A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend "The Governor's Salary and Allowances Act, 1873." Title.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the sum payable to Her Majesty for certain allowances to the Governor should be altered after the expiration of the term of office of the present Governor: Preamble.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Governor's Salary and Allowances Act Amendment Act, 1887." Short Title.

2. From and after the coming into operation of this Act the third, fourth, and tenth sections of "The Governor's Salary and Allowances Act, 1873," shall be and the same are hereby repealed, and the "establishment allowance" and "travelling allowance" provided for in the said sections shall cease to be payable, and all expenses incurred by the Governor for all or any of the purposes mentioned in the third and fourth sections of the said Act shall be paid and borne by the Governor out of the salary payable to him under the said Act, with the exception of the annual salary of the Clerk of the Executive Council, which shall be paid out of moneys to be appropriated from time to time by the General Assembly. Establishment allowance and travelling allowance to cease to be payable.

3. This Act shall not come into operation unless and until the same shall have been assented to by Her Majesty, and until the assumption of the government by the person next appointed by Her Majesty to be Governor of New Zealand: Act to be reserved for Her Majesty's assent.

Proviso.

Provided that if the assent of Her Majesty shall be signified as aforesaid, and before the date when the same is signified or proclaimed in New Zealand any person shall have been so appointed to be Governor, this Act shall be deemed to have come into operation on the date when such person embarks to assume the government of the colony, whether the port of embarkation be in England or in another colony or elsewhere.
