|---|---|
| 1. This Act may be cited as the Destitute Persons Amendment Act, 1930, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Destitute Persons Act, 1910. 2. Section eight of the Destitute Persons Amendment Act, 1926, is hereby amended as follows:— (a) By omitting the words “so long as such order continues in force”: (b) By inserting, after the word “enforced”, the words “varied, suspended, cancelled, restored, or otherwise dealt with”. 3. Upon registration in the office of a Magistrate’s Court of copy of an order of the Supreme Court in pursuance of section eight of the Destitute Persons Amendment Act, 1926, no further proceedings to enforce, vary, suspend, cancel, restore, or otherwise deal with such order shall be taken in the Supreme Court: Provided, however, that if proceedings shall have been taken on such order in a Magistrate’s Court and such order shall have been enforced, varied, suspended, cancelled, restored, or otherwise dealt with by a Magistrate the complainant or defendant, or any other person prejudicially affected, may appeal to the Supreme Court against such enforcement, variation, suspension, cancellation, restoration, or other dealing in accordance with the provisions of Parts IX or X of the Justices of the Peace Act, 1927, in the same manner as if the appeal was from an order to pay a sum exceeding five pounds, and all the provisions of that Act shall apply to any such appeal accordingly, with all necessary modifications. | Short Title. Section 8 of the Amendment Act, 1926, amended. Limiting jurisdiction of Supreme Court, and providing for right of appeal. |
