which other Automobile Associations in New Zealand would similarly be able to merge should they in the future desire so to do: And whereas pursuant to the said agreement it has been further agreed by and between the 3 said Associations first, that AA Wellington alter its name to the Automobile Association (Central) Incorporated and alter its rules to provide appropriately for the constitution and operation of that Association following the merger, such alterations to take effect on the 1st day of September 1980 and, secondly, that on and after the 1st day of September 1980 AA Hawke's Bay and AA Manawatu be wound up voluntarily, their members then becoming members of AA Central, and their assets transferred to AA Central: And whereas in furtherance of the said agreements, AA Wellington by resolution of its members in general meeting on the 29th day of October 1979 resolved to alter its name to the Automobile Association (Central) Incorporated and to alter its rules to provide for the merger as aforesaid, such alterations to take effect on the 1st day of September 1980: And whereas in furtherance of the said agreements AA Hawke's Bay by resolution of its members in general meeting on the 13th day of November 1979 approved the proposed merger with AA Central and the vesting of its assets in AA Central on and after the 1st day of September 1980 and in order to give effect thereto resolved pursuant to section 24 (1) of the Incorporated Societies Act 1908 that the Association be wound up voluntarily and that resolution was confirmed at a subsequent general meeting called together for that purpose on the 18th day of December 1979: And whereas in furtherance of the said agreements AA Manawatu by resolution of its members on the 19th day of November 1979 resolved that the Association be wound up on the 31st day of August 1980 for the purposes of the said merger and that the Association's assets be then transferred to AA Central and that resolution was confirmed at a subsequent general meeting called together for the purpose on the 4th day of January 1980: And whereas neither AA Hawke's Bay nor AA Manawatu has complied with those provisions of the Companies Act 1955 which are applicable to the winding up of an incorporated society by virtue of section 24 (2) of the Incorporated Societies Act 1908 and regulation 8 (3) of the Incorporated Societies Regulations 1979: And whereas it is appropriate that the windings up of AA Hawke's Bay and AA Manawatu should be deemed not
