A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to reform the Civil Service.

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Civil Service Reform Act, 1886."

Short Title.

10 2. Section twelve of "The Civil Service Act, 1866" (herein referred to as "the said Act"), so far as the said section would relate to any persons hereafter to be appointed to the Civil Service, and all other provisions of the said Act or of any Act passed in amendment thereof which may be repugnant to the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed, and the said Act with its amending Acts shall be read and construed subject to the provisions of this Act.

Prior Acts to be read subject to this Act.

Repeal.

15 3. This Act shall apply to females as well as to males, and words herein importing the masculine gender shall be construed to include females.

Act to apply to females.

Struck out.

20 4. No person, save as hereinafter provided, shall be appointed to the Civil Service of the colony unless as a cadet, nor until he or she has passed the Junior Civil Service Examination for cadets, and has been proved to be physically fit for the service: Provided always that this section shall not refer to persons skilled in medicine, law, navigation, science, or the management of live stock, or in naval or military matters; nor to persons appointed under "The Defence Act, 1886," or "The Police Force Act, 1886," nor to officers of prisons, nor to persons appointed as messengers.

New clause.

Persons to be hereafter appointed
Civil servants.

4. Every person who, after the passing of this Act, shall be appointed to the Civil Service of the colony, shall only enter such service as a cadet after competitive examination as provided in section nine, and after he or she has been proved to be physically fit for the service. 5

The Controller and Auditor-General shall not pass any voucher for the payment of salary to any person to be appointed as aforesaid who is not appointed in manner as by this section and by section nine provided. 10

Nothing in this section contained, however, shall apply to any person skilled in medicine, law, navigation, science, technical art, or the management of live stock, or in naval or military matters; nor to persons who are now employed as extra clerks in the public service, nor to persons appointed under "The Defence Act, 1886," or "The Police Force Act, 1886," nor to officers of prisons, nor to persons appointed as messengers. 15

Messengers' qualifications.

5. No person shall be appointed permanently as a messenger unless he has passed an examination equivalent to that of the Fourth Standard of education provided under "The Education Act, 1877," or any Act passed in amendment thereof: 20

Provided that in the case of persons who have been formerly employed in the service of the colony, or of Her Majesty elsewhere, or who have been injured or disabled in the colony, such an examination need not be insisted on. 25

Qualification for police and prison officials.

6. No person shall be appointed permanently under "The Defence Act, 1886," or "The Police Force Act, 1886," or as an officer of the prisons unless he has passed an examination equivalent to that of the Fourth Standard of education.

Names of experts to be submitted to Parliament.

7. The names of all skilled persons appointed under the proviso in section four shall be laid before both Houses of the General Assembly within ten days after their appointment if Parliament shall then be sitting, and, if during the recess, within ten days after the commencement of the next session. 30

Salaries of cadets.

8. No cadet, hereafter appointed, shall receive more than one hundred pounds per annum until he has passed the Senior Civil Service Examination. 35

Struck out.

9. No cadet shall be appointed to the Civil Service save on the nomination of a member of the House of Representatives, as representing an electoral district. 40

Every member of the said House shall, as and being such representative, have the right of making one nomination for not more than one candidate, and shall not have the right to make any second or further nomination until after all the members of the said House have, as aforesaid, made one such nomination, or have had the opportunity of so doing and have not done so within one month after being required so to do. 45

Where a nomination has been made by any member as the representative of any electoral district, no further nomination shall be received from any other person as member representing the same district until as hereinbefore mentioned. 50

New Clause.

5 9. All appointments to the Civil Service shall be by competitive examination, which shall be held periodically in the chief centres of population and from the most successful competitors in the order of their merit, shall be selected candidates to fill all vacant cadetships in the Civil Service.

Nomination of cadets for appointments.

Struck out.

10 10. Where there are more nominations made than vacancies to be supplied, the selection of candidates to be appointed shall be determined by lot, to be conducted under the direction of the Colonial Secretary.

Allotment of appointments amongst candidates.

Every nominee elected by lot as aforesaid shall receive an appointment if there is any vacancy.

15 Where there are more vacancies than nominations, then those members of the House who have not exercised their right of nomination shall be requested each to nominate not more than one candidate for such remaining vacancies.

New clause.

20 10. The competitive examination aforesaid shall include such subjects as the Governor in Council shall from time to time appoint, and when any two or more candidates stand in equal order of merit, and there are not sufficient vacancies for all of them to receive appointments, the selection of such candidates to be appointed shall be determined by lot, to be conducted under the direction of the Colonial Secretary.

25 11. Out of the salary of every Civil servant hereafter appointed there shall be deducted the sum of five per centum per annum, which said sum, with all interest which may accrue thereon, shall be paid into a separate fund to the Public Trustee to be invested at interest on such security as the Public Trust Office shall approve. It may invest the same along with other sums, but a separate account shall be kept for the amount paid to the credit of each such officer, and no sums to the credit of any Civil servant shall be attached for debt or be deemed an asset in the event of his bankruptcy.

Salary to be deducted.

35 12. On retirement from the service, from whatever cause except the commission of a crime, there shall be paid to the Civil servant the amount to his credit in the Public Trust Office, ~~and on his death~~

Fund to be applied on retirement or death.

Struck out.

40 the amount shall be paid to his wife and children, or her husband and children, as the case may be, in equal shares; or, if he or she leave no children, then all to his wife or her husband; and, if no wife or no husband, then all to his or her child or children; but, if he shall leave no wife or children, then to his executors or administrators. And if she shall leave no husband and no children, then to her executors or

45 administrators, or in case of his or her death the amount shall be paid in manner as may be directed by his or her will, and, in the absence of such will, then according to the law for the time being in force regulating the distribution of the estates of persons dying intestate:

50 Provided that in case of retirement from the service on account of the commission of a crime the amount to his or her credit may, after paying any defalcations he or she may have made, be paid to his wife or her husband, as the case may be, and in the event of there being no wife or husband, then to any children of him or her: Provided further that the said sums to the credit of the Civil servants may be supplemented from time to time by the appropriation of the General Assembly, and such sums so supplemented shall be appropriated as determined by the Appropriation Act or by rules approved of by the Governor in Council.

Civil servant a three-monthly servant.

13. Every Civil servant hereafter appointed shall be deemed a three-monthly servant, and removable at any time after three months' notice.

10

Leave of absence.

14. No Civil servant shall hereafter on his retirement, or immediately preceding his retirement, receive more than three months' leave of absence.

Postal and Telegraph Department may be excepted from operation of Act.

15. The Governor, by Order in Council, from time to time, may except from the operation of this Act, or particular provisions thereof only, the whole or any branch or section of the Postal and Telegraph Departments of the Civil Service respectively; and may make special regulations for the classification and promotion of the officers therein.

15

Any such Order in Council may from time to time be amended or revoked in part or in whole.

20

Act not to apply to working railway staff.

16. Nothing herein appearing shall apply to the working railway staff appointed, or to be appointed, under regulations made in pursuance of the Public Works Acts.
