A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to authorise the Setting-apart of certain Lands around and in the Vicinity of Mount Egmont, and certain Ranges of Hills known as the Patua Ranges, as a National Park, and to provide for the Control and Management thereof.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Egmont National Park Act, 1900."

2. The lands described in the Schedule hereto are hereby constituted and set apart as a reserve, to be called "The Egmont National Park," and shall be managed and administered under this Act by a Board, to be called "The Egmont National Park Board" (hereinafter referred to as "the Board"), consisting of nine persons, of whom—

(1.) One shall be the person who for the time being holds the office of Commissioner of Crown Lands for the Taranaki Land District, and he shall be the Chairman of the Board;

(2.) Two shall be appointed by the Governor; and

(3.) One shall be appointed by each of the seven following local authorities, that is to say:—

The Hawera Borough Council;
The New Plymouth Borough Council;
The Taranaki County Council;
The Hawera County Council;
The Stratford County Council;
The Stratford Borough Council; and The Opunake Town Board.

Appointment of members by Governor.

3. With respect to each of the two members to be appointed by the Governor, the following provisions shall apply:—

(1.) He shall hold office for three years, or until the appointment of his successor, and shall be eligible for reappointment. 5

(2.) He may at any time resign, by notice in writing to the Governor; and the Governor may at any time remove him.

(3.) For the purpose of filling his seat when it becomes vacant the Governor shall appoint a successor, who shall hold office for the same term and subject to the same conditions as in the case of the vacating member. 10

Provisions as to members appointed by local authorities.

4. With respect to each of the seven members to be appointed by the aforesaid local authorities, the following provisions shall apply:—

(1.) He shall be appointed by resolution of the local authority at an ordinary or special meeting held in the month of January, one thousand nine hundred and one, and shall take office on the first day of February thereafter. 15

(2.) He shall hold office for three years, or until his successor takes office, and shall be eligible for reappointment. 20

(3.) His seat shall become vacant in any of the following events, that is to say:—

(a.) If he dies, or becomes bankrupt; or

(b.) If he resigns by notice in writing to the local authority; or 25

(c.) If he is absent from three successive meetings of the Board without leave of absence from the Board; or

(d.) If he is absent from the colony for three consecutive months; or

(e.) If he is convicted of any offence punishable by imprisonment for six months or upwards. 30

(4.) As soon as conveniently may be after the local authority becomes aware that his seat has become vacant under the last preceding subsection hereof, it shall by resolution appoint a successor, who shall take office from the date of his appointment, and hold office for the unexpired residue of the term of office of the vacating member. 35

(5.) For the purpose of filling his seat when it becomes vacant by the expiry of his term of office, the local authority, by resolution passed at an ordinary or special meeting held in the month of January next preceding such expiry, shall appoint a successor, who shall take office on such expiry, and shall hold office for the same term and subject to the same conditions as in the case of the retiring member. 40

(6.) In any case where the local authority fails or neglects to duly appoint a member in manner hereinbefore provided, the Governor may either extend the time during which the appointment may be made by the local authority, or may himself appoint in its stead; and any appointment made by the Governor under this subsection shall be deemed to have been made by the local authority. 45 50

5. The first ordinary meeting of the Board shall be held at New Plymouth in the month of February, one thousand nine hundred and one, at such time and place as the Chairman appoints, and subsequent ordinary meetings shall be held at such times and places as the Board appoints. Meetings of Board.
6. Special meetings of the Board may be called at any time by the Chairman, and he shall call one whenever any two members so request in writing. Special meetings.
7. At all meetings of the Board— Quorum and Chairman.
- 10 (1.) The quorum shall be four.
- (2.) The Chairman shall preside, and shall have a deliberative vote, and, in case of equality of voting, a casting-vote.
- (3.) In the absence of the Chairman from any meeting the members present shall elect one of their number to act as Chairman at that meeting, and whilst so acting he shall have all the powers of the Chairman.
- 15 8. With respect to the Board, the following provisions shall apply :— Duties and procedure.
- 20 (1.) It may continue to act notwithstanding any vacancy in its body.
- (2.) It shall cause exact minutes of all its proceedings to be kept, and also full and accurate accounts of all its receipts, disbursements, liabilities, and engagements.
- (3.) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Board may regulate its own procedure.
- 25 9. (1.) The Board may appoint a Secretary at such salary or other remuneration as it thinks fit, and may define his duties and functions. Secretary.
- (2.) For the more effective management and control of the said 30 park the Board may also appoint Rangers, at such salaries or other remuneration as it thinks fit, and may define their powers, duties, and functions. Rangers.
10. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Board shall have and may exercise in respect of the said park all the powers which by 35 “The Public Domains Act, 1881,” the Governor in Council is empowered to delegate, or the Commissioner of Crown Lands is empowered to exercise, in respect of a public domain under that Act : Provided that by-laws made by the Board shall not come into operation until they have been submitted to and approved by the Governor 40 and have been gazetted. Powers of Board in respect of park.
11. The publication in the Gazette of any by-laws purporting to be made by the Board under this Act, and to be approved by the Governor, shall, until the contrary is shown, be sufficient evidence that the same have been duly made and approved in accordance with 45 this Act. Evidence of by-laws.
12. With the consent of the Governor the Board may set apart areas of the said park for leasing, and with respect to every such leasing-area the Board shall be deemed to be a leasing authority within the meaning of “The Public Bodies Powers’ Act, 50 1887” : Leasing-powers.
- Provided, however, that, except in the case of a temporary tenancy under section eight of that Act, leases shall only be granted for residential purposes or for accommodation-houses, and the area comprised in any lease shall not exceed two acres.
- 55 13. Every person who commits any breach of any by-law under this Act is liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds. Penalty for breach of by-law.

Egmont National Park.

Matters for which penalties imposed.

14. Every person is liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, in addition to the damage actually done (the amount of such damage to be assessed by the convicting Court), who does any of the following things upon or within the boundaries of the said park, that is to say :—

15. (1.) In every case where under the last preceding section hereof wilful intent must be shown, such intent shall be presumed until the contrary is proved.

Wilful removal of tree, shrub, &c.

(2.) If within the said park, or on any road in its vicinity, any person is found in possession of any or any part of any wood, tree, shrub, fern, or plant, and, upon being thereunto required by any Ranger or constable, fails or refuses to give a satisfactory account of the manner in which he became possessed of the same, he shall be deemed to have wilfully removed the same in breach of sub-section three of the last preceding section hereof, unless he satisfy the Court to the contrary.

20

Ranger may prevent breach of Act or by-law.

16. In any case where any actual or attempted breach of this Act, or of any by-law thereunder, is or may be attended with danger, hindrance, or annoyance to the public or to any person lawfully in the said park, then, without affecting the liability of the person committing or about to commit such breach, any Ranger or constable may, without further warrant or authority than this Act, summarily interfere to prevent such breach, or to prevent or remove such danger, hindrance, or annoyance.

30

Rangers may apprehend person committing offences.

17. Any Ranger or constable may, without warrant, apprehend any person whom he finds actually committing within the said park any breach of this Act or of any by-law thereunder, and the person so apprehended shall be detained in custody or held to bail until he can be proceeded against for such breach.

40

Delegation of powers to Committees of Management.

18. For the better local control and management of the said park the Board may delegate all or any of its powers (other than the power to make by-laws or the powers of the Board as a leasing authority) to not more than four Committees of Management, and with respect to each such Committee the following provisions shall apply :—

45

(1.) Each Committee shall consist of not less than four nor more than seven members, all of whom shall be appointed by the Board, subject nevertheless to the right of the Board to remove them or any of them at any time and to appoint successors.

50

(2.) Each Committee shall exercise its delegated powers within such portion of the said park as is specified in that behalf by the Board, and for that purpose the Board may divide the said park into not more than four divisions, and may assign a division to each Committee.

55

(3.) In the exercise of its delegated powers each Committee shall be subject to the control of the Board.

19. Except with the consent of the Board, it shall not be lawful for any local authority to make roads or tracks over or through the said park.

No roads to be made except with consent of Board.

20. The expenses incurred by the Board in managing and improving the said park, and generally in administering this Act, shall be paid out of its general funds.

Expenses payable out of general funds.

21. The general funds of the Board shall consist of—

What general funds to consist of.
