Title. AN ACT to amend the National Parks Act 1952.
[26 October 1955]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short Title. 1. This Act may be cited as the National Parks Amendment Act 1955, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the National Parks Act 1952 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

1952, No. 54

Offence to discharge firearms into National Park.

2. Section fifty-four of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after subsection two, the following subsection:

“(2A) Every person commits an offence against this Act who, without being authorized by the Board, discharges any firearm into a Park or who, from outside a Park, shoots at any bird or animal or any other object or thing inside a Park with any weapon or other instrument, and, where any person is found discharging a firearm in contravention of this subsection, the provisions of subsection nine of this section shall apply in respect of that firearm in all respects as if it were illegally in the possession of that person in the Park.”

3. The principal Act is hereby amended as follows:

- (a) By omitting from subsection five of section nine the words "The Sounds (Fiordland) National Park", and substituting the words "The Fiordland National Park":
- (b) By omitting from subsection five of section ten the words "Sounds (Fiordland) National Park" wherever they occur, and substituting in each case the words "Fiordland National Park":
- (c) By omitting from subsection one of section eleven the words "Sounds (Fiordland) National Park", and substituting the words "Fiordland National Park":
- (d) By omitting from subsection one of section sixty-two the words "Sounds (Fiordland) National Park" wherever they occur, and substituting in each case the words "Fiordland National Park":
- (e) By omitting from the Fifth Schedule and also from the Seventh and Eighth Schedules the words "Sounds (Fiordland) National Park", and substituting in each case the words "Fiordland National Park".
