1906, No. 40.

- Title. AN ACT to amend "The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1905." [29th October, 1906.]
- BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—
- Short Title. 1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act Amendment Act, 1906"; and it shall form part of and be read together with "The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1905" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act").
- Appointment of Judge of Court. 2. (1.) The Governor may from time to time appoint some fit person to be Judge of the Court.
- (2.) No person shall be eligible for such appointment unless he is eligible to be a Judge of the Supreme Court.
- (3.) The Judge so appointed shall, as to tenure of office, salary, emoluments, and privileges (including superannuation allowance), have the same rights and be subject to the same provisions as a Judge of the Supreme Court, and shall be deemed to be included in the First Schedule to "The Promissory Oaths Act, 1873."
- (4.) The Governor may from time to time appoint the Judge of the Court to be a temporary Judge of the Supreme Court if and whenever upon the certificate of the Chief Justice it appears that judicial assistance is required.
- (5.) In case of the illness or unavoidable absence of the Judge at any time the Governor shall appoint some Judge of the Supreme Court to act as Judge of the Court during such illness or absence.
- Remuneration of members of the Court. 3. (1.) There shall be paid to each member of the Court, other than the Judge, the annual sum of five hundred pounds, in addition to such travelling-expenses as are prescribed by regulations.

(2.) Paragraph (h) of section one hundred and twenty-two of the principal Act is hereby repealed so far as the same relates to members of the Court.

4. The Governor may from time to time appoint some fit person to be Registrar to the Court, who shall be paid such salary as the Governor thinks fit, and shall be subject to the control and direction of the Court.

Registrar to the Court.

5. This Act shall be deemed a permanent appropriation Act of the salaries of the Judge and members of the Court.

Act a permanent appropriation of salaries.

6. All references in the principal Act and any other Act, or in any award or order of the Court, to the President of the Court shall hereafter be construed as references to the Judge of the Court.

Application of certain references.

7. On the first appointment of a Judge of the Court under section two hereof, subsections two and three of section sixty-five of the principal Act (and also all such provisions of that Act as relate to the President's term of office and as are inconsistent with this Act) shall be deemed to be repealed; but, until such appointment is made, the President appointed under the aforesaid subsection two and now in office shall continue to act as President in the same manner and with the same consequences in all respects as if this Act had not been passed.

Tenure of office of President.
