EMERGENCY HOUSING RENTAL LIMITATION

ANALYSIS

Title	2. Interpretation
1. Short Title	3. Emergency housing

A BILL INTITULED

An Act to require Housing New Zealand Limited to provide emergency housing at a rent not exceeding $10 in each year, and to amend the Housing Restructuring Act 1992

5

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Emergency Housing Rental Limitation Act 1993, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Housing Restructuring Act 1992 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

10

2. Interpretation—Section 2 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after the definition of the term “District Land Registrar”, the following definition:

15

“‘Emergency housing’ means housing provided by Housing New Zealand Limited to organisations which make housing available to any person on account of hardship.”.

3. Emergency housing—The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 7, the following section:

20

“7A. (1) The Crown shall require the company to provide at least the same number of houses for the purposes of emergency housing as were being provided by the Housing Corporation of New Zealand at the commencement of this Act.

“(2) The company shall not charge any organisation provided emergency housing under subsection (1) of this section more than $10 in each year in rent.”
