Regulations

1 Title

These regulations are the Climate Change (Eligible Industrial Activities) Amendment Regulations 2022.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on 21 April 2022.

3 Principal regulations

These regulations amend the Climate Change (Eligible Industrial Activities) Regulations 2010.

4 Regulation 7 amended (Aluminium smelting)

Replace regulation 7(4)(l) and (m) with:

- (l) 2.120, which is the allocative baseline for any 2021 final allocation:
- (m) 2.005, which is the allocative baseline for any 2022 provisional allocation:
- (n) 2.005, which is the allocative baseline for any 2023 provisional allocation.

Michael Webster,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 21 April 2022, amend the Climate Change (Eligible Industrial Activities) Regulations 2010. The amendments relate to products that New Zealand Aluminium Smelters Limited produces by aluminium smelting (the products). The amendments—

- replace the 2021 provisional allocative baseline for the products with a final allocative baseline; and
- replace the 2022 provisional allocative baseline for the products; and
- provide a 2023 provisional allocative baseline for the products.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.

Date of notification in Gazette: 24 March 2022.

These regulations are administered by the Ministry for the Environment.
