Money appropriated for irrigation and water-supply defined.

£100,000 may be raised for promoting settlement in arid territory.

16. Out of the vote for irrigation and water-supply, in Class XIX, Public Works Fund, the Minister of Public Works may from time to time, as he thinks fit,—

- (a.) Construct, purchase, or otherwise acquire water-races, water rights, and other works for irrigation and water- 5 supply in connection with or in aid of the mining and agricultural industries:
- (b.) Maintain, carry on, and utilize such works:
- (c.) Enter into contracts, execute instruments, incur liabilities, and generally do whatever he deems necessary in order to 10 give full effect to this section.

17. (1.) For the purpose of assisting in opening up and developing lands for settlement in arid territory, the Minister of Finance is hereby empowered to raise, on the security of and charged upon the revenues of New Zealand, such sums of money, not exceed- 15 ing in the whole the sum of one hundred thousand pounds, as he thinks fit.

(2.) The sum so raised shall bear interest at such rate, not exceeding four and a half per centum per annum, as the Minister of Finance prescribes.

(3.) This Act shall be deemed to be an authorizing Act within the meaning of the New Zealand Loans Act, 1908, and the moneys herein authorized to be raised shall be raised under and subject to the provisions of that Act accordingly.

(4.) All moneys raised under the authority of this section shall, 25 as and when raised, be paid into the Public Account to the credit of the Public Works Fund, and shall from time to time, without further appropriation than this Act, be applied by the Minister of Public Works for the purposes mentioned in the last preceding section hereof in addition to any sums expended out of the vote referred to 30 in that section.

18. Whereas in laying out and forming roads in respect of lands subject to the Land for Settlements Act, 1908, it has been found necessary to acquire portions of adjoining lands for the purpose of providing road access: Be it therefore enacted that all moneys so 35 expended shall be deemed to be moneys payable out of the Land for Settlements Account, and shall be payable accordingly under the appropriation contained in section eighty-two of that Act.

19. When any of the votes specified in the Schedules hereto contains an item under any title which does not specifically appro-40 priate expenditure for any particular purpose, such item shall be deemed to be an appropriation for expenditure on purposes other than those of the other items of the vote.

20. Any moneys payable into the Public Account may, with the authority of the Minister of Finance, be lodged for credit of that 45 account with such Postmasters as the Postmaster-General authorizes to receive such moneys; and the amount of such lodgments shall be paid into the Public Account by the Postmaster-General at such times as the Minister of Finance directs.

SIXTH SCHEDULE.

SUBSIDIES TO LOCAL AUTHORITIES.

Counties.

1. To the Council of each county wherein there are no road districts,-

- (a.) When the general rates so collected by the County Council do not exceed a total sum of £1,000, then a sum equal to 10s. for every £1 of such rates :
- (b.) When the general rates so collected exceed a total sum of £1,000, then a sum equal to 5s. for every £1 of such rates; provided that no lesser sum than £500 nor greater sum than £2,500 shall be paid under this paragraph (b) to any such Council.

2. In respect of counties when there are road districts,—

(c.) To the Board of each road district in the county if the Counties Act is not in full force—if the Counties Act is in full force, then to each Road Board and the County Council in equal parts,—

(i.) When the general rates actually collected by the Road Board in the road district do not exceed a total sum of £500, then a sum equal to 10s. for every $\pounds 1$ of such rates :

(ii.) When the general rates so collected exceed a total sum of £500, then a sum equal to 5s. for every £1 of such rates; provided that no lesser sum than £250 nor greater than £500 shall be paid under this sub-paragraph (ii) to any such Road Board :

Provided that if any road district does not collect rates, the county may claim the payment on behalf of that road district if the county collects rates within the road district :

(d.) To the County Council,---

(iii.) When the general rates actually collected by the County Council in the outlying districts of the county do not exceed a total sum of $\pounds 500$, then a sum equal to 10s. for every $\pounds 1$ of such rates :

(iv.) When the general rates so collected exceed a total sum of £500, then a sum equal to 5s. for every £1 of such rates; provided that no lesser sum than £250 nor greater than £500 shall be paid in any one year under this subparagraph (iv) to any such Council.

3. Where a road district or part of a road district is merged in a county, and becomes a riding or part of a riding, the same rate of subsidy for the year during which the merger occurs shall be paid to the County Council on account of such riding or part of a riding as would have been payable had such merger not occurred.

4. No greater sum in all than $\pounds 2,500$ shall be paid in respect of any county and its road districts; and when the total amount of subsidy that would be payable in respect of the total amount of general rates collected as aforesaid exceeds $\pounds 2,500$, then the total amount of subsidy to be payable to the Road Boards and County Council shall be apportioned pro rata according to the amount of general rates collected as aforesaid by such Road Boards and the County Council respectively.

Town Districts.

To each Town Board,-

- (a.) When the general rates actually collected do not exceed a total sum of £750, a sum equal to 5s. for every £1 of such rates:
- (b.) When the general rates so collected exceed a total sum of £750, then a sum equal to 2s. 6d. for every £1 of such rates; provided that no lesser sum than £187 10s. nor any greater sum than £450 shall be paid under this paragraph (b) to any Town Board.

By Authority : JOHN MACKAY, Government Printer, Wellington.-1911.
