The Parliament of New Zealand enacts as follows:

- 1 Title
This Act is the Disabled Persons Employment Promotion Repeal Act 2007.

Part 1 Preliminary provisions

- 2 Commencement
This Act comes into force on the day after the date on which it receives the Royal assent.

- 3 Act binds the Crown
This Act binds the Crown.
- 4 Purpose
The purpose of this Act is to—
- (a) repeal the Disabled Persons Employment Promotion Act 1960 (the Act); and
 - (b) provide for matters arising from the repeal of the Act until the expiry of the transitional period on ((30 June 2007) 30 November 2007).

Struck out

- (c) make related amendments to the Minimum Wage Act 1983. 10

- 5 Interpretation
In this Act,—
- Act means the Disabled Persons Employment Promotion Act 1960 15
- application for approval means an application by an organisation for approval under section 3 of the Act
- disabled person has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Act
- sheltered workshop has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Act. 20

Part 2
Repeal of Disabled Persons Employment Promotion Act 1960

- 6 Repeal 25
The Disabled Persons Employment Promotion Act 1960 (1960 No 42) is repealed.

Transitional and savings provisions

- 7 Approval of organisations 30
Despite the repeal of the Act, sections 3 to 5 of the Act continue in force until ((30 June 2007) 30 November 2007) in respect of applications for approval received by the Minister before the commencement of this Act.

8 Exempt organisations

Despite the repeal of the Act, an exemption granted to an organisation listed in Schedule 1 or Schedule 2 of the Disabled Persons Employment Promotion Order 2002 continues in force until the earlier of—

- (a) the exemption becoming void and of no effect under section 3(3) of the Act; or
- (b) (30 June 2007) 30 November 2007.

9 Exemption from income tax

Despite the repeal of the Act, any nominal amounts derived by a disabled person from therapeutic activities undertaken in a sheltered workshop must continue to be treated as exempt income for the purpose of section CB 6(a)(i) of the Income Tax Act 1994 and section CW 27(1)(d) of the Income Tax Act 2004.

10 Meaning of disabled person and sheltered workshop

- (1) Despite the repeal of the Act, the terms disabled person and sheltered workshop continue, for the purposes of any other enactment, to have the same meanings as in section 2 of the Act.
- (2) This section applies to avoid doubt.

11 Consequential repeal

Section 10(1)(a) of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988 (1988 No 4) is consequentially repealed.
