“PART IVA

“APPEAL FROM DECISION OF CHILDREN’S COURT

“34A. Interpretation—In this Part of this Act the term ‘child’ includes any person dealt with by a Children’s Court under section 32 of this Act.

“34B. Appeal by child—(1) Where a Children’s Court finds a charge of any offence proved against any child, the child may appeal to the Supreme Court against the finding or against any sentence or order of the Children’s Court based on that finding or against both the finding and any such sentence or order.

“(2) No appeal against any such finding may be brought until the child has been sentenced or otherwise dealt with:

“Provided that, where the child is not sentenced or otherwise dealt with within one month after the date of the finding, an appeal against the finding may be brought under subsection (1) of this section as if he had been sentenced or otherwise dealt with at the expiration of one month after the date of the finding:

“Provided further that, where in any case to which the first proviso to this subsection applies the child has not appealed against the finding in accordance with that proviso, he may appeal against the finding after he has been sentenced or otherwise dealt with.

“(3) Where on the hearing of any complaint an order is made committing any child to the care of the Superintendent or placing any child under the supervision of a Child Welfare Officer, the child may appeal to the Supreme Court against the order.

“34C. Appeal by parents—(1) Where—

“(a) On the hearing of any charge against a child a Children’s Court makes an order committing him to the care of the Superintendent or an order placing him under the supervision of a Child Welfare Officer and providing that the child is to be detained in an institution for any period; or

“(b) On the hearing of any complaint in respect of a child a Children’s Court makes an order committing him to the care of the Superintendent or an order placing him under the supervision of a Child Welfare Officer (whether or not the order provides that the child is to be detained in an institution for any period),— any parent or guardian of the child, or any person who has been acting in the place of a parent, may appeal to the Supreme Court against the order.

“(2) Where pursuant to subsection (2) of section 24 of the Child Welfare Amendment Act 1927 any parent of a child is ordered to pay any costs or damages incurred by or through any offence committed by the child, the parent may appeal to the Supreme Court against the order.

“34D. Appeal by persons other than children dealt with in Children’s Court—(1) Any person, other than a child, who is convicted in a Children’s Court of any offence may appeal to the Supreme Court against the conviction or against any sentence of the Children’s Court based on the conviction or against both the conviction and any such sentence.

“(2) No appeal against the conviction may be brought under this section until the person convicted has been sentenced or otherwise dealt with.

“34E. Appeal on a point of law only—Where any charge or complaint has been determined by a Children’s Court, any person who under section 34B or section 34c or section 34D of this Act is entitled to appeal against the determination and the informant or the complainant, as the case may be, may, if dissatisfied with the determination as being erroneous in point of law, appeal to the Supreme Court by way of case stated for the opinion of that Court on a question of law only.

“34F. Application of Part IV of Summary Proceedings Act 1957—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act, the provisions of Part IV of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 (including the other provisions of that Act which are applied in that Part), as far as they are applicable and with the necessary modifications,—

“(a) So far as they relate to general appeals, shall apply with respect to every appeal under section 34B or section 34c or section 34D of this Act:

“(b) So far as they relate to appeals on points of law only by way of case stated, shall apply with respect to every appeal under section 34E of this Act.

“(2) In the application of the provisions of the said Part IV as aforesaid, those provisions shall be read as if—

“(a) References to a Magistrate’s Court were references to a Children’s Court; and

- “(b) The Registrar of the Magistrate’s Court nearest to the Children’s Court in which the case was heard and determined were the Registrar of that Children’s Court; and
- “(c) References to a Magistrate or Justice or Justices (except the reference thereto in section 50 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957, the first reference thereto in section 54 of that Act, the first reference thereto in subsection (2) of section 125 of that Act, and the first reference thereto in section 126 of that Act) were references to a Magistrate or Justice exercising jurisdiction in a Children’s Court.

“34G. Effect of notice of appeal on committal order or supervision order with detention—(1) The operation of any order committing a child to the care of the Superintendent, or of any order placing a child under the supervision of a Child Welfare Officer and providing that the child is to be detained in an institution for any period, shall not be affected by the filing of a notice of appeal relating to the order, unless the Magistrate or Justice who presided over the Court making the order or, if that Magistrate or Justice is not available, some other Magistrate or Justice exercising jurisdiction in a Children’s Court, on application by the appellant, directs that the operation of the order shall be suspended pending the determination of the appeal. Notice of any application or direction under this subsection shall be given by the Registrar to the Superintendent.

“(2) Where a direction is given under subsection (1) of this section in respect of any order placing a child under the supervision of a Child Welfare Officer, the term of the order shall cease to run from the date of the direction or, if the child is then detained in an institution, from the day the child is released pursuant to the direction.

“34H. Proceedings not open to public—The provisions of section 30 of this Act, with the necessary modifications, shall apply to the hearing in the Supreme Court of any appeal against a decision of a Children’s Court.

“34I. Presence of child at hearing of appeal—(1) On the hearing of any appeal relating to an order committing a child to the care of the Superintendent or placing a child under the supervision of a Child Welfare Officer and providing that the child is to be detained in an institution for any period, not being an appeal on a question of law only, the child, if he is then under the care of the Superintendent or is detained in an institution pursuant to the order, shall be entitled to be present unless the Supreme Court otherwise directs.

“(2) On the hearing of any such appeal on a question of law only, the child, if he is then under the care of the Superintendent or detained in an institution pursuant to the order, shall not be entitled to be present except with the leave of the Supreme Court.

“(3) Where under this section a child is entitled to be present in the Supreme Court on the hearing of any appeal, the person having custody of him may, without further authority than this subsection, cause him to be taken to the Supreme Court for the hearing.

“(4) Where any appeal relating to a child is made under this Part of this Act, the Supreme Court may order that the child shall be present at the hearing. If the child fails to attend in accordance with the order, any constable or Child Welfare Officer may, without further authority than the order, bring him before the Court.

“34j. Presence of parents at hearing of appeal—(1) Where any appeal relating to a child is made under this Part of this Act, the Supreme Court may order that any parent or guardian of the child, or any person who has been acting in the place of a parent, shall be present at the hearing, and may further order that that parent, guardian, or other person shall bring the child with him; and the Registrar of that Court shall notify every person so ordered to be present of the time and place at which he is required to attend.

“(2) If any person fails to attend at the Supreme Court in accordance with an order made under subsection (1) of this section, the Court may issue a warrant to arrest him and bring him before the Court.

“(3) At the hearing of any appeal under this Part of this Act relating to a child, any parent or guardian of the child, or any person who has been acting in the place of a parent, may be examined in respect of the upbringing and control of the child.

“34k. Notification of appeal and result of appeal to Superintendent—(1) Where any appeal under this Part of this Act relates to an order committing a child to the care of the Superintendent or placing a child under the supervision of a Child Welfare Officer, an additional copy of the notice of appeal shall be filed, and the Registrar shall forthwith deliver or post that copy to the Superintendent.

“(2) Where the decision of the Supreme Court on any such appeal has been given, the Registrar of the Supreme Court shall send to the Superintendent a certificate setting out the result of the appeal.

“(3) Where under section 107 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 (as applied to appeals under this Part of this Act) a Magistrate or Justice has certified that any such appeal has not been prosecuted, the Registrar of the Magistrate’s Court shall send that certificate to the Superintendent. Where any such appeal has been dismissed for non-prosecution, the Registrar of the Supreme Court shall send a certificate to that effect to the Superintendent.

“34L. No Court fees payable on appeals—No Court fees shall be payable in any Court in respect of any appeal under this Part of this Act.”

3. Right of appeal from decision of Children’s Court before commencement of this Act—(1) Where, after the first day of April, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight (being the date of the commencement of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957), and before the date of the commencement of this Act, a Children’s Court has found a charge of any offence proved against any person, the provisions of this Act shall apply:

Provided that—

- (a) Where that person has been sentenced or otherwise dealt with by the Children’s Court before the date of the commencement of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall apply as if he had been sentenced or otherwise dealt with on that date:
- (b) Where the date of the finding was more than one month before the date of the commencement of this Act and that person, being at the date of the finding a child within the meaning of Part IVA of the principal Act (as inserted by section 2 of this Act), has not been sentenced or otherwise dealt with by the Children’s Court before the date of the commencement of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall apply as if the date of the finding were one month before the date of the commencement of this Act.

(2) Where before the date of the commencement of this Act any appeal has been made to the Supreme Court from a decision of a Children’s Court but has not been determined by the Supreme Court, the appeal shall be heard and determined by the Supreme Court as if this Act had been in force when the notice of appeal was given.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to confer on any person any further right of appeal to the Supreme Court from a decision of a Children's Court where before the commencement of this Act an appeal to the Supreme Court against that decision has been determined by the Supreme Court on the merits.
