1. Short Title.

2. No award relating to farming or to the manufacture of butter, cheese, &c., to be made before 1st September, 1928.

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1927, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act). Short Title.

2. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the principal Act, no award relating to any agricultural, pastoral, or dairying operations, or to any other work effected on a farm, or to the manufacture or production of butter, cheese, or other products of milk, or to persons engaged (whether as employers or workers) on a farm or in such manufacture or production shall, after the passing of this Act, be made at any time before the first day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight. No award relating to farming or to the manufacture of butter, cheese, &c., to be made before 1st September, 1928.

(2) Nothing in the last preceding subsection shall operate in any manner to terminate any award in force on the passing of this Act, and every such award shall continue in force as if this section had not been passed, save that no such award shall be in any manner amended or extended before the said first day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight.

By Authority: W. A. G. SKINNER, Government Printer, Wellington.—1927.
