Proviso.

~~Provided that the 5. Any certificate of title to be issued in the name of the Public Trustee for part of Division Eleven aforesaid shall be subject to the right of the Native owners for the time being of Division Nine aforesaid to fish in such portions of the Hokino Stream and the Horowhenua Lake respectively as are included in the said certificate.~~

Cancelled dealings may be re-registered.

6. For the purpose of testing the validity of the alienation referred to in subsection (g) of section four hereof, and also of all dealings the registration whereof has been cancelled as aforesaid, the Public Trustee is hereby directed and empowered to institute on behalf of the ~~persons named in the Fifth Schedule hereto~~ original registered owners of the said block, as set forth in the Second and B

Schedules hereto, or any of them, such proceedings in the Supreme Court at Wellington as may be necessary for that purpose within six months from the date of the passing of this Act, and every dealing the validity whereof is established by final judgment in such proceedings shall be entitled to be re-registered on any new certificate of title issued under the provisions of this Act for the land the subject of such dealing.

Struck out.

7. All lands, and interests in lands, of what nature soever and wheresoever situate, belonging to the said Meiha Keepa, or in which he is beneficially interested, are, to the extent of his interest therein, hereby charged with the payment to the persons named in the Fifth Schedule hereto of the sum of one thousand five hundred pounds, or so much thereof as is found due to the said persons in respect of the moneys received by the said Meiha Keepa for rent and for the sale of rights to cut timber on Division Eleven aforesaid. The said lands and interests in lands are also hereby charged collaterally with the former charge with the payment to the owners of Division Three of the said block of the sum of five hundred pounds, or so much thereof as is found due to the said persons in respect of moneys received by him for the sale of rights to cut timber on Division Three aforesaid :

Charges upon lands belonging to Meiha Keepa.

Provided that, unless accounts to the satisfaction of the Public Trustee are rendered by the said Meiha Keepa to the Public Trustee in respect of the moneys aforesaid within three months from the date of the coming into operation of this Act, the whole of the said sums respectively shall be due and payable by him to the persons aforesaid, and shall be charged accordingly.

8. The District Land Registrar or Registrar of Deeds, as the case may be, for the district within which any land mentioned in the last-preceding section hereof is situate shall forthwith register this Act as a charge on such land, or the interest of the said Meiha Keepa therein, in accordance with the provisions hereof; and such registration shall have the effect of a mortgage of such land to the Public Trustee, with power of sale, for the sums chargeable thereon as aforesaid.

Mode of registering such charges.

9. The land for which a certificate of title is hereinbefore directed to be issued to and in the name of the Public Trustee shall be deemed a reserve vested in him under the provisions of "The Native Reserves Act, 1882," for the benefit of the persons named in the Fifth Schedule hereto and the successors of any of them deceased, in such respective shares and interests as are hereafter determined by the Court :

Land vested in Public Trustee to be a reserve.

Provided nevertheless that the Public Trustee, if requested by the Minister of Lands so to do, shall sell and convey to Her Majesty for an estate in fee-simple that portion thereof, containing one thousand five hundred acres, more or less, forming the north-eastern corner of Division Eleven, being the portion recommended to be acquired by the Crown in the report of the said Commission, and in such case the amount of the purchase-money shall be determined in manner provided by section sixteen of this Act.

10. The notification issued on the twenty-sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, under the provisions of "The Government Native Land Purchase Act, 1877," so far as it affects the said block, is hereby declared to have ceased to be of any effect as from the thirtieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

When certain notification ceased to have effect.

Powers of Court.

15. For the purpose of ~~ascertaining and determining the Natives who are entitled to any real or personal property under this Act, and their respective shares and interests therein, and generally~~ of carrying out the provisions of this Act, the Court shall have and may exercise, as the nature of the case requires, in addition to the special powers hereby conferred, all the powers and jurisdiction of the Court under "The Native Land Court Act, 1894," and "The Native Land Laws Amendment Act, 1895."

How amount payable by Queen to be determined.

16. The amount of the payment to be made by Her Majesty to or for the benefit of the owners of any land hereinbefore directed to be vested in Her Majesty as and for the purchase-money for the same shall in case of dispute be determined by the Court in the same manner as is provided by section ninety of "The Public Works Act, 1894," with regard to compensation payable to Natives for land taken for a Government work.

Succession to interests of deceased
Natives.

17. The interest of any Native deceased in any real or personal property the subject of this Act shall, whether such Native died before or after the coming into operation of this Act, pass to such person or persons as the Court determines to be entitled according to Native custom to succeed to such interest.

Right of appeal.

18. ~~The same~~ No right of appeal shall lie from any decision of the Court under the provisions of this Act ~~as from a decision of the Court under "The Native Land Court Act, 1894."~~

Costs of Royal Commission charged on Division 12.

19. The costs of the Royal Commission aforesaid, amounting to the sum of one thousand two hundred and sixty-six pounds nineteen shillings and fivepence, are hereby made a charge on Division Twelve aforesaid, and shall be deducted from the amount payable by Her Majesty ~~to the persons named in the Sixth Schedule~~ for the purchase of the said Division.

How moneys to be held by Public Trustee.

20. All moneys received by the Public Trustee by virtue of this Act shall be held by him for such persons and in such relative proportions as, subject to the provisions of this Act, the Court determines to be entitled thereto.

New clause.

20A. The Court in its discretion may receive, consider, and act on the evidence, or any part thereof, taken by the said Royal Commission without calling or hearing the witnesses who gave such evidence. Court may act on evidence taken by Royal Commission.
