A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to secure a Weekly Half-holiday for Domestic Servants. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

|--|--|
| 5 1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Domestic Servants' Half-holiday Act, 1895," and shall come into operation on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five. 2. "Domestic servants" means and includes all women engaged in domestic service, as enumerated in the Schedule hereto. 10 3. From and after the coming into operation of this Act, all domestic servants shall have a half-holiday from the hour of three of the clock in the afternoon of one working-day in each week, as hereinafter provided. 15 4. Within the limits of cities, boroughs, and town districts, the half-holiday fixed under the provisions of "The Shops and Shop-assistants Act, 1894," shall be the half-holiday required by this Act; and, in all places outside the above-mentioned limits, the half-holiday required by this Act shall be held in the afternoon of such day in each week as may be agreed upon. 20 5. Within the limits of cities, boroughs, and town districts, where more than one domestic servant is employed in any house, it shall be competent for the employer to fix the day upon which the half-holiday required by this Act shall be observed by the various domestic servants: Provided, however, that one domestic servant shall be 25 entitled to a half-holiday upon the day mentioned in section four of this Act. 30 6. If any domestic servant be employed in her ordinary employment contrary to the provisions of this Act, the employer shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for each offence in respect of each domestic servant so employed. | Short Title. Interpretation. Half-holiday shall be from three o'clock in the afternoon. The day upon which half-holiday shall be kept. Where more than one domestic servant is employed, employer shall regulate half-holiday amongst various servants. Penalty. |
