1888, No. 5.—Local.

AN ACT to authorise the Leasing of a certain Unused Portion of a Public Cemetery at Ngaruawahia. Title.
[28th August, 1888.]

WHEREAS all that parcel of land described in the Schedule hereto, containing thirteen acres one rood and thirty-seven perches has been set apart and reserved as a public cemetery for the Town District of Ngaruawahia: And whereas the limits of the said cemetery are far larger than at present required for interments, and the said cemetery being divided by the railway-line into two unequal portions, the smaller of such portions would suffice for the present for interments, and it would be advantageous if the Trustees of the said cemetery were authorised to lease for a term of years the larger portion of the cemetery in order to the raising a revenue therefrom to be applied to the improvement and ornamentation of the aforesaid smaller portion thereof: And whereas the portion of the cemetery desired to be leased has not at any time heretofore been used for interments: Preamble.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Ngaruawahia Cemetery Reserve Leasing Act, 1888.” Short Title.

2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in “The Public Reserves Act, 1881,” or “The Cemeterics Act, 1882,” the Trustees for the time being of the Ngaruawahia Public Cemetery, as the same is described in the Schedule to this Act, may from time to time lease all such portion of the said cemetery as lies to the southwest of the line of railway which runs through the said cemetery. Trustees may let unused part of cemetery.

3. Every such lease shall be for any term not exceeding fourteen years without covenant for renewal, shall be disposed of by public auction or by public tender, and shall be offered at such upset price, and on such other terms, as the aforesaid Trustees shall think fit: Provided that no compensation for buildings or other improvements of any kind erected or made upon any part of the cemetery so leased Terms and conditions of lease.

shall be payable by the Trustees aforesaid to any lessee thereof or other person at the expiration of any lease granted under this Act.

Application of rents.

4. All the rents, profits, and proceeds from time to time received by the Trustees aforesaid in respect of the portion of the cemetery authorised to be leased under this Act shall be applied by the said Trustees, in and towards the improvement and ornamentation of the other portion of the same cemetery under their control, and to no other purpose whatsoever.

Schedule.
