

DAIRY PRODUCTS MARKETING COMMISSION
AMENDMENT BILL

EXPLANATORY NOTE

SECTION 25 of the Dairy Products Marketing Commission Act, 1947, authorizes the Commission to purchase houses outside New Zealand for the use of its officers and to let them to the officers, and to make advances to its officers to enable them to purchase houses outside New Zealand for their own use.

This Bill enables those powers to be exercised in respect of houses within New Zealand, and validates any such purchases and advances already made.
