

New Zealand

Title.	ANALYSIS
Preamble. 1. Short Title. 2. Interpretation. 3. Council may acquire land for subdivision. 4. Council may subdivide and road lands.	5. Council may sell building allotments to workers. 6. Price of allotments. 7. Council may sell surplus land. 8. Borrowing-powers. 9. Moneys to be paid into separate fund.

1945, No. 5—Local and Personal

Title.	AN ACT to enable the Dunedin City Council to acquire, subdivide, and develop Lands suitable for Housing; to provide Amenities for the Same; and to sell Building Allotments to Workers for the Purpose of Housing Construction. [24th October, 1945
Preamble.	WHEREAS there are in the City of Dunedin areas of land which it is desirable should be made available for subdivision into building allotments in view of the prevailing acute shortage of dwellinghouses, but which for divers reasons are unlikely to be made available otherwise than in pursuance of the exercise of the powers by this Act conferred upon the Dunedin City Council: And whereas it is desirable for the development of the City of Dunedin and for the benefit of the citizens thereof that the said Council should have power to acquire for subdivision such land as in the opinion of the said Council may be conveniently acquired and developed, and afterwards to sell the same for the purpose of housing construction:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Dunedin City Empowering Act, 1945. Short Title.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— Interpretation.

“ City ” means the City of Dunedin:

“ Council ” means the Dunedin City Council:

“ Principal Act ” means the Municipal Corporations Act, 1933:

“ Worker ” includes every person, male or female, who is employed in work of any kind or who is resident or desires to become resident in the City of Dunedin.

3. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the principal Act or in any other Act, the Council may from time to time purchase, or take under the Public Works Act, 1928, any area or areas of land within the city which in the opinion of the Council may be conveniently acquired for the purpose of subdivision into building allotments and development. Council may acquire land for subdivision.

(2) The acquisition of land for the purpose of this Act shall be deemed a public work within the meaning of the Public Works Act, 1928.

4. In respect of any such land acquired as aforesaid the Council may subdivide or resubdivide the same into suitable building allotments and construct roads and streets thereon, and may, for the purpose of developing the land as building allotments, exercise all the powers conferred upon local authorities by virtue of the principal Act or any other enactment conferring powers upon local authorities. Council may subdivide and road lands.

5. The Council is hereby authorized to sell the said building allotments upon such terms as the Council shall in its absolute discretion think proper to workers desirous of building thereon for the personal occupation of themselves and their families. The Council may in its discretion refuse to sell to any person without giving reasons for its refusal. Council may sell building allotments to workers.

6. The prices to be charged by the Council to workers for the building allotments as aforesaid shall be calculated so as to return to the Council the actual cost of the land to the Council and the development Price of allotments.

thereof (including survey fees), plus the further sum of five pounds per centum to cover administrative charges:

Provided that it shall not be competent for any person to question the price put upon any building allotment by the Council:

Provided also that nothing in this section shall derogate from the provisions of the Servicemen's Settlement and Land Sales Act, 1943.

Council may sell surplus land.

7. The Council may sell any land which in the opinion of the Council is surplus to any scheme of subdivision or unsuitable for the purposes of this Act to such persons and upon such terms as the Council may think fit.

Borrowing-powers.

8. The Council may, by special order and without taking the steps prescribed by sections nine to thirteen of the Local Bodies' Loans Act, 1926, raise a special loan for any of the purposes hereinbefore mentioned:

Provided, however, that the Council shall not be empowered to borrow a greater sum than fifty thousand pounds pursuant to the authority hereby granted.

Moneys to be paid into separate fund.

9. (1) All moneys raised pursuant to the authority granted by section eight hereof shall be paid into a separate fund to be known as the District Development Fund (hereinafter referred to as the said Fund), and shall not form part of the general revenues of the Council.

(2) The cost of acquisition of any land and the development thereof for the purposes of this Act shall be paid out of the said Fund, and all moneys received from the sale of land so acquired shall be paid into the said Fund.

(3) Surplus moneys from time to time standing to the credit of the said Fund shall be applied by the Council only for the purpose of supplementing any sinking fund established in connection with the loan hereinbefore authorized or, alternatively, in and towards the purchase and development of other lands for the purposes authorized by this Act.

(4) Moneys belonging to the District Development Fund shall be kept in a separate account at the bank.