1997, No. 85

An Act to govern the taking of possession of goods by a creditor under—

- (a) A hire purchase agreement under the Hire Purchase Act 1971; or
- (b) An instrument by way of security under the Chattels Transfer Act 1924; or
- (c) A security interest under the Motor Vehicle Securities Act 1989 [14 November 1997]

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1. Short Title and commencement—(1) This Act may be cited as the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997.

(2) This Act comes into force on 1 July 1998.

PART 1

PRELIMINARY

2. Interpretation—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Amount of credit” means—

(a) The money or money’s worth provided or agreed to be provided by the creditor under the credit agreement:

(b) The money the payment of which is forborne or agreed to be forborne by the creditor under the credit agreement:

(c) The cash price of the goods (where there is an agreement to sell the goods or the debtor has an option to purchase the goods), less the following amounts:

(i) The amount of any deposit paid at or before the making of the agreement; and

(ii) The amount of any trade-in allowance agreed on:

(d) In relation to a credit agreement that secures the obligations of the debtor as guarantor under a guarantee, the amount of the debtor’s liability under that guarantee:

“Cash price”, in relation to goods sold, means—

(a) The lowest price at which a person could have purchased those goods from the creditor on the basis of payment in full at the time the agreement was made; or

(b) If there is no such price, the fair market value of those goods at the time the agreement was made:

“Court” means the High Court or a District Court that has jurisdiction under section 39 or a Disputes Tribunal that has jurisdiction under section 40:

“Credit agreement” or “agreement” means an agreement, instrument, or interest referred to in section 5:

“Creditor”—

(a) Means,—

(i) In relation to a hire purchase agreement, the vendor within the meaning of section 2 of the Hire Purchase Act 1971:

(ii) In relation to an instrument by way of security, the grantee within the meaning of section 2 of the Chattels Transfer Act 1924:

(iii) In relation to a security interest, the secured party within the meaning of section 2 of the Motor Vehicle Securities Act 1989; and

(b) Includes, if the rights of such a person are transferred by assignment (whether absolutely or by way of mortgage) or operation of law, the person for the time being entitled to those rights:

“Creditor’s agent” means a person authorised by a creditor to take possession of goods on behalf of the creditor, and includes such a person who is an employee of the creditor:

“Debtor”—

(a) Means,—

(i) In relation to a hire purchase agreement, the purchaser within the meaning of section 2 of the Hire Purchase Act 1971:

(ii) In relation to an instrument by way of security, the grantor within the meaning of section 2 of the Chattels Transfer Act 1924:

(iii) In relation to a security interest, the debtor within the meaning of section 2 of the Motor Vehicle Securities Act 1989; and

(b) Includes, if the rights of such a person are transferred by assignment (whether absolutely or by way of mortgage) or operation of law, the person for the time being entitled to those rights:

“Default” means one or more breaches of a credit agreement by the debtor sufficient, according to the terms of the agreement, to give rise to the creditor’s right to take possession of the goods:

“Goods”—

(a) Means any personal chattels (other than money or things in action) comprised in or subject to a credit agreement; and

(b) Includes any fixtures which are comprised in or subject to an instrument by way of security and which are chattels within the meaning of the Chattels Transfer Act 1924:

“Guarantor”,—

(a) For the purposes of the definition of “amount of credit”, means a person who guarantees the performance of another person’s obligations under a contract, or who indemnifies a creditor against loss which he or she may incur in respect of a contract, or who assumes liability for performing the obligations of another person under a contract:

(b) For the other purposes of this Act,—

(i) Means a person who guarantees the performance of a debtor’s obligations under a credit agreement, or who indemnifies a creditor against loss which he or she may incur in respect of a credit agreement, or who assumes liability for performing the obligations of a debtor under a credit agreement; but

(ii) Does not include a person who is the vendor of the goods comprised in or subject to a credit agreement:

(iii) Does not include a person who executes or enters into a guarantee in the ordinary course of a business carried on by him or her,— and “guarantee” has a corresponding meaning:

“Hire purchase agreement” has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Hire Purchase Act 1971:

“Holiday” has the same meaning as in section 4 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1924:

“Instrument by way of security” has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Chattels Transfer Act 1924:

“Net balance due”, in relation to a credit agreement that is a hire purchase agreement, means the amount for the time being payable in terms of that agreement to enable the debtor to acquire title to the goods after taking into account the rebates allowed by the agreement for early completion or the statutory rebates calculated in accordance with section 23 of the Hire Purchase Act 1971, whichever in the aggregate are the greater:

“Pay” includes tender:

“Post-possession notice” means a notice under section 21:

“Pre-possession notice” means a notice under section 9:

“Residential premises” means a building, or part of a building, that is a house, flat, townhouse, home unit, or similar dwelling erected, or currently used, primarily and principally as a residence, and includes any land, improvements, or appurtenances belonging to the dwelling or usually enjoyed with it:

“Security interest” has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Motor Vehicle Securities Act 1989, but excludes—

(a) The interest of the lessor in, or the power of the lessor over, a motor vehicle that is the subject of a lease:

(b) Any charge over a motor vehicle (including a floating charge) created by a company registered under the Companies Act 1993 or by a society registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1908.

3. Act binds the Crown—This Act binds the Crown.

4. Purpose of this Act—The purpose of this Act is to set out the rules that apply when a creditor takes possession of goods under a credit agreement to which this Act applies.

5. Credit agreements to which Act applies—(1) This Act applies to—

(a) Any hire purchase agreement; and

- (b) Any instrument by way of security; and
- (c) Any security interest over a motor vehicle—that is entered into on or after the date of commencement of this Act.

(2) This Act applies whether or not a credit agreement that is subject to registration under the Chattels Transfer Act 1924 or the Motor Vehicle Securities Act 1989 has been registered.

(3) This Act also applies as provided in section 51.

6. Act applies where creditor already has right to take possession, etc—(1) This Act applies where a creditor has a right to take possession of goods, or to enter premises, or to enter premises when an occupier is not present, under, or in any way in connection with, a credit agreement or by virtue of the creditor's property in the goods.

(2) This Act does not confer a right to take possession of goods, or a right to enter premises, or a right to enter premises when an occupier is not present.

(3) This Act is to be read subject to subsection (2).

PART 2

RULES THAT APPLY BEFORE POSSESSION OF GOODS IS TAKEN

7. Circumstances in which creditor can take possession—(1) A creditor must not take possession of goods unless—

- (a) The debtor is in default under the credit agreement; or
- (b) The goods are at risk.

(2) In this section and section 8, goods are “at risk” if the creditor has reasonable grounds to believe that the goods have been or will be destroyed, damaged, endangered, disassembled, removed, or concealed contrary to the provisions of the agreement; but the onus of proving the existence of those grounds is on the creditor.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 26 (1) (a)

8. Notice to be given to debtor and guarantor before taking possession of goods—(1) A creditor must serve a pre-possession notice on the debtor, and on every guarantor of the debtor, before taking possession of goods.

(2) This section does not apply if the goods are at risk within the meaning of section 7 (2).

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 26 (1) (b), (4)

9. Form of pre-possession notice—Every pre-possession notice must be in writing in the form set out in Schedule 1,—

- (a) Specifying the nature of the default; and
- (b) Requiring the debtor to remedy the default (if it is capable of being remedied) within the period specified in the notice (being a period of not less than 15 days after service of the notice on the debtor).

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 26 (1) (b)

10. Creditor must allow time to remedy default—A creditor must not take possession of goods in respect of which a pre-possession notice has been given unless—

- (a) The period for remedying the default specified in the notice has expired; and
- (b) The debtor has failed, within that period, to remedy the default complained of in so far as it is capable of being remedied.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 26 (1) (c)

11. Offences against this Part—Every person who contravenes any of sections 7 to 10 commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $3,000.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 26 (5)

12. Debtor may apply to Court for relief—A debtor may apply to a Court for relief if—

- (a) A creditor serves a pre-possession notice on the debtor; or
  - (b) A creditor has taken possession of the goods,—
- in contravention of this Act.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 26 (2)

13. Court may grant relief—(1) The Court may, having regard to—

- (a) The conduct of the parties; and
  - (b) The nature of the default; and
  - (c) Such other matters as it thinks proper,—
- grant such relief to a debtor who applies under section 12 as is reasonable, whether or not the granting of the relief involves a variation in the terms of the credit agreement.

(2) The Court may grant relief on such terms, if any, as to costs, expenses, damages, compensation, penalty, or otherwise as the Court, in the circumstances of each case, thinks fit.

(3) However, where the Court determines that any application is vexatious, it must order—

- (a) That the debtor pay to the creditor the full costs (including reasonable costs incurred between solicitor and client), fees, and other reasonable expenses incurred by the creditor in connection with the application; and

- (b) That section 23 (1) and section 30 do not apply in respect of the goods.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 26 (2), (3)

PART 3

RIGHT OF ENTRY

14. Creditor must not enter premises in unreasonable manner—A creditor or a creditor's agent must not exercise a right to enter premises in a manner that is unreasonable.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 27 (1)

15. Creditor must not enter residential premises at prohibited time—(1) The following are prohibited times for the purposes of this section:

- (a) Outside the hours of 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Mondays to Saturdays; or
 (b) Any time on a Sunday; or
 (c) Any time on a holiday.

(2) A creditor or a creditor's agent must not exercise a right to enter residential premises at a prohibited time unless the debtor consents in writing to the entry of those premises at a prohibited time.

(3) The consent is not valid unless it is given—

- (a) After the default has occurred; and
 (b) Before the creditor or creditor's agent arrives at the premises with a view to taking possession of the goods.

(4) The consent is not valid if the creditor or creditor's agent seeks it in person at a prohibited time at any residential premises.

16. Certain persons disqualified from taking possession of goods—(1) The following are disqualified persons for the purposes of this section:

- (a) Any person who has been convicted within the preceding 5 years of any offence involving violence against the person, or of any crime involving dishonesty within the meaning of section 2 of the Crimes Act 1961:
 (b) Any person on whom there has been imposed, at any time, a sentence of imprisonment for a term of 10 years or more or a sentence of imprisonment for life:

(c) Any person who has been released from a penal institution within the preceding year.

(2) Every disqualified person commits an offence, and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000, who, being a creditor or a creditor's agent,—

(a) Enters, or attempts to enter, any premises for the purpose of taking possession of any goods or for any other purpose in connection with any goods; or

(b) Takes, or attempts to take, possession of any goods.

(3) Any creditor or creditor's agent who enters, or attempts to enter premises, is, for the purpose of this section, presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to be entering for the purpose of taking possession of goods or for another purpose in connection with goods.

17. Documents to be produced on entry—Every creditor or creditor's agent who exercises a right of entry of premises must, on first entering the premises if anyone is present, and, if requested, at any subsequent time, produce—

(a) A copy of the pre-possession notice (unless one was not required under section 8 (2)); and

(b) In the case of a creditor's agent, evidence reasonably capable of establishing the person's authority to take possession of the goods on behalf of the creditor; and

(c) In the case of an entry outside the hours specified in section 15, the debtor's written consent to the exercise of the right of entry.

18. Entry if occupier not present—(1) This section applies if a creditor or creditor's agent enters premises for the purpose of taking possession of goods, or for any other purpose in connection with goods, when the occupier of the premises is not present.

(2) The creditor or creditor's agent must, before leaving the premises, leave a notice in writing in a prominent place—

(a) Specifying that the premises have been entered and the date of entry; and

(b) Containing an inventory of any goods of which possession has been taken; and

(c) Accompanied by a copy of the documents referred to in section 17 (a) to (c).

(3) The creditor or creditor's agent must take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure that the premises are not left obviously open.

19. Offence to obstruct taking possession of goods—Every person commits an offence against this Act, and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 who wilfully and forcibly obstructs a creditor or a creditor's agent who is lawfully exercising any power to take possession of goods.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 26 (6)

PART 4

RULES THAT APPLY AFTER POSSESSION OF GOODS IS TAKEN

20. Notice to be given to debtor and guarantor after taking possession of goods—A creditor must serve a post-possession notice on the debtor, and on every guarantor of the debtor, within 21 days of taking possession of goods.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 28 (1)

21. Form of post-possession notice—Every post-possession notice must be in writing in the form set out in Schedule 2.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 28 (1)

22. Consequences of not giving post-possession notice—If a post-possession notice is not served as required by this Act,—

- (a) The costs of taking possession of the goods must be borne by the creditor; and
- (b) The creditor is not entitled to recover those costs from the debtor or the guarantor.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 28 (2)

23. Creditor must not sell goods until 15 days after post-possession notice—(1) Where a creditor has taken possession of any goods, the creditor must not, without the consent in writing of the debtor obtained after possession of the goods has been taken, sell or dispose of the goods or part with possession of the goods (except for the purposes of storage or repair) until after the expiry of 15 days from the date of service of the post-possession notice on the debtor.

(2) This section applies except as provided in an order under section 13 (3) (vexatious applications).

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 28 (3)

24. Consequences of selling within 15 days of post-possession notice—If the creditor contravenes section 23,—

- (a) The liability of the debtor for anything other than—
  - (i) The amount of credit under the credit agreement; or
  - (ii) Where the agreement secures the performance of some obligation other than the payment of money, the performance of that obligation,— is extinguished; and
- (b) The creditor must repay any money already paid to the creditor by any person on account of, or in satisfaction of, any amount in respect of which liability is extinguished by paragraph (a).

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 28 (4)

25. Creditor must sell goods 15 days after post-possession notice—(1) The creditor must offer the goods for sale after the expiration of 15 days from the date of service of the post-possession notice on the debtor.

- (2) This section does not apply if—
  - (a) The debtor reinstates the agreement under section 28; or
  - (b) The debtor introduces a buyer under section 30 and the buyer completes the purchase of the goods; or
  - (c) The debtor settles the agreement under section 31; or
  - (d) The Court determines otherwise in an order under section 13 (3) (vexatious applications).

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 28 (5)

26. Rules relating to sale by creditor—(1) Any sale by a creditor may be by auction or public tender or a private sale but, in any case, the creditor must ensure that every aspect of the sale, including the manner, time, place, and terms, is commercially reasonable and, in particular, must use all reasonable efforts to obtain the best price.

(2) Unless the goods are perishable or threaten to decline speedily in value, the creditor must give the debtor reasonable notice of—

- (a) The time and place of any proposed offering of the goods for sale by public auction, and of the existence and amount of any reserve price;
- (b) Any proposed offering of the goods for sale by public tender.

(3) The creditor and the debtor are each entitled to bid at any public auction or, where the goods are offered for sale by public tender, to submit tenders, as the case may require, and if the creditor is the successful bidder or tenderer, the goods, for the purposes of this Act, are deemed to have been sold for the amount of the creditor's bid or tender.

(4) The onus of proving that the goods have been sold in accordance with this section is on the creditor.

(5) Subsection (1) does not apply if—

- (a) The debtor introduces a buyer under section 30 and the buyer completes the purchase of the goods; or
- (b) The debtor forces sale under section 32.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 28 (6)–(9)

27. Debtor may obtain valuation of goods before sale—

(1) The debtor is entitled to obtain, at the debtor's expense, 1 valuation of the goods as at the time possession was taken by the creditor.

(2) The rules relating to valuations are as follows:

- (a) The valuation may take place at any time after the creditor takes possession of the goods, but before the creditor sells or agrees to sell the goods in accordance with this Act:
- (b) The debtor must request access to the goods by giving reasonable notice to the creditor:
- (c) The creditor must permit the debtor's valuer such access to the goods as is reasonably necessary to enable the valuation of the goods to take place:
- (d) The debtor's valuer must carry out the valuation at a reasonable time:
- (e) The debtor's valuer has no right to remove the goods unless the creditor gives consent to the removal:
- (f) The debtor may accompany his or her valuer when the valuation takes place.

28. Debtor's right to reinstate agreement—(1) The debtor may, at any time after the creditor has taken possession of the goods and at any time before the creditor sells or agrees to sell the goods in accordance with this Act, reinstate the agreement by—

- (a) Paying to the creditor the amount required to reinstate the agreement or, where the agreement secures the performance of an obligation other than the payment of money, performing any accrued obligations; and
- (b) Remedying any default in so far as it is capable of being remedied.

(2) In this section,—

- (a) The "amount required to reinstate the agreement" means the aggregate of—

(i) Any amounts which have fallen due for payment under the credit agreement and have not been paid, including, without limitation, interest and other charges, but excluding, where the agreement provides that the total amount of credit falls due for payment immediately on the debtor's default, that part of the amount of credit which would not have fallen due but for that provision; and

(ii) The reasonable costs and expenses of the creditor of and incidental to taking possession of, holding, storing, repairing, maintaining, valuing, and preparing for the sale of, the goods and of returning them to the order of the debtor; and

(iii) The costs reasonably and actually incurred by the creditor in doing any act, matter, or thing necessary to remedy any default by the debtor:

(b) "Accrued obligations" means any obligations which have fallen due for performance under the credit agreement and have not been performed.

(3) This section applies except as provided in an order under section 13 (3) (vexatious applications).

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 29 (1) (a), (2)

29. Consequences of reinstating agreement—(1) Where the right to reinstate the agreement is exercised under section 28,—

(a) Upon the receipt of the required amount, or confirmation of the performance of the accrued obligations and the default being remedied, the creditor must forthwith return the goods to the debtor; and

(b) The debtor is deemed to receive and hold the returned goods pursuant to the terms of the credit agreement as if the default had not occurred and the creditor had not taken possession of the goods.

(2) Where the goods are returned to the debtor pursuant to subsection (1) (a) and a particular default has not been remedied, the creditor does not have any right, arising out of that default, to take possession of the goods unless,—

(a) By notice in writing served on the debtor at the time of the return of the goods, the creditor specifies the default and requires it to be remedied; and

(b) The debtor fails to remedy the default within a period to be specified in the notice (being a period of not less than 14 days after the service of the notice on the debtor).

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 29 (1) (a), (3)

30. Debtor's right to introduce buyer—(1) The debtor may, at any time after the creditor has taken possession of the goods and at any time before the creditor sells or agrees to sell the goods in accordance with this Act, require the creditor to sell the goods to any person introduced by the debtor who is prepared to purchase the goods for cash at a price not less than the estimated value of the goods set out in the post-possession notice served on the debtor.

(2) This right may be exercised by giving to the creditor a notice in writing signed by the debtor, or his or her agent.

(3) This section applies except as provided in an order under section 13 (3) (vexatious applications).

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 29 (1) (b)

31. Debtor's right to settle agreement—(1) The debtor may, at any time after the creditor has taken possession of the goods and at any time before the creditor sells or agrees to sell the goods in accordance with this Act, settle the debtor's obligations under the credit agreement—

- (a) By paying to the creditor the amount required to settle the agreement; or
  - (b) Where the agreement secures the performance of an obligation other than the payment of money, by performing that obligation.
- (2) In this section, "the amount required to settle the agreement"—

- (a) Means, in the case of a hire purchase agreement, the net balance due; and
- (b) Means, in the case of any other agreement, the balance of the amount of credit outstanding, together with any interest and charges payable under the agreement; and
- (c) Includes the reasonable costs and expenses of the creditor of and incidental to taking possession of, holding, storing, repairing, maintaining, valuing, and preparing the sale of, the goods and of returning them to the order of the debtor; and
- (d) Includes the costs reasonably and actually incurred by the creditor in doing any act, matter, or thing necessary to remedy any default by the debtor.

- (3) Where the right to settle the agreement is exercised,—
- (a) Upon the receipt of that amount, or confirmation of the performance of that obligation, the creditor must forthwith return the goods to the debtor; and
  - (b) The agreement terminates, with the rights and obligations of the parties to it satisfied.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 30

32. Debtor's right to force sale—(1) If the goods have not been sold within 3 months, the debtor may either—

- (a) Apply to the Court for an order directing the sale of the goods, within such time and upon such conditions as the Court thinks fit; or
  - (b) Require the creditor to put the goods up for sale by public auction.
- (2) The period of 3 months commences with the date on which the creditor takes possession of the goods.
- (3) Upon application under this section, the Court may make such order as it thinks fit.
- (4) The following rules apply to a sale required under subsection (1) (b):
- (a) The debtor must require the sale by notice in writing to the creditor, signed by the debtor or the debtor's agent; and
  - (b) The auction must be held within 2 months after the date that notice is given; and
  - (c) The auction must be in such manner as may be agreed between the creditor and the debtor, and, failing agreement, in such manner as may be approved by a Registrar of the District Court; and
  - (d) The creditor must give the debtor reasonable notice of the time and place of the auction; and
  - (e) The creditor and the debtor are each entitled to bid at the auction; and
  - (f) There must be no reserve price.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 31

33. Creditor to give statement of account to debtor—Where goods are sold pursuant to section 26 or section 32, the creditor must, within 10 days after the sale of the goods, give the debtor a statement of account in writing, showing—

- (a) The amount of the gross proceeds of sale;
- (b) The amount of the costs and expenses of and incidental to the sale:

- (c) The amount required to settle the agreement under section 31 as at the date of the sale:
- (d) The balance owing by the creditor to the debtor, or by the debtor to the creditor, as the case may be.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 32

34. Debtor's right to refund—(1) If the net proceeds of sale exceed the amount required to settle the agreement under section 31 as at the date of the sale, the debtor is entitled to recover the amount of the excess from the creditor.

(2) The debtor must commence proceedings for recovery of the excess within 6 months after the statement of account is given to the debtor under section 33, otherwise the excess is not recoverable.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 33

35. Limit on creditor's right to recover from debtor—If the net proceeds of sale are less than the amount required to settle the agreement under section 31 as at the date of the sale, the creditor is not entitled to recover more than the balance left after deducting those proceeds from that amount (whether under a judgment or otherwise).

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 34

36. Court may vary existing judgments or orders when goods are repossessed—In any legal proceedings in relation to a credit agreement, after the creditor has taken possession of the goods, the Court before which such proceedings are brought may vary or discharge any judgment or order of any Court (whether a District Court or not) against the debtor for recovery of money so far as is necessary to give effect to the provisions of sections 34 and 35.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 35

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

37. Power of Court to extend times—Any time prescribed by this Act for the service or giving of any notice or other document or for the commencement of any proceedings may, on an application made to the Court (either before or after the expiration of that time but after notice to the other party to the agreement), be extended by that Court for such further period, and upon such conditions, as the Court thinks fit.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 45

38. Service of notices—(1) Any notice or other document required or authorised by this Act to be served on or given to any person must be in writing and is sufficiently served or given if—

- (a) It is delivered to that person; or
- (b) It is left at that person's usual or last known place of abode or business or at an address specified for that purpose in the agreement; or
- (c) It is posted in a letter addressed to that person by name at that place of abode or business or address.

(2) If the person is absent from New Zealand, the notice or other document may be served on or given to the person's agent in New Zealand.

(3) If the person is deceased, it may be served on or given to the person's personal representatives.

(4) If the person is not known, or is absent from New Zealand and has no known agent in New Zealand, or is deceased and has no personal representatives, the notice or other document must be served or given in such manner as may be directed by an order of the Court.

(5) If any such notice or other document is sent to any person by registered letter, it is deemed to have been delivered to the person on the 4th day after the day on which it was posted, and in proving the delivery it is sufficient to prove that the letter was properly addressed and posted.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this section, the Court may in any case make an order directing the manner in which any notice or other document is to be served or given, or dispensing with the service or giving thereof.

(7) This section does not apply to notices or other documents served or given in any proceedings in any Court.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 46

39. Jurisdiction of District Courts—A District Court has jurisdiction to exercise any of the powers conferred by any of the provisions of this Act in any case where—

- (a) The occasion for the exercise of the power arises in the course of any civil proceedings properly before the Court; or

- (b) The total amount in respect of which an order of the Court is sought is not more than $200,000; or
- (c) The parties agree, in accordance with section 37 of the District Courts Act 1947, that a District Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the application.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 47

40. Jurisdiction of Disputes Tribunals—(1) A Disputes Tribunal established under the Disputes Tribunals Act 1988 has jurisdiction to exercise the powers conferred on a Court by any of the provisions of this Act in any case where, subject to this section, the total amount in respect of which an order of the Tribunal is sought is not more than $3,000.

(2) Subject to this section, an order of a Disputes Tribunal under any of the provisions of this Act must not—

- (a) Require a person to pay an amount exceeding $3,000:
- (b) Declare a person not liable to another for an amount exceeding $3,000:
- (c) Vest any goods exceeding $3,000 in value in any person:
- (d) Direct the transfer or assignment or delivery of possession of goods the value of which exceeds $3,000,— and an order of a Tribunal that exceeds any such restriction is entirely of no effect.

(3) Where, in respect of any proceedings properly before a Disputes Tribunal, the jurisdiction of the Tribunal has been extended under an agreement made pursuant to section 13 of the Disputes Tribunals Act 1988, subsections (1) and (2) of this section are to be read as if every reference in those subsections to $3,000 were a reference to $5,000.

(4) Any reference in this section to $3,000 is, if a greater amount is from time to time specified in section 10 of the Disputes Tribunals Act 1988, to be read as a reference to that greater amount.

(5) The reference in subsection (3) of this section to $5,000 is, if a greater amount is from time to time specified in section 13 of the Disputes Tribunals Act 1988, to be read as a reference to that greater amount.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 47A

41. Offences to be punishable on summary conviction—(1) Every offence against this Act is punishable on summary conviction.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in section 14 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957, any information in respect of any offence against this Act may be laid at any time within 2 years after the time when the matter of the information arose.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 49

42. No contracting out except for certain business transactions—(1) The provisions of this Act have effect notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any credit agreement.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) applies to a credit agreement made between a creditor and a debtor who—

(a) Acquires, or holds himself or herself out as acquiring, under the agreement, the goods for the purposes of a business; or

(b) Uses, or holds himself or herself out as using, the goods for the purposes of a business,— provided that—

(c) The credit agreement is not a hire purchase agreement; and

(d) The contracting out provision is part of the credit agreement at the time when the credit agreement is made; and

(e) The credit agreement is in writing.

(3) Section 56 of the Sale of Goods Act 1908 is to be read subject to the provisions of this section.

(4) Every creditor commits an offence against section 13 (i) of the Fair Trading Act 1986 who purports to contract out of any provision of this Act other than in accordance with subsection (2).

(5) In this section, “business” has the same meaning as in the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993.

Cf. 1993, No. 91, s. 43

43. Application of law relating to illegal contracts—The fact that an act which contravenes any of the provisions of this Act has been committed in the course of the performance of any contract does not—

(a) Make that contract illegal; or

(b) Except as expressly provided in this Act, make that contract or any provision of that contract unenforceable or of no effect.

Cf. 1971, No. 147, s. 52

44. Power to amend forms—The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, add to or omit anything from any form in a Schedule of this Act, or otherwise amend any such form, or revoke any Schedule and substitute a new one.

PART 6

AMENDMENTS TO OTHER ENACTMENTS

45. Amendments to Chattels Transfer Act 1924—Section 50 of the Chattels Transfer Act 1924 is amended by adding, as subsection (2), the following subsection:

“(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where clause 7 of the Fourth Schedule is implied in an instrument by way of security to which the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997 applies, the powers in that clause are to be read subject to that Act and are deemed to be modified to take account of the requirements of that Act.”

46. Amendment to Insolvency Act 1967—The Insolvency Act 1967 is amended by repealing section 91, and substituting the following section:

“91. Goods on hire purchase—(1) In this section,—

“(a) The terms ‘cash price’, ‘debtor’, ‘goods’, and ‘creditor’ have the same meanings as in section 2 of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997:

“(b) The terms ‘purchaser’ and ‘hire purchase agreement’ have the same meanings as in section 2 of the Hire Purchase Act 1971.

“(2) Subsection (3) applies where a debtor who is the purchaser of any goods comprised in a hire purchase agreement is adjudged bankrupt and the creditor has taken possession of the goods within 21 days before the adjudication and the creditor has not sold or disposed of the goods before adjudication or if the creditor takes possession of the goods after adjudication.

“(3) The creditor must not, without the consent in writing of the Assignee, sell or dispose of the goods or part with possession of the goods (except for the purposes of storage or repair) until after the expiration of 1 month from the date on which the creditor serves on the Assignee the notice required to be served on debtors under section 20 of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997.

“(4) Notwithstanding anything in the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997, the Assignee may,—

“(a) At any time within 1 month from the date of the service on the Assignee of the notice mentioned in subsection (3), exercise the right to introduce a buyer conferred by section 30 of that Act; or “(b) At any time before the creditor sells or agrees to sell the goods pursuant to section 25 of that Act, settle the obligations of the debtor in accordance with section 31 of that Act.

“(5) If a creditor has, either before or after the adjudication of the debtor, taken possession of any goods comprised in a hire purchase agreement and the Assignee has not exercised, in relation to the goods, the powers conferred on the Assignee by subsection (4), the creditor may prove in bankruptcy for the amount which (having regard to the provisions of section 35 of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997) the creditor might have recovered from the debtor, and in any such event the creditor must lodge with the creditor’s proof of debt the post-possession notice mentioned in section 20 and the statement of account mentioned in section 33 of that Act, and the Assignee has the rights conferred on debtors by sections 20 to 36 of that Act.

“(6) The creditor may assign the goods to the Assignee if, at the time of the adjudication of a debtor who is the purchaser of any goods comprised in a hire purchase agreement, the creditor has not taken possession of the goods, or has taken possession of the goods and not sold or disposed of or parted with possession of them, and in that event the creditor is entitled to prove for the net balance due to the creditor under the agreement.”

47. Amendments to Hire Purchase Act 1971—(1) Section 22 (5) of the Hire Purchase Act 1971 is amended by omitting the words “section 30 of this Act”, and substituting the words “section 31 of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997”.

(2) Section 24 of the Hire Purchase Act 1971 is amended by repealing subsection (4), and substituting the following subsection:

“(4) The vendor must, unless he or she elects to regard the goods as still having a value that is not less than 80% of the cash price, sell the goods in accordance with section 26 of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997, and sections 33 to 35 of that Act apply accordingly with such modifications as are necessary. If the vendor elects to regard the goods as having a value that is not less than 80% of the cash price, he or she must, within 14 days after the termination of the agreement, serve on the purchaser a statement in accordance with section 33 of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997, which must set out, instead of the items mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of that section, the value which the vendor attributes to the goods.”

(3) The Hire Purchase Act 1971 is amended by—

- (a) Omitting from section 24 (5) the words “sections 26 to 35 of this Act”, and substituting the words “sections 7 to 36 of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997”; and
- (b) Omitting from section 24 (5) the words “other than subsection (2) of section 33”, and substituting the words “other than section 34 (2)”; and
- (c) Omitting from section 24 (6) the words “sections 26 to 35 of this Act”, and substituting the words “sections 7 to 36 of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997”; and
- (d) Repealing sections 26 to 35, and substituting the following section:

“26. Repossessions—The Credit (Repossession) Act 1997 applies in relation to the repossession of goods comprised in a hire purchase agreement.”; and
- (e) Omitting from subsections (1) and (2) of the section 47A the expression “sections 10 (1) and 26 (2)”, and substituting the expression “section 10 (1)”; and
- (f) Repealing the Third and Fourth Schedules.

48. Amendment to Credit Contracts Act 1981—The Second Schedule of the Credit Contracts Act 1981 is amended by adding to Part I the following:

“You have the right to apply to the Court for relief under section 12 of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997 if goods are supplied under a credit contract to which that Act applies and either—

- “(a) The creditor serves a pre-possession notice on you; or
- “(b) The creditor takes possession of the goods without serving a pre-possession notice on you, or otherwise takes possession,— in contravention of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997.”

49. Amendment to Disputes Tribunals Act 1988—The First Schedule of the Disputes Tribunals Act 1988 is amended by inserting, in its appropriate alphabetical order, the following item:

“Credit (Repossession) Act 1997”.

50. Amendments to Income Tax Act 1994—(1) Section FC 10 (5) of the Income Tax Act 1994 is amended by omitting the expression “paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 30 (2) of the Hire Purchase Act 1971”, and substituting the expression “paragraphs (c) and (d) of section 31 (2) of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997”.

(2) Section OB 1 of the Income Tax Act 1994 is amended by omitting from the definition of “lessee’s outstanding balance”, and from the definition of “lessor’s outstanding balance”, the expression “paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 30 (2) of the Hire Purchase Act 1971”, and substituting in both places the expression “paragraphs (c) and (d) of section 31 (2) of the Credit (Repossession) Act 1997”.

51. Transitional provision relating to existing hire purchase agreements—(1) This Act also applies to any hire purchase agreement entered into before the commencement of this Act.

(2) However, this Act does not apply to any repossession commenced before the commencement of this Act, and the Hire Purchase Act 1971 continues to apply as if this Act had not been passed.

(3) A repossession is deemed to have commenced if a notice has been served under section 26 of the Hire Purchase Act 1971 or possession of goods has been taken in contravention of that section.

NOTES

1. You have the right to apply to a Court for relief if a creditor has served a pre-possession notice on you or has taken possession of goods in contravention of the Act. In most cases, the application can be made to a Disputes Tribunal.

2. You may, at any time until the creditor sells or agrees to sell the goods, reinstate the agreement or introduce a cash buyer who will pay not less than the creditor's estimate of the value of the goods, i.e., †..... Within a period of 15 days after service of this notice, the vendor may not dispose of the goods without your written consent.

3. You may, at any time before the creditor sells or agrees to sell the goods, settle the agreement.

4. The creditor is not obliged to sell the goods by public auction or public tender, but if the creditor does, you are entitled to reasonable notice of—

- The time and place of any proposed offering of the goods for sale by public auction, and of the existence and amount of any reserve price:
- Any proposed offering of the goods for sale by public tender. This does not apply if the goods are perishable or threaten to decline speedily in value.

5. You are entitled, at any time after the creditor takes possession of the goods but before the creditor sells or agrees to sell the goods, to obtain a valuation of the goods at your expense. The creditor must give you or your valuer access to the goods to enable the valuation to be completed.

6. At any offering of the goods for sale by public auction or public tender, you are entitled to bid or tender for them.

7. If the creditor does not sell the goods within 3 months of taking possession, you may—

- Apply to the Court for an order directing the sale of the goods; or
- Require the creditor to put them up for sale by public auction without reserve.

8. Within 10 days after the sale of the goods, whether by auction or otherwise, the creditor is required to give you a statement of account which will show whether you are entitled to a refund or whether you are still indebted to the creditor in respect of the credit agreement.

9. If you are entitled to a refund and the creditor does not pay it to you, you must, if you wish to recover it, sue the creditor within 6 months after you are given the statement of account.

DO NOT DELAY

Action to enforce your rights should be taken at once. At the end of 15 DAYS after the service of this notice, the creditor is free to sell the goods, if you have not reinstated or settled the agreement or introduced a cash buyer who will pay not less than the creditor's estimate of the value of the goods.

If you are in doubt about what you should do, you should seek advice at once.

NOTES—

1. Where this notice is sent to a guarantor it must be endorsed at the top of the notice as follows—

This notice is sent to you as guarantor of .....

As guarantor you have certain rights and obligations and you should seek advice at once.

2. If the Court has already made an order relating to the repossession of the goods under section 13 (3) of the Act, then this notice must be amended to delete the rights that the Court has ordered are not to apply.

* Delete whichever is inapplicable      † Insert creditor's estimate of value.
