A BILL INTITULED

Title.

AN ACT to make Provision for various Matters arising out of the Hawke's Bay Earthquake.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Short Title.

"Earthquake" defined.

1. This Act may be cited as the Hawke's Bay Earthquake Act, 1931.
2. In this Act, except where a contrary intention appears, "earthquake" or "Hawke's Bay earthquake" means the earthquake which occurred in New Zealand on the morning of the third day of February, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, and includes all earthquakes which occurred in New Zealand during the month of February, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, and also includes all fires arising out of such earthquakes.

PART I.

DECLARATION AND ADJUSTMENT OF RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES.

The Hawke's Bay Adjustment Court.

Interpretation.

3. In this part of this Act, except where a contrary intention appears,—

"Court" or "Adjustment Court" means the Hawke's Bay Adjustment Court established under this Part of this Act:

"Earthquake area" means the boroughs of Napier, Hastings, Wairoa, Waipawa, and Waipukurau; the town districts of Taradale and Havelock North; and the counties of Hawke's Bay and Wairoa :

“President” means the President for the time being of the Adjustment Court.

4. There shall be a Court of record, to be called the Hawke's Bay Adjustment Court, which shall (in addition to the jurisdiction and powers specially conferred by this Act) have all the powers inherent in a Court of record. Adjustment Court established.

5. (1) The Court shall consist of three members—namely, a President and two nominated members. Constitution of Court.

(2) The President of the Court from time to time shall be the Chief Justice of New Zealand, or such Judge of the Supreme Court of New Zealand as the Chief Justice from time to time assigns to the position of President.

(3) The nominated members of the Court shall be fit persons appointed for that purpose from time to time by the Governor-General.

6. (1) The Governor-General may from time to time appoint fit persons to be reserve nominated members of the Court. Reserve nominated members.

(2) If at any time a vacancy exists in the office of nominated member of the Court, or if any nominated member is not present at any sitting of the Court, the President may summon any reserve nominated member to attend the sittings of the Court and to act as a nominated member thereof, and while so acting such reserve nominated member shall have and may exercise all the powers, functions, and privileges, and shall perform all the duties, of the nominated member for whom he is acting.

7. Before entering on the exercise of the functions of their office, the nominated members of the Court shall make oath or affirmation before the President that they will faithfully and impartially perform the duties of their office, and also that, except in the discharge of their duties, they will not disclose to any person any evidence or other matter brought before the Court or any of the deliberations of the Court. Oath of office and secrecy.

8. (1) The appointment of the President, or of a nominated member, or of a reserve nominated member of the Court shall not be questioned on any ground whatsoever; and no act done by the Court sitting with a reserve nominated member, or done by such reserve nominated member, shall be questioned on the ground that the occasion for such reserve nominated member acting as a member of the Court had not arisen or had ceased. Constitution of Court not to be questioned.

(2) Whether the Court at any sitting thereof is duly constituted as required by the provisions of this Act, or has been duly convened for such sitting, are matters to be determined by the President, whose decision thereon shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be questioned in any proceedings in the Court or in any other Court.

(3) The fact that a sitting of the Court has been held shall be conclusive evidence of a decision by the President that the Court was duly constituted at and duly convened for that sitting.

9. (1) There shall be a Registrar of the Court, who shall keep the records of the Court and shall perform all such administrative duties in respect of the Court as the President may from time to time direct. Registrar, Deputy Registrars, and other officers of Court.

(2) There may be appointed such Deputy Registrars of the Court as may be deemed necessary, who shall, subject to the control of the Registrar, possess, exercise, and perform the same powers, functions, and duties as the Registrar; and every reference in this Act to the Registrar of the Court shall, so far as applicable, extend and apply to a Deputy Registrar accordingly.

(3) There may also be appointed in respect of the Court such other officers as may be deemed necessary.

(4) The office of Registrar or of Deputy Registrar, and any other office in respect of the Court, may be held in conjunction with any other office in the Public Service. 5

Seal of the Court.

10. (1) The Court shall have, in the custody of the Registrar and each Deputy Registrar, a seal of the Court, in such form or forms as the President approves, for the sealing of all orders, warrants, and other instruments requiring to be sealed. 10

(2) Judicial notice shall be taken of the seal of the Court by all Courts and for all purposes.

Records of the Court.

11. The Registrar of the Court shall keep proper books in which shall be entered minutes of all proceedings in the Court. 15

Jurisdiction and Procedure of the Court.

12. Where any person claims—

(a) That he is entitled to or interested in any right of personal status, or any right in respect of property, or any personal right, or any other right, and that the establishment of such right has been or may be rendered difficult or impossible by reason of the loss or destruction of any document, or by reason of any other matter, arising out of the earthquake; or 20

(b) That he is or may be under any liability, or that any property to which he is entitled or in which he is interested is or may be subject to any liability, and that the determination of questions as to the existence or extent of such liability has been or may be rendered difficult or impossible by reason of any such loss, destruction, or other matter— 25

such person may apply to the Court for an order determining any question as to the existence of such right or liability, and declaring the terms thereof, and ordering that notwithstanding such loss, destruction, or other matter the applicant shall enjoy the same rights or be subject to the same liabilities as if such loss, destruction, or other matter had not occurred, or making such particular order as may appear to the Court to be adequate to place the applicant in the same position as nearly as may be as he would have been in if such loss, destruction, or other matter had not occurred. 30 35

Nature of declaratory orders.

13. (1) In any case where the Court is exercising only the jurisdiction conferred by the last preceding section, and is not exercising any other jurisdiction conferred by this Act, the Court shall as far as possible restrict itself to decisions in reinstatement of the previously existing rights and liabilities of the parties without adjudicating upon any question consequentially arising out of such rights or liabilities; but no objection shall be taken to any order of the Court upon the ground that any further or other adjudication or decision affecting the rights and liabilities of the parties is expressed or implied therein. 40 45

Jurisdiction discretionary.

(2) The jurisdiction hereby conferred upon the Court to make a declaratory order shall be discretionary, and the Court may, on any grounds which it deems sufficient, refuse to make any such order. 50

Rehearings of applications for declaratory orders.

14. The Court may at any time, on the application of any person affected, and upon such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, grant a rehearing of any application for an order under section twelve hereof on the ground that documentary evidence has been discovered since the original hearing which was in existence on the third day of February, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, but which was believed at the time of the original hearing to have been lost or destroyed by reason of the earthquake.

15. (1) Where any person claims—

Applications to Court for relief from obligations or encumbrances.

10 (a) That he was on the third day of February, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, and at the time of the application still is subject to any obligation wholly or partly pecuniary in its nature, whether absolute or contingent, and whether accrued or accruing; or

15 (b) That any property to which he is entitled or in which he is interested was on the said third day of February, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, and at the time of the application still is subject to any liability, mortgage, lien, liability for distress or execution, charge, or encumbrance of any kind, wholly or partly pecuniary in its nature (all hereinafter included in the term "encumbrance"); and

20 (c) In either of the above cases, that by reason of the loss or destruction of any property, or the deterioration or depreciation of any assets, arising out of the earthquake he would suffer undue hardship if he were required to comply with or continue to be bound by such obligation, or if such property continued to be subject to such encumbrance—

such person may apply to the Court for relief from such obligation or encumbrance.

30 (2) The Court may entertain any such application notwithstanding that any person other than the applicant is or may be also liable under such obligation or encumbrance, or that any person entitled to the benefit of the encumbrance has or may have recourse to other property in addition to that to which the applicant is entitled or in which he is interested.

35 16. (1) Upon any application under the last preceding section the Court may make such order as it deems just and equitable under the circumstances of the case. In particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing provision, the Court may have regard to the loss suffered as a result of the earthquake by each party affected by the application, the relative positions (financial and otherwise) of such parties, the degree to which the granting of any relief would be reasonably likely to be of permanent benefit to the applicant (considering his circumstances, and particularly his assets and his other liabilities, if any), and any other relevant considerations.

Orders for relief.

45 (2) Any order made under this section may discharge an obligation or encumbrance wholly or in part, or extend the time allowed for the discharge thereof, or vary or amend any of the terms thereof or incidents attending the same, in such manner, and subject to such terms and conditions, as the Court may think fit.

50 17. (1) While any proceedings are pending in the Court relating to any person or property, it shall not be lawful with respect to such person or property, except with the leave of the Court granted upon such terms and conditions as the Court thinks fit, to do any of the acts defined in the next succeeding subsection, or to continue or complete the doing of any such act, whether commenced before or after the passing of this Act or before or after the commencement of such proceedings.

Certain powers of execution, &c., not to be exercised while proceedings pending in Court, except with leave of Court.

(2) The acts referred to in the last preceding subsection are the following:—

- (a) To issue any process of execution in pursuance of any judgment, decree, or order of any Court in a civil jurisdiction (including any order under the Destitute Persons Act, 1910), whether obtained before or after the passing of this Act : 5
- (b) To seize or sell any property by way of distress for rent : 10
- (c) To exercise any power of sale conferred by any mortgage, bill of sale, debenture, debenture trust deed, or other security, whether given before or after the passing of this Act :
- (d) To exercise any power of re-entry or retaking possession of chattels conferred by any lease or bailment granted before the third day of February, nineteen hundred and thirty-one : 15
- (e) To exercise any power of rescission in respect of any contract made before the said third day of February, nineteen hundred and thirty-one :
- (f) To file a creditor's petition in bankruptcy, or, in the case of a 20 company, a petition for its winding-up by the Court.

Notice to be given before such powers are exercised or continued with respect to property or persons in the earthquake area.

18. (1) No person shall, with respect to any property situated in the earthquake area, or with respect to any property (wherever situated) of a person who was on the third day of February, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, resident or carrying on business in the earthquake area, or with respect to any such person, do any of the acts defined in the last preceding section, or continue or complete the doing of any such act, whether commenced before or after the passing of this Act, without first giving one month's notice in writing of his intention so to do to all persons who would be affected by the doing of such act. 25 30

(2) Such notice shall contain an address for service within New Zealand, and shall be signed by the person giving it or by his duly authorized attorney or agent, and shall be deemed to be duly given to any person if delivered to such person or if posted by registered letter addressed to such person at his last known place of abode in New Zealand. 35

Power to reopen transactions in certain cases where such powers have been exercised since the earthquake.

19. (1) Where, with respect to any such property or person as is mentioned in section eighteen hereof, the doing of any act defined in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) of section seventeen hereof has been completed (whenever commenced) before the passing of this Act but since the third day of February, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, or after the passing of this Act but otherwise than in accordance with the provisions thereof, any person who claims to have been affected by the doing of such act may apply to the Court for an order reopening the transaction and setting aside the doing of such act, and reinstating the parties as nearly as may be in their former positions, or for such further or other order as the Court deems just and equitable in the circumstances. 40 45

(2) No application to the Court under this section shall be heard by the Court unless the application is made within three months after the completion of the act complained of in cases where such completion has occurred before the passing of this Act, or within one month after such completion in all other cases. 50

20. (1) In order that full effect may be given to the intent of this Act the Court shall, in every matter coming before it, have full power and jurisdiction to deal with and determine such matter in such manner, and to make such order, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as it deems just and equitable under the circumstances of the case, notwithstanding that express provision in respect of such matter is not contained herein.

Special equitable jurisdiction of Court.

(2) In the course of the proceedings on any application the Court may, subject to rules of Court, without further application and upon such terms as to notice to parties and otherwise as the Court thinks fit, proceed to exercise any other part of its jurisdiction the exercise of which in that proceeding the Court deems necessary or advisable.

Exercise of jurisdiction without application made.

21. (1) The presence of the President and at least one other member shall be necessary to constitute a sitting of the Court :

(a) If he thinks fit, in any interlocutory matter arising in any proceeding ; or

(b) With the consent of the parties, in any proceeding.

23. (1) The Court may act on any testimony, sworn or unsworn, and may receive as evidence any statement, document, information, or matter which in the opinion of the Court may assist the Court to deal effectually with the matters before it, whether the same would, apart from this section, be legally admissible evidence or not.

Evidence Act, with certain modifications, to apply.

40 (2) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, the Evidence Act, 1908, shall apply to the Court and to the members thereof, and to all proceedings therein, in the same manner as if the Court were a Court within the meaning of that Act.

Proceedings may be heard in camera.

50 25. (1) No fee shall be received or demanded in respect of any matter or proceeding in the Court.

No fees payable.

(2) Unless the Court otherwise orders, no costs shall be awarded to any party in any proceeding in the Court, but the Court shall have power if it thinks fit, on account of the relative positions of the parties, or if it considers any act on the part of a party to have been unconscionable or in the circumstances improper, or for any other reason, to order that a sum by way of costs (not exceeding in any case the sum that might have been awarded as costs if the proceedings had been an action in the Supreme Court) be paid by any party to any other party. 5

27. (1) Any proceeding in the Court may be referred by the Court, if it thinks fit,— 15

(4) The decision of a Magistrate upon a proceeding referred to him shall be final and conclusive.

(5) Where a proceeding is referred to a person other than a Magistrate under paragraph (b) of subsection one hereof, the time of hearing and the procedure upon such proceeding shall be in the discretion of such person, and his determination shall be final and conclusive, and he shall have all the powers of the Court in respect of the hearing and determination of the proceeding and the making or refusal of an order. 30

Enforcement of orders.

28. (1) For the purpose of enforcing any order of the Court a copy of such order, under the seal of the Court, may be filed without fee in any office of the appropriate Court, as determined under the next succeeding subsection, whereupon the order shall be enforceable in the same manner as a final judgment of that Court in its civil jurisdiction. 45

Unless the Court otherwise orders, or the rules of the Court otherwise provide, the production of the certificate of title shall not be necessary for the purpose of any such registration under the Land Transfer Act, 1915.

(3) Until registration has been so effected an order of the Court in respect of any estate or interest in land subject to the Land Transfer Act, 1915, shall affect only the equitable title thereto.

32. Proceedings in the Court shall not be impeached or held bad for want of form, nor shall the same be removable to any Court by certiorari or otherwise; and no order or proceeding of the Court shall be liable to be challenged, appealed against, reviewed, quashed, or called in question by any Court on any account whatsoever.
