AN ACT to amend "The Harbour Boards Act, 1870." Title.
[31st August, 1874.]

WHEREAS by the fourteenth section of "The Harbour Boards Act, 1870," (hereafter referred to as "the said Act,") it is enacted that all fees fines dues charges rents and other moneys whatsoever, which shall be paid to or leviable or received by any such Harbour Board as in the said Act referred to, shall be applicable and applied by such Board towards the payment of all expenses properly or necessarily incurred in carrying the said Act into execution, and of doing and performing all acts and things which such Board is or shall be by the said Act empowered or required to do or perform : Preamble.

And whereas doubts are entertained whether it is competent for Provincial Legislatures to authorize Harbour Boards constituted under Ordinances of such Legislatures passed in pursuance of the said Act to apply the moneys mentioned in the said fourteenth section to purposes other than those therein specified, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed :

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Harbour Boards Act Amendment Act, 1874;" and this Act shall be read and construed as part of the said Act. Short Title.

2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the said fourteenth section of the said Act, the Provincial Legislature of every pro- Provincial Councils declared to have had power to authorize
