Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 26 August 2022, amend the Maritime (Charges) Regulations 2014 (the principal regulations).

These regulations amend Part A of Schedule 1 of the principal regulations to enable Maritime New Zealand to charge for the time needed to issue certain types of certificates and certain statements of compliance and to verify changes to management plans relating to relevant ships.

The issuing of those certificates and statements of compliance and the verification of changes to those management plans give effect to New Zealand's international obligations following New Zealand's accession to Annex VI of the International Convention for the Prevention of Pollution from Ships, 1973, as modified by the Protocol of 1978 relating thereto (MARPOL). Annex VI of MARPOL enters into force for New Zealand on 26 August 2022.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.

Date of notification in Gazette: 7 July 2022.

These regulations are administered by the Ministry of Transport.
