on importation into New Zealand, or on being cleared from any warehouse for home consumption, the several duties of Customs specified and set forth in the said Schedule; and the articles mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act shall be exempt from any Customs duties on the importation thereof into New Zealand.

3. The duties of Customs imposed by this Act shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid under the provisions of "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858," and "The Customs Regulation Act Amendment Act, 1868," and subject also to all such provisions and regulations as may for the time being be in force for the collection, management, and receipt of the duties of Customs in the Colony of New Zealand; and all fines, forfeitures, penalties, and charges recoverable under this Act may be recovered and applied in the manner directed by "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858," and "The Customs Regulation Act Amendment Act, 1868."

4. The provisions of "The Customs Tariff Act, 1866," "The Customs Tariff Act, 1873," and "The Customs Tariff Act, 1878," not inconsistent with or expressly altered by or under this Act, shall be read with and as part of this Act.

5. The Collector or proper officer of Customs may make and retain copies of invoices produced to him as the genuine and original invoices of goods chargeable with ad valorem duty, and he may refuse to accept, in verification of the value of such goods, invoices made out or prepared by any partner, broker, agent, clerk, or servant of the importer thereof.

6. If any person makes, or sends, or brings into New Zealand, or causes or authorizes the making, sending, or bringing into New Zealand of any invoice or paper, used or intended to be used as an invoice for Custom's purposes, wherein any goods are entered or charged at a less price or value than that actually charged or intended to be charged for them, no price or sum of money shall be recoverable by such person, or by any person claiming through or under such person, for the price or on account of the purchase of such goods or any part of them, or on any bill of exchange, note, or other security (unless in the hands of an innocent holder for value without notice), made, given, or executed for the price of, or on account of, the purchase of such goods, or any part of such price; and the production or proof of the existence of any other invoice, account, document, or paper made or sent by the same person, or by his authority, wherein the same goods or any of them are charged or entered at or mentioned as bearing a greater price than that set upon them in any such invoice as first above mentioned, shall be prima facie evidence that such first-mentioned invoice was intended to be fraudulently used for Customs purposes; but such intention, or the actual fraudulent use of such invoice, may be proved by any other legal evidence.

7. Subject to the provisions of "The Drawbacks Act, 1872," and "The Drawbacks Act Amendment Act, 1873," a drawback of the duties paid on any of the goods specified in the First Schedule of "The Drawbacks Act Amendment Act, 1873," may be paid and allowed on the exportation of such goods to any port or place out of New Zealand, in the same proportion to the rates of duties for the time being payable under this or any Act hereafter to be passed for altering the duties of Customs as the rates specified in that Schedule bore to the duties chargeable at the time of the passing of "The Drawbacks Act Amendment Act, 1873."

8. The provision contained in the ninth section of "The Customs Tariff Act, 1866," so far as it applies to holloware, hardware, and ironmongery, is hereby repealed.

Provisions of "The Customs Tariff Act, 1866," and "The Customs Tariff Act, 1873," and "The Customs Tariff Act, 1878," not inconsistent herewith, to apply.

Customs may make copies of invoices.

No person making or authorizing a false invoice of any goods shall recover any part of the price thereof.

Evidence of fraud.

Drawback of duty, not exceeding current rates, may be allowed on exportation of certain articles.

Provision of ninth section of "The Onstoms Tariff Act, 1866," repealed in respect of hardware. İ-
