

Hon. Mr. Fisher.

GOVERNMENT LIFE INSURANCE AMENDMENT.

ANALYSIS.

Title.
1. Short Title.

2. Power to appoint canvassers.
3. Public Service Classification and Superannuation Act not to apply to canvassing agents.

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Government Life Insurance Act, 1908. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Government Life Insurance Amendment Act, 1912, and shall form part of and be read together with the Government Life Insurance Act, 1908. Short Title.

2. (1.) The Commissioner may from time to time,— Power to appoint canvassers.
(a.) Employ such persons upon such terms as he thinks fit as canvassing agents for procuring proposals for any contract into which the Commissioner is authorized to enter:
(b.) Pay to any agent so employed such commission, allowance, or other remuneration as he thinks fit:

15 Provided that such payments shall not exceed the maximum commission, allowance, or other remuneration which may be approved by the Minister of Finance in that behalf, either generally for the employment of canvassing agents or specially with reference to the particular employment of any such canvassing agent:

20 (c.) Vary the terms of any agreement entered into by him for the employment of any canvassing agent or terminate any such employment.

(2.) The Governor may, by Order in Council gazetted, make 25 such regulations as he deems necessary for giving effect to this section.

3. The provisions of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Act, 1908, shall not apply in respect of the employment of any person as a canvassing agent. Public Service Classification and Superannuation Act not to apply to canvassing agents.