1903, No. 42.

AN ACT to extend the Currency and Time for Payment of Treasury Bills. Title.
[11th November, 1903.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Treasury Bills Extension Act, 1903.” Short Title.

2. (1.) In lieu of the limit of time prescribed by section two of “The Public Revenues Act, 1893,” for the currency and payment of Treasury bills, it is hereby declared that for all the purposes of that Act Treasury bills may from time to time be issued or renewed by the issue of Treasury bills of a like amount, having a currency not exceeding twelve months from the date of issue or renewal, and payable in either case not later than the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten. Limit of time for issue or renewal of Treasury bills extended.

(2.) Section three of “The Public Revenues Acts Amendment Act, 1898,” is hereby repealed. Repeal.
