Order

- 1 Title
This order may be cited as the New Zealand Railways Corporation Restructuring Order 1993.
- 2 Date on which the Crown ceased to hold 50% or more of shares in New Zealand Rail Limited
For the purposes of section 19 of the New Zealand Railways Corporation Restructuring Act 1990, 1 October 1993 is hereby specified as the date on which the Crown ceased to hold 50% or more of the ordinary shares in New Zealand Rail Limited.

Diane Wilderspin,
Acting for Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order specifies, for the purposes of section 19 of the New Zealand Railways Corporation Restructuring Act 1990, 1 October 1993 as the date on which the Crown ceased to hold 50% or more of the ordinary shares in New Zealand Rail Limited. New Zealand Rail Limited is a transferee company for the purposes of the New Zealand Railways Corporation Restructuring Act 1990.

Section 19(1) of that Act provides that every transferee company in which the Crown holds 50% or more of the ordinary shares is deemed to be a person named in Part 2 of Schedule 1 of the Ombudsmen Act 1975 and Schedule 1 of the Official Information Act 1982 and is also deemed to be a Crown entity named in Schedules 4 and 6 of the Public Finance Act 1989. Section 18 of the New Zealand Railways Corporation Restructuring Act 1990 provides for the Audit Office to be the auditor of any such company and its subsidiaries.

Section 19(2) of that Act provides that a date specified by the Governor-General by Order in Council as the date on which the Crown ceased to hold 50% or more of the ordinary shares in a transferee company shall be taken to be the date on which the Crown ceased to hold those shares.

Section 18(4) of that Act provides that on the date specified in such an Order in Council, the Audit Office ceases to be the auditor of the company and any subsidiaries and any additional auditor ceases to hold office.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 22 October 1993.

Notes1 *General

This is a reprint of the New Zealand Railways Corporation Restructuring Order 1993. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the order as at 23 October 1993, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
