1969, No. 32

An Act to amend the Electricity Distribution Commission Act 1967

[15 September 1969]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Electricity Distribution Commission Amendment Act 1969, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Electricity Distribution Commission Act 1967 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Restriction on supply authorities in respect of charges to corporations of cities, boroughs, and counties—The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 36, the following section:

“36A. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other enactment or rule of law, where a supply authority supplies electricity in bulk for resale to the corporation of any city, borough, or county, the price or tariff charged to the corporation for the electricity shall not be greater than the aggregate of—

- (a) The tariff charged for the electricity by the New Zealand Electricity Department to the supply authority that supplies the electricity; and

(b) A further sum or tariff sufficient to meet the actual cost incurred by that supply authority in delivering the electricity to the corporation:

Provided that, where on the 21st day of October 1966 (being the date of the commencement of the Electricity Amendment Act 1966) the price or tariff charged by a supply authority to a corporation was in excess of the said aggregate, the amount of the excess shall be reduced by equal annual amounts during the period of not more than five years commencing with the 1st day of April 1967 until no such excess exists.”
