Title.

AN ACT to provide for the Appointment of Commissioners in case of the Resignation of the whole of the Trustees of a separate Institution. [25th September, 1891.]

Short Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—
1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Hospital Trustees Act, 1891.”

It shall be read together with “The Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, 1885.”

Appointment of Commissioners in case of resignation of Trustees.

2. In case all the Trustees of a separate institution shall resign, so that the functions thereof cannot be exercised, the Governor may appoint any persons whom he may think fit as Commissioners to exercise the functions of the Board, and such Commissioners shall be deemed to be the Board of the district for which they were appointed, and shall exercise all the powers, functions, and authorities, and shall have all the responsibilities and liabilities, of a Board under “The Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, 1885,” and any amendments of the said Act. And such appointments shall be deemed to have been made as from the date upon which the resignations of the said Trustees were received by the Clerk of the said institution.
