1923, No. 43.

Title. AN ACT to amend the Municipal Corporations Act, 1920.

[29th August, 1923.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Municipal Corporations Amendment Act, 1923, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

Councillors may travel without charge on municipal tramways.

2. It shall be, and be deemed at all times heretofore to have been, lawful for the Council to permit the Mayor or any Councillor to travel without charge on any tramway or other service established for the conveyance of passengers and conducted by the Council.

Council may acquire motor-cars, &c., for use of Mayor and Councillors in performance of official duties.

3. The Council may hire, or may acquire and maintain, motor-cars or other means of conveyance for use in the performance by the Mayor and Councillors of their official duties.

Council may publish handbooks, &c.

4. The Council may, with the prior approval of the Minister, from time to time prepare and publish handbooks, abstracts, or other publications containing information and matters of interest relative to the history, administration, or affairs of the borough.
