The Parliament of New Zealand enacts as follows:

1 Title

This Act is the Statutes Amendment Act 2022.

2 Commencement

This Act comes into force on the day after the date on which it receives the Royal Assent.

Part 1

Amendment to Agricultural Compounds and Veterinary Medicines Act 1997

3 Principal Act

This Part amends the Agricultural Compounds and Veterinary Medicines Act 1997.

4 New section 78A inserted (Certain secondary legislation or published instruments may be consolidated)

After section 78, insert:

78A Certain secondary legislation or published instruments may be consolidated

Secondary legislation made by Director-General and with same publishing requirements

(1) The Director-General (the maker) may at any time apply this section to any secondary legislation that—

(a) the maker has made, or may make, under a provision of this Act, or of regulations made under this Act, by satisfying the same requirements for publishing the secondary legislation; and

(b) is not drafted by the PCO (see section 67 of the Legislation Act 2019).

Other instruments made by same maker with same publishing requirements

(2) The Minister or the Director-General (the maker) may at any time apply this section to any instruments that—

- (a) the maker has made, or may make, under any provisions of this Act, or of regulations made under this Act, by satisfying the same requirements for publishing the instruments; and
- (b) are not secondary legislation.

Once this section is applied to specific instruments

- (3) The powers of the maker to amend or replace the specific instruments (whether given by a specific empowering provision, section 48 of the Legislation Act 2019, or otherwise) authorise the maker to—
 - (a) revoke any specific instruments that have been made (a revoked instrument); and
 - (b) make an instrument under any of the specific empowering provisions (the new instrument) that—
 - (i) has the same effect that all or part of the revoked instrument or instruments had immediately before being revoked; and
 - (ii) otherwise has any further effect (if any) authorised by the specific empowering provisions (the new or amended parts).
- (4) For each part of the new instrument (the replacement part) that has the same effect as part of a revoked instrument (the revoked part),—
 - (a) the replacement part must be treated as being made under the specific empowering provision under which the revoked part was made; and
 - (b) any requirements for making the replacement part or for revoking the revoked part, other than the requirements for publication, must be treated as being satisfied to the extent that the requirements for making the revoked part were satisfied when it was made.
- (5) To avoid doubt,—
 - (a) the new or amended parts of the new instrument (if any) are made under the relevant specific empowering provisions; and
 - (b) any requirements of the relevant specific empowering provisions must be satisfied in making those parts.
- (6) A revoked instrument continues to have effect, as if it had not been revoked, in relation to any matter in a period to which the revoked instrument applied.
- (7) In this section,—
 - instrument has the meaning given in section 5 of the Legislation Act 2019
 - maker, in relation to an instrument, means the person empowered to make it, as defined by subsection (1) or (2)
 - specific empowering provisions means the provisions of this Act, or of regulations, that—
 - (a) empower the making of the specific instruments; and

- (b) are referred to in the subsection under which the maker applies this section to the specific instruments

specific instruments means the 1 or more instruments to which the maker applies this section, whether the instruments—

- (a) have been made (and are to be revoked); or
- (b) are able to be made.

Part 2

Amendments to Animal Products Act 1999

5 Principal Act

This Part amends the Animal Products Act 1999.

6 New section 167B inserted (Certain secondary legislation or published instruments may be consolidated)

After section 167A, insert:

167B Certain secondary legislation or published instruments may be consolidated

Secondary legislation made by same maker and with same publishing requirements

- (1) The Minister or the Director-General (the maker) may at any time apply this section to any secondary legislation that—
 - (a) the maker has made, or may make, under a provision of this Act, or of regulations made under this Act, by satisfying the same requirements for publishing the secondary legislation; and
 - (b) is not drafted by the PCO (see section 67 of the Legislation Act 2019).

Other instruments made by same maker with same publishing requirements

- (2) The Minister or the Director-General (the maker) may at any time apply this section to any instruments that—
 - (a) the maker has made, or may make, under any provisions of this Act, or of regulations made under this Act, by satisfying the same requirements for publishing the instruments; and
 - (b) are not secondary legislation.

Once this section is applied to specific instruments

- (3) The powers of the maker to amend or replace the specific instruments (whether given by a specific empowering provision, section 48 of the Legislation Act 2019, or otherwise) authorise the maker to—
 - (a) revoke any specific instruments that have been made (a revoked instrument); and

- (b) make an instrument under any of the specific empowering provisions (the new instrument) that—
- (i) has the same effect that all or part of the revoked instrument or instruments had immediately before being revoked; and
 - (ii) otherwise has any further effect (if any) authorised by the specific empowering provisions (the new or amended parts).
- (4) For each part of the new instrument (the replacement part) that has the same effect as part of a revoked instrument (the revoked part),—
- (a) the replacement part must be treated as being made under the specific empowering provision under which the revoked part was made; and
 - (b) any requirements for making the replacement part or for revoking the revoked part, other than the requirements for publication, must be treated as being satisfied to the extent that the requirements for making the revoked part were satisfied when it was made.
- (5) To avoid doubt,—
- (a) the new or amended parts of the new instrument (if any) are made under the relevant specific empowering provisions; and
 - (b) any requirements of the relevant specific empowering provisions must be satisfied in making those parts.
- (6) A revoked instrument continues to have effect, as if it had not been revoked, in relation to any matter in a period to which the revoked instrument applied.
- (7) In this section,—
- instrument has the meaning given in section 5 of the Legislation Act 2019
- maker, in relation to an instrument, means the person empowered to make it, as defined by subsection (1) or (2)
- specific empowering provisions means the provisions of this Act, or of regulations, that—
- (a) empower the making of the specific instruments; and
 - (b) are referred to in the subsection under which the maker applies this section to the specific instruments
- specific instruments means the 1 or more instruments to which the maker applies this section, whether the instruments—
- (a) have been made (and are to be revoked); or
 - (b) are able to be made.

7 Schedule 1 amended

In Schedule 1,—

- (a) insert the Part set out in Schedule 1 of this Act as the last Part; and
- (b) make all necessary consequential amendments.

Part 3

Amendment to Animal Welfare Act 1999

8 Principal Act

This Part amends the Animal Welfare Act 1999.

9 New section 184A and cross-heading inserted

After section 184, insert:

Consolidation of secondary legislation or published instruments

184A Certain secondary legislation or published instruments may be consolidated

Secondary legislation made by same maker and with same publishing requirements

- (1) The Minister, the Director-General, or the Minister of Conservation (the maker) may at any time apply this section to any secondary legislation that—

34A Application to court to revoke conditions imposed if conviction overturned, or person pardoned, for overseas jurisdiction offence

- (1) The chief executive must make an application to a court to revoke conditions imposed under this subpart on a person if, after considering information provided by or on behalf of the person, the chief executive is satisfied—

- (a) that the person has been convicted in an overseas jurisdiction of an offence for conduct that constitutes an imprisonable offence in New Zealand; and
 - (b) that the conditions were imposed under this subpart by a court in respect of the conviction; and
 - (c) that the conviction has been overturned, or that the person has been pardoned for that overseas jurisdiction offence.
- (2) A court must revoke the conditions if, on an application made under this section by the chief executive, the court is satisfied of the matters specified in subsection (1)(a), (b), and (c).
 - (3) This section does not limit any other power of a court to amend or revoke the conditions.
 - (4) After the revocation, the person is no longer required to comply with any conditions imposed on the person by a court under section 33(1) because of the conviction.
 - (5) Subsection (4) overrides sections 26 to 34.

After section 20(2)(i), insert:

- (j) section 89 of the Limited Partnerships Act 2008.

121 New section 44A inserted (Execution of instruments by order of High Court)

After section 44, insert:

44A Execution of instruments by order of High Court

- (1) This section applies if a person fails to comply, before a date specified by the court or, if no date is specified, within a reasonable time, with a judgment or order of the High Court directing the person to—
 - (a) execute a conveyance, contract, or other document; or
 - (b) endorse a negotiable instrument.
- (2) The High Court may, on application and on the terms it thinks just, make an order directing another person, who it nominates for the purpose, to—
 - (a) execute the conveyance, contract, or other document; or
 - (b) endorse the negotiable instrument.
- (3) The nominee must execute the conveyance, contract, or other document, or endorse the negotiable instrument, before the date specified by the court, or, if no date is specified, within a reasonable time.
- (4) A conveyance, contract, document, or instrument executed or endorsed by the nominee operates and is effective as if the person referred to in subsection (1) had made the execution or endorsement.
- (5) The exercise of the High Court's power in subsection (2) does not—
 - (a) affect a proceeding already commenced in a court; or
 - (b) invalidate anything that was previously lawful; or
 - (c) validate anything previously declared invalid in any proceeding.

125 Schedule 3 amended

In Schedule 3, after clause 1(2), insert:

- (3) If the term of appointment of a person appointed to Te Pou Tupua expires, unless the person resigns or is removed from office, that person continues to hold office by virtue of the appointment for the term that has expired, until—
- (a) that person is reappointed; or
 - (b) a successor to that person is appointed.

Part 41
Amendments to Wine Act 2003

126 Principal Act

This Part amends the Wine Act 2003.

127 New section 120B inserted (Certain secondary legislation or published instruments may be consolidated)

After section 120A, insert:

120B Certain secondary legislation or published instruments may be consolidated

Secondary legislation made by same maker and with same publishing requirements

- (1) The Minister or the Director-General (the maker) may at any time apply this section to any secondary legislation that—
- (a) the maker has made, or may make, under a provision of this Act, or of regulations made under this Act, by satisfying the same requirements for publishing the secondary legislation; and
 - (b) is not drafted by the PCO (see section 67 of the Legislation Act 2019).

Other instruments made by same maker with same publishing requirements

- (2) The Minister or the Director-General (the maker) may at any time apply this section to any instruments that—

- (a) the maker has made, or may make, under any provisions of this Act, or of regulations made under this Act, by satisfying the same requirements for publishing the instruments; and
- (b) are not secondary legislation.

Once this section is applied to specific instruments

- (3) The powers of the maker to amend or replace the specific instruments (whether given by a specific empowering provision, section 48 of the Legislation Act 2019, or otherwise) authorise the maker to—
 - (a) revoke any specific instruments that have been made (a revoked instrument); and
 - (b) make an instrument under any of the specific empowering provisions (the new instrument) that—
 - (i) has the same effect that all or part of the revoked instrument or instruments had immediately before being revoked; and
 - (ii) otherwise has any further effect (if any) authorised by the specific empowering provisions (the new or amended parts).
- (4) For each part of the new instrument (the replacement part) that has the same effect as part of a revoked instrument (the revoked part),—
 - (a) the replacement part must be treated as being made under the specific empowering provision under which the revoked part was made; and
 - (b) any requirements for making the replacement part or for revoking the revoked part, other than the requirements for publication, must be treated as being satisfied to the extent that the requirements for making the revoked part were satisfied when it was made.
- (5) To avoid doubt,—
 - (a) the new or amended parts of the new instrument (if any) are made under the relevant specific empowering provisions; and
 - (b) any requirements of the relevant specific empowering provisions must be satisfied in making those parts.
- (6) A revoked instrument continues to have effect, as if it had not been revoked, in relation to any matter in a period to which the revoked instrument applied.
- (7) In this section,—

instrument has the meaning given in section 5 of the Legislation Act 2019

maker, in relation to an instrument, means the person empowered to make it, as defined by subsection (1) or (2)

specific empowering provisions means the provisions of this Act, or of regulations, that—

 - (a) empower the making of the specific instruments; and

- (b) are referred to in the subsection under which the maker applies this section to the specific instruments

specific instruments means the 1 or more instruments to which the maker applies this section, whether the instruments—

- (a) have been made (and are to be revoked); or
- (b) are able to be made.

128 Schedule 1 amended

In Schedule 1,—

- (a) insert the Part set out in Schedule 3 of this Act as the last Part; and
- (b) make all necessary consequential amendments.
