1960, No. 24

An Act to amend the Servants' Registry Offices Act 1908
[7 October 1960]

Am. 196
No. 8.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Servants' Registry Offices Amendment Act 1960, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Servants' Registry Offices Act 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Miscellaneous amendments as to licences—The principal Act is hereby amended in the manner indicated in the Schedule to this Act.

3. Duration of licence—The principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing section 5, and substituting the following section:

“5. (1) Every licence, unless sooner cancelled, shall continue in force for one year, but may, at the discretion of the Chief Inspector, be renewed from year to year on application therefor to the Inspector and payment of an annual fee of five shillings.

“(2) If the Chief Inspector refuses to renew the licence, he shall give notice of his refusal to the licence holder setting out the grounds for his refusal, and the licence holder may, within fourteen days after the date of notification to him of the decision, appeal to a Magistrate’s Court.

“(3) On the hearing of any such appeal the Court may either confirm or reverse the decision appealed against.

“(4) The decision of the Court on any appeal under this section shall be final and conclusive.

“(5) Every appeal under this section shall be made and dealt with by way of originating application, on notice, under the rules of procedure for the time being in force under the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1947, and the provisions of those rules shall apply accordingly.”

4. Cancellation of licence on conviction of licence holder—Section 18 of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the following subsection as subsection (2) thereof:

“(2) Where any person, being a licence holder, is convicted of an offence against this section, the Court, in addition to imposing any penalty for the offence, may make an order cancelling the licence, and thereupon the licence holder shall deliver up the licence to the Court for cancellation, and the Registrar shall forward the cancelled licence to the Inspector.”
