pal Act repealed.

All claims, water-races, dams, reservoirs, machine-, business, and Enactment in lieu residence-sites, tenements, and easements held, occupied, or enjoyed under any Act repealed by the said Act shall, from and after the commencement of the said Act, be and be deemed to be held, occupied, and enjoyed under the said Act in so far only as the said Act is consistent with the Acts or regulations made thereunder, and under which the said rights and privileges were granted, and all questions of title to the said rights and privileges shall be determined under the Act and regulations in force at the time when the said rights and privileges were granted; and all fees and charges payable in respect thereof shall not exceed those fixed either by Act or regulations in force at the time the said rights and privileges were granted.

3. At Every Warden's office there shall be a register kept by the Register to be kept Mining Registrar for the registration of all claims and other mining for each district. rights.

From and after the passing of this Act no license or other document to hold any claim or other mining right shall be issued to any person previous to the registration thereof, and the payment of the prescribed registration fee.

Fine may be paid in lieu of forfeiture.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act or this Act, the Warden may in any case, on sufficient cause being shown, substitute a monetary fine in lieu of forfeiture, and may allow thereout a sufficient sum to defray any reasonable expenses incurred by the plaintiff, if any, in the prosecution of his suit.

5. Any person or persons shall with the consent of a Warden

Construction of head-races and other mining rights under, or over, or through other constructed head-races and mining rights. 5. Any person or persons shall, with the consent of a Warden, be entitled to construct a head-race, tail-race, or flood-race, or drive any tunnel under or over or through any constructed head-race, tail-race, flood-race, or tunnel, or through any machine-, business-, or residence-site, provided it does not interfere with the proper working of the same, and that compensation shall be allowed for estimated damage (if any); and the amount of such compensation shall, if necessary, be decided by arbitration.

Validation of mining rights, notwithstanding miners' rights not renewed. 6. Any claim, water-license, lease, or other mining right granted under the said Act, or any Act for the time being in force for the administration of goldfields, shall be of full force and effect, notwithstanding the owners thereof may not have been the continuous holders of miners' rights, water-licenses, leases, or other mining rights from the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven: Provided that nothing herein contained shall validate the title to any claim, water-license, lease, or other mining right where the owner or owners of such claim, water-license, lease, or mining right have failed to take out a miner's right within three months of the expiry of the miners' rights previously issued to them; nor shall the provision apply to any claim, water-license, lease, or other mining right the subject of litigation at the time of the passing of this Act.

Definition of clause 142 of principal Act. Same only to apply to drainage areas. 7. Subsection two of section one hundred and forty-two of the said Act shall only apply to drainage areas, and nothing in the said Act contained shall be read and construed as preventing the construction of dams across the natural streams situate in any mining district.

Providing how moneys to be paid for lands resumed in certain cases. 8. The following words shall be read and construed as an addition to section forty-six of the said Act:—

Provided further that, on the recommendation of the Minister, the Colonial Treasurer may pay one moiety of the compensation, including costs, if any, payable for lands resumed, out of the goldfields revenue of the district, or other revenues derived from such district in respect of mining.

Fees for water-race licenses.

9. There shall be payable in advance for every water-race license the sum of five shillings, and a fee of one shilling for registration of the license previous to its issue, and a like fee for the renewal of such registration in each year.

As to licenses in exchange for previous leases. 10. Every license granted under section one hundred and eighty-three of the said Act in exchange for a previously-existing lease shall be for the unexpired term only of such lease, and shall entitle the holder thereof to the same rights and privileges as he had under the lease which has been exchanged for such license; but the Warden may, on the application of the lessee, grant such license for such other period as the Warden shall think fit, not exceeding twenty-one years inclusive of the said unexpired term, but in every such case the license shall be granted subject to the provisions of "The Mining Act, 1886."

Nothing contained in section one hundred and eighty-seven of the said Act shall be construed to supersede any of the provisions of this section in relation to licenses granted in exchange for leases
