An Act to amend the objects of Waikato Anglican Boys College
Trust to permit girls as well as boys to be educated at St Paul's Collegiate School

Note

Changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in this reprint.

A general outline of these changes is set out in the notes at the end of this reprint, together with other explanatory material about this reprint.

Preamble

Whereas the Waikato Anglican Boys College Trust, a Board duly incorporated under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, administers St Paul's Collegiate School at Hamilton and at Tihoi on land owned by the Board: And whereas the Trustees and the Founders of the Waikato Anglican Boys College Trust desire to admit girls to the sixth and seventh forms of the School provided that at the commencement of any School year the number of girls enrolled will not exceed one-fifth of the aggregate of the school's sixth and seventh form rolls at that time: And whereas the Board has no power to alter the objects of the Waikato Anglican Boys College Trust: And whereas it is impracticable and inexpedient for the Trustees to apply to the High Court of New Zealand for a variation of the objects of the Trust as aforesaid.

1 Short Title

This Act may be cited as the Waikato Anglican Boys College Trust Act 1987.

2 Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

Fellow of St Paul's Collegiate School means the persons who, at the commencement of this Act, have consented to become and have been appointed by the Trustees to be Fellows; and includes any persons who hereafter consent to become and are appointed by the Trustees to be Fellows

the Founders means the original signatories to the Trust Deed

the School means St Paul's Collegiate School at Hamilton and Tihoi

the Trust means the Waikato Anglican Boys College Trust

the Trust Deed means the deed dated 11 July 1957 establishing the Waikato Anglican Boys College Trust; and includes all amendments to that deed the Trustees means the trustees for the time being of the Waikato Anglican Boys College Trust.

3 Extension of objects of Trust to include education of girls

- (1) Notwithstanding anything in the Trust Deed, but subject to subsection (2), the objects of the Trust shall be deemed to extend to the teaching and education of girls as well as boys.
- (2) Except as may be otherwise determined by the Trustees in accordance with subsection (3), the admission of girls to the School shall be limited to the sixth and seventh forms, and so that the proportion of girls enrolled in the School at the commencement of any school year shall not exceed one-fifth of the aggregate of the School's sixth and seventh form rolls at that time.
- (3) The conditions specified by subsection (2) in relation to the admission of girls to the School may be altered or revoked, and new conditions may be imposed, at any time and from time to time by the Trustees with the approval of—
 - (a) three-quarters of the Founders then living; and
 - (b) three-quarters of the Fellows of St Paul's Collegiate School of at least 2 years' standing.

4 Private Act

This Act is hereby declared to be a private Act.

Notes1 General

This is a reprint of the Waikato Anglican Boys College Trust Act 1987. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the Act as at 5 May 1987, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
