1971, No. 151

An Act to amend the law relating to Maoris and Maori Land, and for other purposes [17 December 1971]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Maori Purposes Act 1971.

Amendments to Maori Affairs Act 1953

2. Appointment of general agent by transferee of shares in Maori incorporation—The Maori Affairs Amendment Act 1967 is hereby amended by inserting, after section 41, the following section:

“41A. (1) Upon the lodging with an incorporation for registration of a share transfer in favour of the Maori Trustee, or any other State Loan Department or the Crown, or at any time thereafter, the transferee may give notice to the incorporation that some person named in the notice, being the transferor or his personal representative, shall be the general agent of the shareholder in respect of the shares, and the incorporation shall note the register accordingly by adding to the entry relating to the shares concerned the name and address of the person so named together with words indicating that he has been appointed under this section as the general agent of the shareholder in respect of those shares.

“(2) The shareholder may at any time by notice to the incorporation cancel the appointment of a general agent and the incorporation shall delete from the register the note made in relation thereto.

“(3) Where any person is shown in the share register as having been appointed under this section as the general agent of the shareholder in respect of any shares, all notices in relation to those shares shall be sent to both that person and the shareholder.

“(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (8) of section 63 of this Act, every person holding office as such a general agent may attend and vote at any meeting of the shareholders in the same manner and to the same extent as if he were the duly appointed proxy of the shareholder for that meeting in respect of those shares but that person shall have no other powers in respect of those shares.”

3. Status of Maori incorporation land on winding up—(1) Section 65 of the Maori Affairs Amendment Act 1967 is hereby amended by adding to subsection (5) the words “and may, if it considers this expedient, by the order declare the land to be Maori freehold land within the meaning of the principal Act, when the land shall for all purposes be and be deemed to be Maori freehold land accordingly.”

(2) Section 65 of the Maori Affairs Amendment Act 1967 is hereby further amended by inserting, after subsection (5), the following subsection:

“(5A) Where the Court has made an order under subsection (5) of this section but has not made any such declaration the Court may, on the application of the shareholders in whom the land is vested and whether or not the order was made before or after the commencement of the Maori Purposes Act 1971, declare that land to be Maori freehold land within the meaning of the principal Act, when the land shall for all purposes be and be deemed to be Maori freehold land accordingly.”

Amendment to Maori Reserved Land Act 1955

4. Trust for Auckland and Onehunga Hostels Endowment—Section 89 of the Maori Reserved Land Act 1955 is hereby amended by adding to subsection (1) the following paragraph:

“(d) The making of grants towards the provision and maintenance (including the payment of existing debts) of any marae, community centre, sports ground, or cultural centre, or other centre of a similar nature, which in the Maori Trustee’s opinion is or will be principally or substantially used by Maoris or the descendants of Maoris.”

Amendments to Maori Trustee Act 1953

5. Payment by Maori Trustee to New Zealand Maori Council—Section 32 of the Maori Trustee Act 1953 is hereby amended by inserting, after subsection (1A), the following subsection:

“(1B) The Maori Trustee shall in every financial year pay out of the General Purposes Fund to the New Zealand Maori Council established by the Maori Welfare Act 1962 the sum of $5,000, and may in any financial year pay to the Council from the Fund such additional sum or sums (if any) as he in his absolute discretion may determine:

“Provided that the payments made pursuant to this section shall not, in any one financial year, exceed in total the sum of $10,000.”

6. Maori Trustee may bar small claims—The Maori Trustee Act 1953 is hereby amended by inserting, after section 48, the following section:

“48A. (1) Where any person claims, or the Maori Trustee believes a person may claim, to recover from the Maori Trustee any money, chattels, or things under $1,000 in value, as estimated by the Maori Trustee, and the Maori Trustee rejects the claim or desires to reject the claim, the Maori Trustee may serve upon the person by whom or on whose behalf the claim is made, or may be made, a notice in writing calling upon such person to take legal proceedings within a period of 3 months to establish or enforce the claim and also to prosecute the proceedings with all due diligence.

“(2) If the proceedings are not commenced by such person within the said period, the claim shall thereupon be barred, and the money, chattels, or things shall become irrecoverable, and the Maori Trustee may proceed to administer and distribute the estate disregarding the claim.

“(3) This section shall apply to every such claim, whether arising or made before or after the commencement of this section, and whether the claim is or may be made by any person as creditor or next of kin or beneficiary or otherwise.

“(4) The powers given by this section shall be in addition to the powers conferred by section 75 of the Trustee Act 1956.”

7. Miscellaneous amendments to Maori Trustee Act 1953—The Maori Trustee Act 1953 (as amended by section 7 (1) of the Decimal Currency Act 1964) is hereby amended in the manner indicated in the Schedule to this Act.

Amendment to Maori Trust Boards Act 1955

8. Maori Trust Board may accept trusts—The Maori Trust Boards Act 1955 is hereby amended by inserting, after section 24B (as inserted by section 3 of the Maori Trust Boards Amendment Act 1962), the following section:

“24c. Notwithstanding anything in any other provision of this Act, a Board may accept and hold or otherwise deal with any property upon trust for the benefit of the Board’s beneficiaries or any of them or for the benefit of any group of persons which includes any such beneficiaries. Any property held by a Board pursuant to this section shall be dealt with in accordance with the terms of the trust and shall not constitute an asset of the Board for the general purposes of this Act."

Amendments to Maori Welfare Act 1962

9. Direct representation of Maori Committee on District Maori Council—The Maori Welfare Act 1962 is hereby amended by inserting, after section 10, the following section:

"10A. (1) A District Maori Council may at any time, by resolution, determine that a designated Maori Committee shall have direct representation to the District Maori Council and shall, in such case, fix the manner and extent of the representation. Any such Maori Committee shall thereupon be subject in all things to the control of the District Maori Council as if the Council were a Maori Executive Committee, and the Council shall have such of the powers of a Maori Executive Committee as the Council determines.

"(2) A determination under subsection (1) of this section may at any time in like manner be varied or revoked."

10. Maori Council Districts—(1) Section 14 of the Maori Welfare Act 1962 is hereby amended by repealing subsection (1), and substituting the following subsection:

"(1) The New Zealand Maori Council may at any time by resolution declare any specified part of New Zealand to be a Maori Council District for the purposes of this Act and may assign a name by which the District shall be known."

(2) Section 14 of the Maori Welfare Act 1962 is hereby further amended by repealing subsection (4), and substituting the following subsection:

"(4) The New Zealand Maori Council may at any time by resolution alter the boundaries of any Maori Council district or amalgamate two or more districts or constitute a new district over part of an existing district, and may at the same time amend the name of any district or assign a new name thereto."

11. Election of Maori Committees—Section 19 of the Maori Welfare Act 1962 is hereby amended by adding the following subsection:

"(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act or of any regulations made under this Act, where the members of any Maori Committee (being a committee revived after being in recess) will have been in office for less than 6 months on the date fixed by this section for the election of Maori Committees, no election of members of that Committee shall be held on that date if the District Maori Council concerned has by resolution determined that no such election be held and, in such case, the members of that committee in office on that date shall continue in office as if they had been elected on that date.”
