1901, No. 53.

Title. AN ACT to amend "The Military Pensions Act, 1866," and to extend the Provisions of "The Military Pensions Extension to Contingents Act, 1900," so as to include the Sixth and Seventh Contingents. [7th November, 1901.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title. 1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Military Pensions Act, 1901"; and it shall form part of and be read together with "The Military Pensions Extension to Contingents Act, 1900" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act").

Pension payable to mother who is not a widow. 2. The annual allowance payable under section twelve of "The Military Pensions Act, 1866," shall be payable to the mother of any officer, non-commissioned officer, or private, as therein mentioned, who is not a widow, in any case where her husband is incapable through infirmity or incapacity of earning his livelihood and she is otherwise lawfully entitled to such allowance.

Extension of principal Act to Sixth and Seventh Contingents. 3. The persons whose names are set forth in the Schedule hereto shall be deemed to be members of the forces enrolled by the Government for service in South Africa, and the provisions of the principal Act are hereby extended to such persons accordingly.
