Contents

1	Title	4	Powers of Crown and local authorities
2	Commencement
3	Purpose of Act

The Parliament of New Zealand enacts as follows:

1 Title

- (1) This Act is the Airport Authorities Amendment Act 2000.
- (2) In this Act, the Airport Authorities Act 1966 is called “the principal Act”.

2 Commencement

This Act comes into force on the day after the date on which it receives the Royal assent.

3 Purpose of Act

The purpose of this Act is to amend the Airport Authorities Act 1966.

4 Powers of Crown and local authorities

- (1) Section 3A(7) of the principal Act is amended by omitting the word “If”, and substituting the words “Subject to subsection (7A), if”.
- (2) Section 3A of the principal Act is amended by inserting, after subsection (7), the following subsections:

“(7A) A local authority cannot transfer to an airport company land that was vested in the local authority under the Reserves Act 1977 (or that is treated by that Act as having been vested in the local authority under that Act) unless—

“(a) the Minister has given his or her written consent to the local authority transferring the land to the airport company and the local authority has given a copy of that consent to the Registrar-General of Land; or

“(b) the Chief Surveyor of the land district within which the land is situated has given a written certificate that the vesting of the land in the local authority was not done by the Crown and the local authority has given a copy of that certificate to the Registrar-General of Land.

“(7B) In considering whether to give consent for the purposes of subsection (7A), the Minister may take into account any matters he or she considers appropriate.

“(7C) Neither this Act, nor the Reserves Act 1977, limits subsection (7B).”
