, that is to say:

- (a) it may, without any previous agreement with the owner or occupier of any land within the district, on giving 24 hours’ notice, enter on any such land, whether the same is Crown land or not, and take levels of the same:
- (b) it may enter on, take, and hold any such land for the purposes of this Act:
- (c) it may from time to time make, maintain, alter, or discontinue any protective works or any other works whatsoever on any land to be taken as aforesaid, or on any land bounded or intersected by any river or stream under its control or within its jurisdiction, or on any such river or stream, for the purpose of preventing or lessening any damage which may be threatened or has actually occurred by the overflow of any such river or stream or from the breaking of the banks of the same:

- (d) it may from time to time divert, impound, or take away any water from any such river or stream, or alter the course of the same:

Provided that any such power shall be exercised subject to the Natural and Built Environment Act 2023.

- (e) it may for any of the purposes aforesaid, at all reasonable times, by itself, its servants or workmen, and with or without carriages loaded or unloaded, enter into and pass through and over any lands within the district for the purpose of carrying out any works to be constructed under this Act, and for the purpose of maintaining and repairing any existing works, doing thereby no unnecessary or avoidable damage to such lands:

- (f) it may lay or deposit on any such lands any materials whatsoever to be used in the maintenance or construction of any such works, and may erect thereon any temporary shelter for any workmen or persons engaged in such maintenance or construction, causing thereby as little damage or inconvenience as may be.

Provided that any such power shall be exercised subject to the Natural and Built Environment Act 2023.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 78

The proviso to paragraph (d) was inserted, as from 1 October 1991, by section 362 Resource Management Act 1991 (1991 No 69).

Section 76(f): amended, on 24 August 2023, by section 805(1) of the Natural and Built Environment Act 2023 (2023 No 46).

77 Board may order trees impeding river or stream to be removed

- (1) The Board may order the occupier, or in case there is no occupier, then the owner of any land on the bank of any river or stream within its jurisdiction to remove any tree, shrub, or bush, or any part thereof hanging in the water and impeding the free flow thereof, or to lower or trim any part of a tree, shrub, or bush overhanging a river or stream and likely to fall therein.
- (2) Where any river or stream extends beyond the limits of a river district and its obstruction is likely to cause damage to property within such district, the Board may order the occupier or, when there is no occupier, the owner of any land on the banks of such river or stream for the space of 1.5 kilometres beyond the upstream boundary of such district to remove any driftwood, tree, shrub, or bush, or any part thereof impeding the free flow of water in the said river or stream, or to lower or trim any part of a tree, shrub, or bush overhanging such river or stream and likely to fall therein within the space of the said distance.
- (3) In the event of such occupier or owner failing to comply with any such order within 14 days from the receipt thereof, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $10 for every day during which such order is not obeyed, and a further sum equal to the cost incurred by the Board in removing, lowering, or trimming any such tree, shrub, or bush, or any part thereof; and the said cost shall be a charge on the land, and may be recovered as rates are recovered.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 4; 1888 No 24 s 7

Subsection (2) was amended, as from 8 November 1974, by section 2(a) and (b) of the River Boards Amendment Act 1974 (1974 No 119) by substituting the words “1.5 kilometres” and “said distance” for the words “one mile” and “aforesaid mile”.

The expression “$10” was substituted, as from 10 July 1967, for the expression “five pounds” pursuant to section 7(1) Decimal Currency Act 1964 (1964 No 27).

78 Property, etc, vested in Board

All lands, buildings, erections, works, and other things which have been or hereafter are taken, purchased, obtained, erected, constructed, and made by or by the order, or which are or shall be within or under the view, cognisance, or management, of any Board, with the several conveniences and appurtenances thereunto respectively belonging; and

All goods, tools, utensils and materials, and things whatever had and to be had, bought, procured, or provided by or by the order of, or which are or shall be within or under the view, cognisance, or management of, such Board; and also shall be and the same are hereby vested in and shall be deemed to be the property of the Board.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 80

Section 78 was amended, as from 29 June 1988, by section 208(1) Rating Powers Act 1988 (1988 No 97) by substituting the words “all rates levied for the purposes of this Act, and other money raised by virtue of this Act” for the words “all rates and other money raised or levied by virtue of this Act”.

79 Wilful damage to river works

Every person who wilfully or maliciously—

- (a) stops or obstructs any river, stream, or watercourse that is under the jurisdiction of the Board; or
- (b) destroys, damages, stops, or obstructs any river works or drainage works belonging to or under the jurisdiction of the Board,— commits an offence, and is liable on conviction before a District Court Judge to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to a fine not exceeding $200.

Section 79 was substituted, as from 10 May 1956, by section 4 River Boards Amendment Act 1956 (1956 No 8).

Section 79: amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

80 Board may contract with other local authority or any Minister of the Crown

- (1) The Board may from time to time contract, on such terms and conditions as it sees fit, with any other local authority empowered in that behalf, or with any Minister of the Crown, for or with respect to the doing, control, conduct, management, or supervision by either or any of the contracting parties of any of the things hereinbefore provided for, or of any matter or thing which the Board or such other local authority is by law empowered to do, control, and manage.
- (2) Such contract may relate to the execution of any public works which in the opinion of the Board will be beneficial to the ratepayers of the district, whether such works are to be wholly or partially constructed inside or outside the district.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 82

In subsection (1) the reference to the “Minister of Works and Development” was substituted, as from 21 November 1973, by section 2(4)(a) Public Works Amendment Act 1973 (1973 No 44), for a reference to the “Minister of Works”, which by section 2(5) of the Ministry of Works Act 1943 had been substituted for a reference to the “Minister of Public Works”.

Subsection (1) was further amended, as from 1 April 1988, by section 2 River Boards Amendment Act 1988 (1988 No 80) by substituting the words “any Minister of the Crown” for the words “the Minister of Works and Development”.

81 Board may join with other local authorities in making contracts

- (1) The Board may join with any other local authority in contracting with any person for the execution of any works the construction of which will be either wholly or partially within or without its district and which in the opinion of the Board will be beneficial to the ratepayers of its district.
- (2) Such contract may provide for the apportionment of the cost of such works among the local authorities parties thereto in such proportions as may be thought fair and equitable by the parties thereto.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 83

82 Powers of local authorities parties to such contract

Any local authority to whom, under any contract made in pursuance of either of the 2 last preceding sections, the control, conduct, management, or supervision of any works is entrusted shall have in respect thereof all the powers which the other local authorities parties thereto have under this or any other Act, unless the exercise of such powers is expressly reserved by such contract.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 84

116 Money not accounted for to be debt due to Board

If any money belonging to the Board appears at any time to be in the hands of any person and not to be duly accounted for, such money shall be deemed to be a debt due by such person to the Board, and may be recovered by any person authorised by the Board in that behalf, together with full costs of suit, in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Compare: 1884 No 49 s 128

117 Persons refusing to deliver up money and papers may be imprisoned

- (1) If any officer of the Board or other person fails to render any accounts hereby required, or to deliver up the vouchers in his possession relating thereto, or to pay forthwith on demand the balance thereof as already required, or fails for 5 days after demand thereof to deliver up to the Board, or to any person authorised by the Board to receive the same, all property, matters, and things in his possession or control belonging to the Board or relating to the execution of this Act, any 2 Justices may hear and determine the matter, and may order such officer or person to render such accounts, or to deliver up such matters or things, or to pay such balance as hereby required.

- (2) If such officer or person neglects or refuses to obey such order, he may be committed to prison by any Justice for any period not exceeding 6 months.
- (3) No such proceeding against or dealing with any officer or person as aforesaid shall deprive the Board of any remedy it might otherwise have against any such officer or person or against any surety of such officer, or shall exempt any officer or person from any criminal proceedings to which he might otherwise be liable.

Compare: 1884 No 49 ss 129, 130

Section 117(1): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

117A Unauthorised expenditure

- (1) Any River Board may in every financial year, out of its general account or any appropriate separate account, expend for purposes not authorised by any Act or law for the time being in force any sum or sums not amounting in the whole to more than one percent of the general rate levied for that year, nor in any case to more than $20,000.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, if the amount authorised by that subsection is less than $100 in the case of any River Board for any year, the River Board may in that year expend as aforesaid a sum or sums not amounting in the whole to more than $100.

Section 117A was inserted, as from 1 April 1978, by section 152 of the Public Finance Act 1977 (1977 No 65).

Special provisions

County river boards

118 Governor-General may proclaim County Council to be River Board

- (1) The Governor-General, if he thinks fit, may by Proclamation declare any County Council or any District Council whose district immediately before its constitution comprised or formed part of a county to be the River Board in respect of any river district the limits whereof are entirely included within the limits of such county or district council district, as the case may be, subject to the conditions following:
 - (a) that a petition of the majority of the ratepayers of the river district is presented to the Governor-General in that behalf, after such petition has been previously publicly notified in the district for not less than 30 days; and

- (b) that a resolution of the County Council or district council to be affected by such petition, concurring in the prayer thereof, is transmitted to the Governor-General.
- (2) On the proposed constitution of a new river district it shall be sufficient if the matter of the above-mentioned petition is included in any petition presented to the Governor-General praying him to constitute such district; and in such case a separate petition shall not be necessary, but the resolution of the Council shall be indispensable in all cases.

Compare: 1884 No 49 ss 131, 132

In subsection (1) the words “any County Council or any District Council whose district immediately before its constitution comprised or formed part of a county” were substituted, as from 1 April 1980, for the words “the Council of any County” by section 8(3) Local Government Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 59).
