|--|---|--|
| 5 10 15 20 25 30 | 1. This Act may be cited as the Gaming Amendment Act, 1920, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Gaming Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act). 2. The business or occupation of a bookmaker is hereby declared to be unlawful. Every person carrying on such business or occupation commits an offence against this Act, and is liable upon summary conviction to a fine of five hundred pounds or to imprisonment for a term of two years. 3. Every person who makes a bet with a bookmaker commits an offence against this Act, and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment for a term of not exceeding one month. 4. In any prosecution for an offence against this Act the fact that a person has directly or indirectly offered to make a bet, or has knowingly issued or been knowingly party to the issue of any card or circular indicating in any manner where or with whom a bet may be made, or stating the odds upon or against any horse or event, shall be sufficient evidence, until the contrary is proved, that such person is carrying on the business or occupation of a bookmaker. 5. No person shall be deemed to commit an offence against this Act by reason merely of the fact that he has made a bet with any other person upon any particular event, unless it is part of the business or occupation of either of such persons to make bets. 6. Nothing in this Act shall render unlawful investments of money on the totalizator in accordance with the provisions of the principal Act. | Short Title. Business of bookmaker declared to be unlawful. Offence to make bets with bookmaker. Evidence as to business of bookmaker. Isolated acts of betting not an offence. Investments on totalizator not affected by this Act. |
