A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to impose Duties of Customs and to amend the Customs Acts. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

- 1. This Act may be cited as the Customs Amendment Act, 1927, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Customs Act, 1913 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act). Short Title.
- 2. In the Customs Acts, unless the context otherwise requires,— Interpretation.
 - “British Preferential Tariff” means the rates of duties and the exemptions from duty set forth in the column numbered one in the First Schedule hereto, and includes any modification thereof made in accordance with the Customs Acts :
 - “General Tariff” means the rates of duties and the exemptions from duty set forth in the column numbered two in the First Schedule hereto, and includes any modification thereof made in accordance with the Customs Acts :
 - “British dominions” includes British protectorates, and any territory for the time being subject to a mandate conferred on His Majesty by the League of Nations.

Abolition of existing duties.

3. All duties of Customs and all exemptions from such duties imposed or allowed under the several enactments or other authorities enumerated in the Second Schedule hereto are hereby abolished.

Application of British Preferential and General Tariffs.

4. Upon the coming into operation of this Act and thereafter while this Act remains in force, but subject to any provisions of the Customs Acts as to the alteration of duties,— 5

(a) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all goods being the produce or manufacture of some part of the British dominions and imported into New Zealand or entered therein for home consumption after the commencement of this Act the rates of Customs duties (if any) set forth in the British Preferential Tariff; and 10

(b) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all goods being the produce or manufacture of a country not being part of the British dominions and imported into New Zealand or entered therein for home consumption after the commencement of this Act the rates of Customs duties (if any) set forth in the General Tariff. 15

Ratification of certain resolutions imposing duties and allowing exemptions.

5. (1) Every resolution of the House of Representatives passed on or after the thirteenth day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, and before the passing of this Act, purporting to impose any duties of Customs or to create any exemptions from such duties, shall be deemed to have taken effect and to have had the force of law, according to the tenor of such resolution, and to have so continued until the passing of this Act, or until altered or revoked, before the passing of this Act, by a resolution of the House of Representatives. 20 25

(2) Every such resolution as is mentioned in the last preceding subsection shall be deemed to be revoked on the passing of this Act:

Provided that all duties which, by virtue of the said resolutions, have become due and payable since the passing thereof and before the passing of this Act, and all penalties and forfeitures which have been incurred, shall be recovered and enforced notwithstanding the revocation of the said resolutions by this section. 30

Goods entered during currency of resolutions not to be affected by higher rates of duty.

6. (1) Except as expressly provided in any such resolution, no additional duty shall be chargeable in respect of goods entered for home consumption during the currency of any resolution referred to in the last preceding section by reason merely of the fact that the duties or exemptions imposed or created by such resolution have been altered by any subsequent resolution or by this Act. 35

(2) When any duty has been paid under the authority of any such resolution in excess of the duty payable under this Act the Collector may allow a refund of such excess. 40

Saving of treaty with Commonwealth of Australia.

7. (1) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Act shall affect the agreement for Customs reciprocity made between the Governments of New Zealand and the Commonwealth of Australia and ratified by the Tariff Agreement (New Zealand and Australia) Ratification Act, 1922, or shall affect any Order in Council made for the purposes of or in relation to that agreement under the authority of the Customs Amendment Act, 1921. 45

(2) Subject to the terms of the agreement referred to in the last preceding subsection the Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, at any time apply the British Preferential Tariff to any goods specified or referred to in such notice, and being the produce or 5 manufacture of the Commonwealth of Australia.

(3) The duties and exemptions from duty in force at the commencement of this Act in respect of goods being the produce or manufacture of the Commonwealth of Australia shall, notwithstanding the repeal of any enactment by this Act, continue in force unless and until altered in 10 accordance with the provisions of the last preceding subsection, or otherwise in accordance with the Customs Acts.

8. Nothing in this Act shall be so construed or shall so operate as to conflict with the Schedule of Customs duties and exemptions contained in an Order in Council made under the authority of the Customs Amend-
15 ment Act, 1921, on the seventh day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-five, and published in the Gazette of the tenth day of the same month (fixing rates of duty and exemptions from duty in respect of certain goods being the produce or manufacture of the Union of South Africa):

Saving of treaty with South Africa.

20 Provided that while such Order in Council remains in force no higher duty shall be levied on any such goods than would be levied if the goods were subject to the British Preferential Tariff.

9. (1) The duties and exemptions from duty provided for in this Act shall be in force in the Cook Islands on and from a date to be determined by the Governor-General by Order in Council, and until an Order
25 in Council under this section comes into force the duties and exemptions in force in those islands on the commencement of this Act shall continue to be in force and allowed.

Special provisions as to Cook Islands.

(2) On the coming into force of any such Order in Council the 30 duties and exemptions provided for in this Act shall be in force in the Cook Islands, and the duties and exemptions in force therein on the commencement of this Act shall cease and determine:

Provided that nothing herein shall affect the provisions of Part XXI of the principal Act.

10. (1) The Third Schedule to the Customs Amendment Act, 1921,
35 is hereby repealed and the Third Schedule to this Act substituted therefor.

Exemptions from primage duty.

(2) All references in the Customs Acts to the Third Schedule to the Customs Amendment Act, 1921, shall hereafter be read as references to the Third Schedule to this Act.

40 11. (1) If with respect to any goods or to any class of goods suitable or intended for use for manufacturing, industrial, agricultural, scientific, therapeutic, or similar purposes, and being the produce or manufacture of a country not forming part of the British dominions, the Minister is satisfied that goods of a like kind are not economically
45 produced or manufactured in the British dominions, he may in his discretion direct that such goods or that any goods of such class be admitted as if they were the produce or manufacture of some part of the British dominions, or, in the alternative, that they be admitted at a rate of duty intermediate between the rate specified in the British
50 Preferential Tariff and the rate specified in the General Tariff.

Special provisions as to duty on goods of a class not produced in British dominions.

(2) This section shall be deemed to have been in force as from the thirteenth day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven.

(3) Any direction given by the Minister under this section may in its application to any goods be revoked at any time before such goods are entered for home consumption.

Minister may determine the free-on-board export cash price of goods.

12. Where the amount of duty payable on any goods depends in whole or in part on the free-on-board export cash price of those goods, and such goods are imported otherwise than on the sale thereof, or otherwise than on the sale thereof at the free-on-board export cash price, the Minister may determine such price in such manner and at such sum as he thinks just, and his determination shall be final.

Special provisions for computing measurement of sawn dressed timber.

13. (1) For the purposes of the Tariff the Minister may direct that sawn dressed timber or any class of such timber shall be measured as if the actual thickness thereof were increased by such amount as he may prescribe in that behalf. The maximum amount that may be so added in any case shall, as the Minister may determine, be either three-sixteenths of an inch, or twenty per centum of the actual thickness. Every direction under this section shall be given by notice published in the Gazette, and may at any time be in like manner revoked.

(2) On the entry of any sawn dressed timber to which any direction given by the Minister as aforesaid is applicable, the Collector shall compute the number of superficial feet contained therein as if the actual thickness thereof were increased to the extent prescribed.

Power to impose special duties in certain cases on goods imported from foreign countries.

14. (1) The power to impose duties of Customs conferred on the Governor-General in Council by this section may be exercised in any of the following cases, but not otherwise, that is to say :—

- (a) In the case of goods imported into New Zealand from any foreign country, if in the opinion of the Governor-General that foreign country discriminates, to the disadvantage of goods the produce or manufacture of New Zealand, between those goods and the goods of any other country :
- (b) In the case of goods imported into New Zealand from any foreign country, if in the opinion of the Governor-General the duty charged by that country on the importation of goods being the produce or manufacture of New Zealand is excessive ; or in the case of goods imported into New Zealand from any foreign country that restricts (otherwise than by Customs duties) or prohibits wholly or partially the importation into that country of goods being the produce or manufacture of New Zealand :
- (c) In the case of goods imported into New Zealand from any foreign country, if in relation to such goods there is no treaty, agreement, or arrangement in force between the Government of that country and the Government of New Zealand.

(2) In any of the cases mentioned in the last preceding subsection the Governor-General may, by Order in Council, impose such duties of Customs as he thinks fit, not exceeding in any case twenty-five per centum ad valorem on any goods being the produce or manufacture of a foreign country to which the Order relates, and which may be imported into New Zealand on or after a date to be therein specified in that behalf :

Provided that the powers hereby conferred on the Governor-General shall not be so exercised as to contravene the terms of any treaty, agreement, or arrangement for the time being in force between the Government of New Zealand and the Government of any other country.

5 (3) Any Order in Council under this section may be at any time in like manner varied or revoked.

(4) The duties imposed on any goods pursuant to this section may be imposed whether such goods are otherwise liable to duty or not, and shall be in addition to any other duties to which any such goods may be liable.

10 (5) Any Order in Council under this section may relate generally to all goods being the produce or manufacture of any foreign country specified in the Order, or may relate to any specified goods or to goods of any specified class or classes.

15 (6) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the operation of any other provisions of the Customs Acts.

15. The Customs Acts are hereby amended in manner indicated in the Fourth Schedule hereto.

Miscellaneous amendments of Customs Acts.

16. (1) The enactments mentioned in the Fifth Schedule hereto are hereby repealed to the extent indicated in that Schedule.

Repeals.

20 (2) All duties which have become due and payable and all penalties and forfeitures which have been incurred prior to the commencement of this Act shall be recovered and enforced in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Saving of existing rights of action.

FOURTH SCHEDULE.

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS OF CUSTOMS ACTS.

Title of Enactment.	Number of Section.	Nature and Extent of Amendment.
1913, No. 63.— The Customs Act, 1913	Section 2 ..	By omitting the definition of the term "Warehouse," and substituting the following definition :— " 'Warehouse' means any building or other place licensed under this Act for the storage of dutiable goods entered to be warehoused, and includes a King's warehouse and a manufacturing warehouse. Any two or more buildings or places may, in the discretion of the Minister, be licensed as one warehouse."
	Section 114 ..	By inserting, after the words " When any duty is imposed on goods according to the value thereof " in subsection (1), the words " or where for any other reason the value of any goods is to be determined for the purposes of the Tariff."
	Section 115 ..	By adding to subsection (1), as amended by the Customs Amendment Act, 1921, the following proviso :— " Provided that, where so indicated in the Tariff, the current domestic value of any goods shall be ascertained by reference to their value at the port of export to New Zealand in lieu of their value in the principal markets of the country of export, but otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this section."
	Section 115 ..	By inserting, after the words " For the purpose of determining the value of any goods so subject to ad valorem duty " in subsection (1), the words " or for any other purpose if required by the Collector."
	Section 137 ..	By inserting after the words " such other duty," the words "(if any)."
Section 138 ..	By omitting the words " being intermediate between the said aggregate duty and the duty which would otherwise be payable under this section."
Section 138 ..	By adding the following proviso :— " Provided that in any case to which this section applies a composite article shall not be admitted free of duty unless at least one of the principal constituent articles if imported separately would be free of duty ; and in any other case the rate of duty payable on the composite article shall be not less than the lowest rate of duty that would be payable on any of the principal constituent articles if imported separately."
Section 138 ..	By adding the following as subsection (2) :— " (2) The foregoing provisions of this section may, at the discretion of the Minister, be applied with the necessary modifications to articles which, taken separately, would be classifiable under two or more items of the Tariff, and which, in his opinion, are in the ordinary course of business sold as one article or as one set of articles, whether such articles are imported in the same or in different packages."
Section 138 ..	By inserting, after the words " as a beverage " in subsection (3), as appearing in the Fifth Schedule to the Customs Amendment Act, 1921, the words " culinary or."
Section 138 ..	By inserting, after subsection (3) aforesaid, the following new subsection :— " (4) The Minister may classify any culinary or flavouring essence or any preparation claimed to be a culinary or flavouring essence under any other heading of the Tariff if in his opinion such preparation is intended for use, or can easily be rendered fit for use, as a beverage, toilet preparation, perfumed spirit, or as an article or spirituous ingredient thereof subject to a higher rate of duty than a culinary or flavouring essence."
