A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to annex a Portion of the Auckland Domain to the Grounds of the Auckland Hospital. Title.

WHEREAS the lands described in the Schedule hereto are vested in Her Majesty as part of the public domain at Auckland, and it is desirable that they should be annexed to the grounds of the Auckland Provincial Hospital, in order the better to secure the isolation of the fever-ward of the said hospital, and to provide a more complete boundary of such grounds: And whereas the Council of the City of Auckland having the control of the aforesaid domain have, by letter dated the twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, consented to such annexation: Provided that the said lands should be used for the purposes of planting or ornamentation only: Preamble.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Auckland Hospital Reserves Act, 1890." Short Title.

2. The lands described in the Schedule hereto are hereby vested for an estate in fee-simple in the Auckland Hospital and Charitable Aid Board, under "The Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, 1885," for the purposes of the Auckland Provincial Hospital, subject to the said Act, and subject also that the said lands shall be used only for the purposes of planting and ornamentation.
