A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to alter certain Duties of Customs and Excise, and to amend the Law relating thereto.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,—We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the House of Representatives of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary supplies to defray your Majesty's public expenses, and making an addition to the public revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty the duties hereinafter mentioned, and do therefore most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Customs and Excise Duties Act, 1895 (No. 2)."

2. In lieu of the duties of Customs heretofore chargeable upon the several articles mentioned in Schedule A to this Act, there shall be levied, collected, and paid to and for the use of Her Majesty, upon the said articles, on importation into New Zealand, or on being cleared from any warehouse for home consumption, at the time of making perfect entry therefor, the several duties of Customs inserted, described, and set forth in that Schedule.

Articles exempt from duty.

3. The several articles mentioned in the Schedule B to this Act shall be exempted from the payment of Customs duties from and after the date when this Act shall be deemed to have come into operation.

Repeal.

4. Schedule B to "The Customs and Excise Duties Act, 1888," is hereby repealed. 5

Duty on patent or proprietary medicine.

5. (1.) When any patent or proprietary medicine is imported in bulk, whether in a state already fit for sale as such medicine, or requiring any further preparation or ingredient before being in a state fit for sale as aforesaid, duty shall be paid on such medicine as if when imported it were bottled, packed, or put up in a state fit for retail sale as such medicine. 10

(2.) For the purposes of this section "medicine" includes "medicament."

Decision of disputes as to exemption of shirtings.

6. Whenever any dispute arises as to the application of the exemption in favour of coloured cotton shirtings, flannelette shirtings, or union shirtings in the case of fabrics alleged to be such shirtings, the Commissioner shall have full power to decide such dispute; and, in case of doubt on his part, he may require the fabric in dispute to be cut up for shirt-making, under such conditions as he prescribes. 15 20

Annual fee payable by licensed agents.

7. (1.) There shall be payable to the Collector, in respect of every license already in force or hereafter to be granted, under section twenty-eight of "The Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882," an annual fee of two one pounds.

(2.) Such fee shall be payable on or before the fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and on or before the same day in each succeeding year until the license is given up or cancelled. 25

(3.) The Commissioner shall have power to cancel any license in respect of which such annual fee remains unpaid for thirty days after it becomes due. 30

Customs Laws
Consolidation Acts amended.

8. (1.) Section fifty of "The Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882," is hereby amended by the insertion of the words "or undervalued," next after the word "misdescribed," wherever the latter word occurs in that section. 35

(2.) Section two hundred and forty-nine of "The Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882," and section three of "The Customs Laws Consolidation Act Amendment Act, 1892," are hereby repealed.

Provision as to manufacture of articles of which spirit a necessary ingredient.

9. (1.) The articles in which spirit is a necessary ingredient, permitted to be manufactured in any warehouse or place of security approved and appointed under section twenty-six of "The Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882" (hereinafter called "manufacturing warehouse"), shall be limited to such of the following articles as are made in accordance with formulæ approved by the Commissioner, that is to say: Perfumed spirit, spirituous preparations for the toilet, and culinary or flavouring essences; and also to such of the following articles as are specified in any recognised pharmacopœia, and made in accordance with formulæ laid down therein, that is to say: Tinctures, essences, extracts, and medicinal spirits. 40 45

Duty thereon.

(2.) Before delivery from any manufacturing warehouse, there shall be paid to and for the use of Her Majesty a duty on such articles in accordance with the following scale, that is to say:— 50

	On perfumed spirit....	{	Twenty shillings the liquid gallon.
5	On toilet preparations which are subject to sixteen shillings the liquid gallon on importation	}	Twelve shillings the liquid gallon.
	On toilet preparations which are subject to twenty-five per centum duty on importation	}	Six shillings the liquid gallon.
10	On culinary and flavouring essences	}	Twelve shillings the liquid gallon.
	On all such pharmacopœia tinctures, essences, extracts, and medicinal spirits as contain more than fifty per centum of proof spirit	}	Ninepence the pound.
15	On all such pharmacopœia tinctures, essences, extracts, and medicinal spirits as contain less than fifty per centum of proof spirit	}	Fourpence halfpenny Threepence the pound.

New subsection.

20 (3.) The duties imposed by this section on perfumed spirit and on culinary and flavouring essences shall not come into force until the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

25 (3.) (4.) The Commissioner may prohibit the manufacture of any article included under the foregoing headings if, in his judgment, such manufacture is detrimental to the revenue derived from the duty on spirits.

Manufacture may be prohibited.

30 10. Any officer of Customs may take samples of any article made up in a manufacturing warehouse. Such samples shall be taken in duplicate, and labels indicating the contents shall be affixed to each, with the date when such samples were taken. One of the samples may be sealed and signed by the proprietor if he thinks fit, and the other shall be sealed and signed by the officer. Both samples shall be retained in the custody of the Collector

Samples of articles may be taken from manufacturing warehouse.

35 11. If at any time the Collector is satisfied that any article made in a manufacturing warehouse has not been prepared strictly in accordance with the formulæ approved by the Commissioner, or laid down in some recognised pharmacopœia, or that any article prohibited under subsection three of section nine hereof has been manufactured in such warehouse: then the Commissioner shall have power by writing under his hand to cancel and revoke the appointment of such warehouse, and in such case the proprietor shall be ineligible to make an application for the reappointment of the same, nor shall he be allowed to become the proprietor of any manufacturing warehouse within the space of two years from the date of the revocation of such appointment.

If articles improperly manufactured, appointment of warehouse may be cancelled.

50 12. If it is proved to the satisfaction of a Collector of Customs that an order for the printing of any directory of New Zealand, or of any part of New Zealand, was sent from the colony before the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, then such directory ordered as aforesaid shall, on arrival in the colony, be admitted free of duty.

Certain directories to be admitted free.

Incorporation of Act.

13. This Act shall be deemed to be incorporated with "The Customs Duties Consolidation Act, 1882," "The Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882," "The Customs and Excise Duties Act, 1888," and any other Act imposing duties of Customs now in force; and all the provisions of those Acts in so far as the same may be applicable, and except where otherwise provided by this Act, shall apply in respect of the duties granted by this Act. 5

Operation of Act.

14. This Act shall be deemed to have come into operation on and from the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five; and the several Schedules to this Act, with the notes (if any) to such Schedules, shall be deemed to be part of this Act in the same manner as if they had been contained in the body thereof: 10

Provided that, where any rates of duty have been imposed or altered since the said thirty-first day of July by resolution of the House of Representatives, such rates shall be deemed to have come into operation only from the date of such resolution. 15

New clause.

Duties imposed by resolution.

15. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained it is hereby declared as follows:—

(1.) All duties imposed and all exemptions created by any resolution of the House of Representatives passed subsequent to the said 31st day of July shall be deemed to have come into force according to the tenor of such resolution, and to have so continued until altered by a subsequent resolution; 20

Refund.

(2.) No refund shall be made, nor shall any new or other duty be chargeable in respect of goods cleared during the currency of such duties or exemptions by reason merely that such duties or exemptions have been altered by any subsequent resolution, or by this Act. 25 30
